Decisions of the United States Courts Involving Copyright 1985 (Copyright Office Bulletin 49, stock number 030-002-00175-6), compiled and edited by Mark A. Lillis, Attorney for Research Programs, is now available in cloth binding from the Superintendent of Documents. The price of Bulletin 49 is $58.00. Use the form below to place an order.

Bulletin 49, the 33rd in a series, contains substantially all Federal and State copyright cases, as well as related cases in the field of intellectual property, reported during the calendar year 1985. The series, consisting of Bulletins 13 through 49, contains judicial and administrative decisions concerning copyright and literary property which interpreted the copyright law of the States and the Federal Government since 1789. A Supplemental List containing related cases, certain features of which have been summarized, is included in the Appendix of the Bulletin, together with a list of the titles of works identified in the decisions reported and an extensive subject matter index.

All bulletins with the exception of Bulletin 49 are available either in paper copies or in 24X microfiche from National Technical Information Service (NTIS). Call NTIS at 703-487-4650 from Virginia or at 1-800-553-NTIS or write to NTIS, U.S. Department of Commerce, 5285 Port Royal Road, Springfield, VA 22161 for information on orders and prices.
