LIBRARY OF CONGRESS

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION:

I. Background

The Uruguay Round General Agreement on Tariffs and Trade and the Uruguay Round Agreements Act (URAA) (Public Law 103-465; 108 Stat. 4809 (1994)) provide for the restoration of copyright in certain works that were in the public domain in the United States. Under section 104A of title 171 of the United States Code as provided by the URAA, copyright protection was restored on January 1, 1996, in certain works by foreign nationals or domiciliaries of World Trade Organization (WTO) or Berne countries that were not protected under the copyright law for the reasons listed below in (2).
Specifically, for restoration of copyright, a work must be an original work of authorship that on the date of restoration:
(1) was not in the public domain in its source country through expiration of term of protection;
(2) was in the public domain in the United States due to:
(i) noncompliance with formalities imposed at any time by the United States copyright law, including failure of renewal, publishing the work without a proper notice, or failure to comply with any manufacturing requirements; (ii) lack of subject matter protection in the case of sound recordings (rightholder) who was, at the time the work was created, a national or domiciliary of an eligible country. If the work was published, it must have been first published in an eligible country and not published in the United States within 30 days of first publication.
A work meeting these requirements is protected "for the remainder of the term of copyright that the work would have otherwise been granted in the United States if the work never entered the public domain in the United States." 17

Under the URAA, copyright in restored works vests automatically on the date of restoration, 17 U.S.C. 104A(a)(1)(A). That date is January 1, 1996, if the particular nation was already a member of the World Trade Organization (WTO) or the Berne Convention. Otherwise, the effective date of restoration is the date of a particular nation's adherence to the WTO or the Berne Convention or the date when the President issues a proclamation extending copyright restoration to that nation.

Although the copyright owner may immediately enforce the restored copyright against individuals who infringe his or her rights on or after the effective date of restoration, the copyright owner's right to enforce the restored copyright is delayed against reliance parties. Typically, a reliance party is one who was already using the work before December 8, 1994, the date the URAA was enacted. See 17 U.S.C.
104A(h)(4). Before a copyright owner can enforce a restored copyright against a reliance party, the copyright owner must file a Notice of Intent (NIE) with the Copyright Office or serve an NIE on such a party.
An NIE may be filed in the Copyright Office within 24 months of the date of restoration of copyright. Alternatively, an owner may serve an NIE on an individual reliance party at any time during the term of copyright; however, such notices are effective only against the party served and those who have actual knowledge of the notice and its contents. NIEs appropriately filed with the Copyright Office and published herein serve as constructive notice to all reliance parties.

II. Administrative Processing

Pursuant to the URAA, the Office is publishing its ninth four-month list identifying restored works for notices of intent to enforce a restored copyright filed with the Office. 17 U.S.C. 104A(c)(1)(B). The earlier lists were published between May 1, 1996, and April 17, 1998. 61 FR 19372 (May 1, 1996), 61 FR 46134 (Aug. 30, 1996), 61 FR 68454 (Dec. 27, 1996), 62 FR 20211 (April 25, 1997), 62 FR 44482 (Aug. 22, 1997), 63 FR 57669 (Dec. 19, 1997), 63 FR 5142 (Jan. 30, 1998), and 63 FR 19287 (April 17, 1998). To allow for processing this NIE information, the Office closed the record for publication three days before forwarding this record for publication. Accordingly, the NIEs listed herein are those entered into the public records of the Office between January 21, 1998 and August 5, 1998. Any NIEs timely received in the Copyright Office but not processed by August 5, 1998, would appear on a new four-month list, and be published on December 11, 1998.

NIEs for works restored to copyright on January 1, 1996, must have been postmarked on or before December 31, 1997, to be accepted in the Copyright Office for publication in the Federal Register. See 17 U.S.C. 104A(d)(2). NIEs that were received in the Office too late for Federal Register publication (i.e., beyond their source country’s 24-month eligibility period) will be returned to the remitter unrecorded, and the fee will be refunded. On the other hand, owners of works that are still within their eligible filing period may continue to file such notices with the Copyright Office, receive constructive notice, and have their titles published by the Office in the Federal Register. Because the period for filing NIEs in the Office for most all countries’ eligible to file has ended, the Office will publish a new four month list only in the event that it receives new or Correction NIEs from currently eligible remitters, or from nationals of source countries made newly eligible by the reason of adherence to the Berne Convention, the World Trade Organization, or Presidential proclamation.

III. Correction of Previously Filed NIEs

Correction NIEs for major errors (essentially, major errors in title and owner information) on any NIE filed must be submitted within the eligibility period. 37 CFR 201.34(d)(6)(i). Minor errors may be corrected at any time without regard to eligibility for filing, pursuant to the interim regulation on Correction NIEs, published at 62 FR 55736 (Oct. 28, 1997).

IV. On-line Availability of NIE Lists

Using the information provided herein, one may search the Office’s database to obtain additional information about a particular NIE. NIEs are located in what is known as the Copyright Office History Documents (COHD) file, which is available from computer terminals located in the Copyright Office itself or from terminals located in other parts of the Library of Congress through the Library of Congress Information System (LOCIS). Alternative ways to connect through Internet are (i) the World Wide Web (WWW), using the Copyright Office Home Page at: http://www.loc.gov/copyright; or (ii) connect directly to LOCIS through the telnet address at locis.loc.gov. WWW is available 24 hours a day. LOCIS is available 24 hours a day Monday through Friday, U.S. Eastern Time; Saturday, until 5 p.m.; and Sunday after 1 a.m.

Information available online includes: the title or brief description if untitled; an English translation of the title; the alternative titles if any; the name of the copyright owner or owner of one or more exclusive rights, the date of receipt of the NIE in the Copyright Office; the date of publication in the Federal Register; and the address, telephone and telefax number of the copyright owner. If given on the NIE, the online information will also include the author, the type of work, and the rights covered by the notice. See 37 CFR 201.33(f). For the purpose of researching the full Office record of NIEs on the Internet, the Office has made online searching instructions available through the Copyright Office Home Page. Researchers can access them through the Library of Congress Home Page on the World Wide Web by selecting the copyright link. Select the menu item “Copyright Office Records” and/or “URAA, GATT Amends U.S. law.” In addition to online records, images of the complete NIEs as filed are on optical disc and available from the Copyright Office.

V. Alien Properties Custodian Act

The URAA does not restore copyright protection to “‘a’ny work in which the copyright was ever owned or administered by the Alien Property Custodian and in which the restored copyright would be owned by a government or instrumentality thereof.” 17 U.S.C. 104A(a)(1)(B)(2). For those seeking to determine whether or not this exclusion applies to a particular work, the Office published background information at 63 FR 19289 (April 17, 1998).

VI. Scope of NIE Recordation

Under the URAA, the owner of a right in a restored work may file an NIE to notify reliance parties of its intention to enforce its right. The Copyright Office is required by law to publish in the Federal Register “lists identifying restored works and the ownership thereof if a notice of intent to enforce a restored copyright has been filed.” 17 U.S.C. 104A(d)(1)(B)(I). The Office does not research the facts stated in Notices of Intent to Enforce to determine whether a work is or is not eligible for restoration. Nor does the Office adjudicate between competing parties who have filed NIEs for identical works. (Under section 104A, however, a material false statement knowingly made with respect to any restored copyright identified in an NIE makes void all claims and assertions made with respect to such restored copyright. 17 U.S.C. 104A(e)(3)). Accordingly, the filing of an NIE indicates only that a party claims rights in a restored work, and does not represent a determination by the Copyright Office that this claim is valid. In all cases, the validity of such a claim is governed by the terms of the relevant law, including the URAA, as applied to the relevant facts.

VII. Ninth List of Notices of Intent To Enforce

The following restored works are listed alphabetically by copyright owner; multiple works owned by a particular copyright owner are listed alphabetically by title. Works having more than one copyright proprietor are listed under the first owner and cross-referenced to the succeeding owner(s). A cross-reference to the composite owner (e.g., Title I owned by “A & B”) will state, “SEE A & B” at the listing for each individual owner (e.g., for Owner A, for Owner B and for Owner C).
