[Docket No. 99-6 CARP DTRA]

Digital Performance Right in Sound Recordings and Ephemeral Recordings

AGENCY: Copyright Office, Library of Congress

ACTION: Notice with a request for comments.

SUMMARY: The Copyright Office is announcing the schedule for the Copyright Arbitration Royalty Panel which shall set rates and terms for two compulsory licenses. One license allows certain eligible nonsubscription services to perform sound recordings publicly by means of digital audio transmissions and the other allows a transmitting organization to make an ephemeral recording of a sound recording for the purpose of making a permitted public performance. The Office is also announcing the date by which a party who wishes to participate in the rate adjustment proceeding must file its Notice of Intention to Participate.

DATES: Comments and Notices of Intention to Participate are due no later than November 1, 1999.

ADDRESSES: An original and five copies of a Notice of Intention to Participate and an original and five copies of any comment shall be delivered to: Office of the General Counsel, Copyright Office, James Madison Building, Room LM-403, First and Independence Avenue, S.E., Washington, D.C. 20559-6000; or mailed to: Copyright Arbitration Royalty Panel (CARP), P.O. Box 70977, Southwest Station, Washington, D.C. 20559-6000.

FOR FURTHER INFORMATION CONTACT: David O. Carson, General Counsel, or Tanya M. Sanders, Attorney Advisor, Copyright Arbitration Royalty Panel, P.O. Box 70977, Southwest Station, Washington, D.C. 20024. Telephone: (202) 707-8380. Telefax: (202) 252-3423.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION:

Background

Among the limitations placed on the performance of the sound recording was the creation of a new compulsory license for nonexempt, noninteractive, digital subscription services. 17 U.S.C. 114. The scope of this license was expanded in 1998 with the passage of the Digital Millennium Copyright Act ("DMCA") to cover the public performance of sound recordings by means of eligible nonsubscription transmissions and transmissions by any preexisting satellite digital audio radio service which performs a sound recording by means of a digital audio transmission. Section 114(j)(6).

An "eligible nonsubscription transmission" is a noninteractive digital audio transmission which, as the name implies, does not require a subscription for receiving the transmission. The transmission must also be made as part of a service that provides audio programming consisting in whole or in part of performances of sound recordings the purpose of which is to provide audio or entertainment programming, but not to sell, advertise, or promote particular goods or services. A "preexisting satellite digital audio radio service" is a subscription digital audio radio service that received a satellite digital audio radio service license issued by the Federal Communications Commission on or before July 31, 1998. See 17 U.S.C. 114(j)(6) and (10). Only two known entities, CD Radio and XM Satellite Radio (formerly known as American Mobile Radio Corporation), qualify under the statutory definition as preexisting satellite digital audio radio services.

In addition to expanding the current section 114 license, the DMCA creates a new statutory license for the making of an "ephemeral recording" of a sound recording by certain transmitting organizations. The new statutory license allows entities that transmit performances of sound recordings to business establishments, pursuant to the limitations set forth in section 114(d)(1)(C)(iv), to make an ephemeral recording of a sound recording for purposes of a later transmission.

The new license also provides a means by which a transmitting entity with a statutory license under section 114(f) can make more than the one phonorecord specified in section 112(a). 17 U.S.C. 112(e).

Determination of Reasonable Terms and Rates

The statutory scheme for establishing reasonable terms and rates is the same for both licenses. The terms and rates for the two new statutory licenses may be determined through a voluntary negotiation process, or if necessary, through compulsory arbitration conducted pursuant to Chapter 8 of the Copyright Act. Because the DMCA does not establish reasonable rates and terms for either the new section 112 or the expanded section 114 license, the statute requires the Librarian of Congress to initiate a voluntary negotiation period, the first phase in the rate setting process, within 30 days of enactment.
Comments and Notices of Intention to Participate

The regulations governing rate adjustment proceedings require that, upon the filing of a petition for rate adjustment, the Office establish a date certain by which parties wishing to participate in the proceeding must file with the Librarian a Notice of Intention to Participate. 37 CFR 251.45(a). In consideration of the ongoing negotiations, the Office is setting November 1, 1999, as the date by which an interested party must file its Notice of Intention to Participate. Failure to submit a timely notice will preclude the interested party from participating in the CARP proceeding whose purpose will be to set rates and terms for: (1) certain digital audio transmissions by a service eligible to make use of the expanded section 114 license, and (2) for ephemeral digital audio transmissions by a service eligible to make use of the expanded section 112 license.

In addition, any party who wishes to comment on the RIAA petition may file a comment with the Copyright Office no later than close of business on November 1, 1999. The Librarian will consider these comments when evaluating the sufficiency of the petition. See 37 CFR 251.64.

Precontroversy Discovery Schedule

The Copyright Office is announcing the schedule for the 45-day precontroversy discovery period. Any party that files a Notice of Intention to Participate in this proceeding may participate in the precontroversy discovery period, provided that the party has submitted a written direct case with the Copyright Office and with all other parties who have filed a Notice of Intention to Participate. Each party may request of an opposing party nonprivileged documents underlying facts asserted in another party's written direct case. The precontroversy discovery period is limited to discovery of documents related to a party's written direct case and any amendment made to it during the 45-day period.

The precontroversy discovery schedule will be as follows:

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Action</th>
<th>Deadline</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Filing of written direct cases</td>
<td>January 18, 2000</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Requests for underlying documents related to written direct cases</td>
<td>January 26, 2000</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Responses to request for underlying documents</td>
<td>February 1, 2000</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Completion of document production</td>
<td>February 7, 2000</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Follow-up requests for underlying documents</td>

</tbody>
Motions related to document production must be filed by February 22, 2000. Typically, these motions are motions to compel production of requested documents for failure to produce them, but they may also be motions for protective orders. Finally, all other motions, petitions and objections must be filed by March 2, 2000, the final day of the 45-day precontroversy discovery period. These motions, petitions, and objections include, for example, petitions to dispense with formal hearings under Sec. 251.41(b).

Due to the time limitations between the procedural steps of the precontroversy discovery schedule, we are requiring that all discovery requests and responses to such requests be served by hand or fax on the party to whom such response or request is directed. Filing of requests and responses with the Copyright Office is neither encouraged nor required.

Filing and service of all precontroversy motions, petitions, objections, oppositions, and replies shall be as follows. In order to be considered properly filed with the Librarian and/or Copyright Office, all pleadings must be delivered to the Copyright Office no later than 5 p.m. of the filing deadline date. Parties may deliver the pleadings to: Office of the Register of Copyrights, Room LM-403, James Madison Memorial Building, 101 Independence Avenue, S.E., Washington, D.C. 20540; or alternatively, parties may send their pleadings by Federal Express to: Copyright Arbitration Royalty Panel (CARP), Attn: Gina Giuffreda (Tel. 202-707-8380), Federal Express, 208 Second Street, S.E., Washington, D.C. 20003, provided that the filing reaches the Copyright Office by the deadline. The Office cautions parties to use only the Federal Express address listed in this Notice, to include the telephone number of the Office, and to direct the package to the attention of the CARP Specialist, Ms. Gina Giuffreda. The Federal Express office will notify the Copyright Office upon receipt of a properly addressed package, and the Copyright Office will make arrangements to pick up the package the same day. Under no circumstances will the Office make arrangements to retrieve a package from any other Federal Express location or track a misdirected package. Each party bears the responsibility for insuring that the filings are in the Copyright Office by the deadline.

The form and content of all motions, petitions, objections, oppositions, and replies filed with the Office must be in compliance with Secs. 251.44(b)-(e). As provided in Sec. 251.45(b), oppositions to any motions or petitions must be filed with the Office no later than seven business days from the date of filing of such motion or petition. Replies are due five business days from the date of filing of such oppositions. Service of all motions, petitions, objections, oppositions, and replies must be made on counsel or the parties by means no slower than overnight express mail on the same day the pleading is filed.

Initiation of Arbitration

The 180-day arbitration period will be initiated on May 1, 2000. The schedule of the arbitration proceeding will be established by the CARP after the three arbitrators have been selected.

Future Proceedings

Sections 114(f)(2)(C) and 112(e)(7) of the Copyright Act, title 17, require the publication of a notice of the initiation of voluntary negotiation proceedings during the first week of January 2000. The purpose of these negotiations would be to set rates and terms for the public performance of sound recordings by means of eligible nonsubscription transmission services and for the making of ephemeral recordings for the period January 1, 2001, to December 31, 2003. Parties to a voluntary agreement, however, may designate an alternative schedule for setting rates and terms for the section 114 license as a provision of the settlement agreement. 17 U.S.C. 14(f)(2)(A) and (2)(C)(i)(II); 17 U.S.C. 112(e) (4) and (7).

In the event the parties to the current proceeding do not reach a settlement agreement prior to the first week of January, 2000, which includes an alternative schedule for setting rates and terms to cover the period January 1, 2001, to December 31, 2003, the Office will adhere to the statutory time frame and announce the initiation of the voluntary negotiation period for this next two-year cycle.

Dated: September 21, 1999.

David O. Carson,

General Counsel.
