Old Corbels in Ralph Meyer's House

REPRESENTED IN NEGATIVE FILE

H.A.B.S. SURVEY NO.

NM-51

History: Corbels taken from San Geronomo de Taos Mission, near Taos, built in 1630, now destroyed, and placed at entrance to Ralph Meyer's house in Taos. Hand carved native pine. Very good example of wood work used by the Franciscan Fathers in the 17th century.
