

The Alex. Marshall House
Auburn, N.Y.

HABS NY-219

HABS

N.Y.

6-AUG. V.

2-

PHOTOGRAPHS

DISTRICT OF NEW YORK - 2

WRITTEN HISTORICAL AND DESCRIPTIVE DATA

REDUCED COPIES OF MEASURED DRAWINGS

Historic American Building Survey
Walter H. Gassebeer, District Officer
84 Exchange St., Rochester N.Y.

HISTORIC AMERICAN BUILDING SURVEY

DISTRICT 5-8-7

MARSHALL HOUSE

Auburn, N. Y.

Cayuga Co.

This house, now the J. Reynolds Wait home, is said by Mr. D. M. Dunning, an authority on the early history of Auburn, to have been built by Captain Alex Marshall.

Captain Marshall moved to Auburn in 1835 with an influx of a number of sea captains from Nantucket.

By Helen E. C. Gillespie
from thesis - Cornell