

STATE Virginia	COUNTY Page	TOWN OR VICINITY LURAY VIC. (So. of the mouth of Mill Creek) 115 * 14p
INDEX NUMBER VA 70-LURA.V.2	MONUMENT Fort Egypt 3d HABSI
REPRESENTED IN NEGATIVE FILE	H.A.B.S. SURVEY NO. VA-200	History: Built by Jacob Strickler Present owner, Reynard Burner MRD. S. B. HOOVER
PUBLISHED PHOTOGRAPHS	Description: Fort cellar of two rooms, inner room is arched keystone style (thick heavy stones) ceiling in center about 7½ feet high, ceiled with mortar made of straw, lime and clay. Room or cellar is 16 x 13 feet. Several iron and wooden hooks protrude from the walls. House built of heavy hand-hewed logs is erected over the underground fort. 2 stories, attic with fort cellar. Chimney extending
PUBLISHED DRAWINGS
* 2p = DISCARD FN-122
GPO 6-8369		HISTORIC AMERICAN BUILDINGS SURVEY 112

in the center of house.
which is now closed is in

About a 12 ft. fireplace
the front room.

Author

Virginia Thompson, Historian
Richmond, Virginia
October 10, 1936

Historic American Buildings Survey

HARRY STRICKLER - MASSACHUSETTS, 1924