Write to Guthrie that we do know the books he wants. Give him full title checklist etc. etc. etc. Then tell him that we cannot send him one but that we do know why — we haven't any more. Tell him it's out of date anyway.

P.S. I asked Alan to reserve at least sixty for foreign libraries. I'm sorry to learn that there are only 12. I suggest we send them at once to London, Dublin, Stockholm, Berlin, Rome, Moscow, etc.
