which can be or is cleaned to meet the specifications, and which does not contain noxious weeds or seeds of White Top, Canada Thistle, Dodder, Quackgrass, Johnson Grass, Bindweed, Russian Knapweed, Perennial Fox Thistle, or Leafy Spurge singly or combined in excess of 45 seeds per pound is eligible for a loan when placed in proper storage, if the beneficial interest is and always has been in the eligible producer, or now is in the custom harvester.

§ 274.65 Eligible storage—(a) Farm. Only inspected and approved structures will qualify. Farm storage is applicable only to blue lupine seed and only in areas designated by the Production and Marketing Administration. Farm storage shall consist of farm buildings which are of such substantial and permanent constructions as determined by the county agricultural conservation committee to afford safe storage of the seed for a period of 2 years and permit effective fumigation for the destruction of insects and afford protection against rodents, other animals, thieves, and weather.

(b) Warehouse. Seed shall be stored in a warehouse which has executed a Seed Cleaning and Storage Agreement on CCC Seed Form A (revised May 11, 1947) and which complies with other provisions of the instructions in §§ 274.60-274.85. Upon delivery of the seeds to producers on payment of their loans, warehousemen shall label all seed as required by the Federal Seed Act and the applicable State seed law. Upon delivery of the seed to CCC, warehousemen shall label all seed as required by the Federal Seed Act and the seed law of the State or county into which shipment is directed by CCC.

§ 274.66 Approved forms. The approved forms constitute the loan documents which together with the provisions of the instructions in §§ 274.60-274.85 govern the rights and responsibilities of the producer, and should be read carefully. Any fraudulent representation made by a producer in obtaining a loan or in executing any of the loan documents will render him subject to prosecution under the United States Criminal Code.

(a) Farm storage. Approved forms shall consist of producer's notes on CCC Commodity Form A, secured by chattel mortgages on CCC Commodity Form AA.

(b) Warehouse storage. Approved forms shall consist of note and loan agreements, CCC Commodity Form B, secured by negotiable warehouse receipts representing the commodity stored in approved warehouses.

(c) Note and loan agreements. Notes and note and loan agreements must be executed in accordance with the instructions in §§ 274.60-274.85, with State and documentary revenue stamps affixed thereto where required by law. Notes and note and loan agreements executed by an administrator, executor, or trustee will be acceptable only where legally valid.

§ 274.67 Determination of quantity. The actual weight of the seed shall constitute the quantity of seed to be under loan; except that the quantity of blue lupine seed in farm storage may be determined by multiplying the number of net cubic feet in the bin times 47, times the percent of pure seed as determined by the analysis, and the product shall be the pounds of seed to be placed under loan. Measurements and computation shall be according to instructions in Commodity Loan-2, Part 1.

§ 274.68 Determination of quality. All determinations of germination and purity shall be on the basis of an official test of a representative sample. An official test shall be an analysis made by a seed-testing laboratory approved by the State FMA committee. A representative sample of bagged seed shall consist of equal portions taken from evenly distributed parts of the lot of seed to be sampled. In quantities of five bags or less, each bag shall be sampled; in quantities of more than five bags, at least every fifth bag but not less than five bags shall be sampled. A probe or trier shall be used in drawing these samples. Bulk seed shall be sampled by inserting a long probe or thrusting the hand into the bulk as circumstances require in at least seven uniformly distributed parts of the quantity being sampled. Samples of Austrian Winter Pea and blue lupine seed shall be at least 2 pounds in weight.

§ 274.69 Liens. The commodity must be free and clear of all liens and encumbrances, or if liens or encumbrances exist on the commodity, proper waivers must be obtained.

§ 274.70 Charges to be paid by producer—(a) Service fees. Where the commodity is farm-stored the producer shall pay a service fee of 2 cents per hundredweight but not less than $3.00; and where the commodity is warehouse-stored the producer shall pay a service fee of 1 cent per hundredweight but not less than $1.50.

(b) Other charges. Costs of cleaning, bags and baggage, testing, tagging, fumigating if necessary, and transportation to approved warehouses are to be borne by the producer. Such costs should not exceed the charges provided in the CCC cleaning and storage agreement for seed processors. In case of warehouse storage in bulk or otherwise where the seed is not ready for merchandising, the cost of the above items not paid for by the producer shall be deducted from the amount of the loan.

§ 274.71 Set-offs. A producer who is listed on the county AAA debt register as indebted to any agency or corporation of the United States Department of Agriculture shall designate the agency or corporation to which he is indebted as the payee of the proceeds of the loan to the extent of such indebtedness, but not to exceed that portion of the proceeds remaining after deduction of the service fees and amounts due prior lien-holders. Indebtedness owing to the Commodity Credit Corporation shall be given first consideration after claims of prior lien-holders.

§ 274.72 Loan rates. Loan and settlement rates for the designated qualities of seed are set out in Tables I and II.

§ 274.73 Interest rate. Loans shall bear interest at the rate of 3 percent per annum; and interest shall accrue from the date of disbursement of the loan, notwithstanding the printed provisions of the note.

§ 274.74 Transfer of producer's equity. The right of the producer to transfer either his right to redeem the commodity or his remaining interest may be restricted by Commodity Credit Corporation.

§ 274.75 Safeguarding of the commodity. The producer is obligated to maintain the farm storage structures in good repair, and to keep the commodity in good condition.

§ 274.76 Insurance. Commodity Credit Corporation will not require the producer to insure the commodity placed under farm storage loan; however, if the producer does insure such commodity such insurance shall inure to the benefit of Commodity Credit Corporation to the extent of its interest, after first satisfying the producer's equity in the commodity involved in the loss.

§ 274.77 Loss or damage to the commodity. The producer is responsible for any loss in quantity or quality to farm-stored commodity, except that uninsured physical loss or damage occurring without fault, negligence, or conversion on the part of the producer resulting solely from an external cause other than insect infestation or vermin will be assumed by the Corporation, Provided, The producer has given the county committee immediate notice in writing of such loss or damage, and Provided, There has been no fraudulent representation made by the producer in the loan documents or in obtaining the loan.

§ 274.78 Personal liability. The making of any fraudulent representation by the producer in the loan documents or in obtaining the loan, or the conversion or unlawful disposition of any portion of the commodity by him, shall render the producer personally liable for the amount of the loan and for any resulting expense incurred by any holder of the note.

§ 274.79 Maturity and satisfaction. Loans mature on demand but not later than September 1, 1947, for blue lupine, and April 30, 1948, for Austrian Winter Pea seed. In the case of farm storage loans, the producer is required to pay off his loan on or before maturity date, or to deliver the mortgaged commodity within 60 days after maturity date. Credit will be given for the total quantity delivered, provided it was stored in the bins in which the commodity under loan was stored, at the applicable settlement rate, according to quality. If the settlement value of the commodity delivered exceeds the amount due on the loan, the amount of the excess shall be paid to the producer. If the settlement value of the commodity is less than the amount due on the loan, the amount of the deficiency, plus interest, shall be paid by the producer to the Corporation, and may be set off against any payment which would otherwise be made to the producer under any agricultural programs administered by the Secretary of Agriculture, or any other payments which are due or may become due to the producer from Commodity Credit Corporation or any other agency of the United States. In the event the farm is sold or there is a change of tenancy, the commodity may be delivered before the maturity date of the loan upon prior approval by the county committee.

§ 274.80 Removal of the commodity. If the loan is not satisfied upon maturity by payment, or delivery, the holder of the note may remove the commodity and sell it, either by separate contract or after pooling it with other lots of the same commodity similarly held. The producer has no right of redemption after the commodity is pooled, but shall share ratably in any overplus remaining upon liquidation of the pool. The Commodity Credit Corporation shall have the right to treat a pooled commodity as a reserve supply to be marketed under such sales policies as the Corporation determines will promote orderly marketing, protect the interests of producers and consumers, and not unduly impair the market for the current crop of the commodity, even though part or all of such pooled commodity is disposed of under such policies at prices less than the current domestic price for such commodity. Any sum due the producer as a result of the sale of the commodity or of insurance proceeds thereon, or any ratable share resulting from the liquidation of a pool, shall be payable only to the producer without right of assignment by him.

§ 274.81 Release of the commodity. A producer may obtain release of the commodity by paying to the holder of the note, or note and loan agreement, the principal amount thereof, plus interest. If the note is held by an out-of-town lending agency or by Commodity Credit Corporation, the producer may request that the note be forwarded to a local bank for collection. In such case, where Commodity Credit Corporation is the holder of the note, the local bank will be instructed to return the note if payment is not effected within 15 days. All charges in connection with the collection of the note shall be paid by the producer. Upon payment of a farm storage loan, the county committee should be requested to release the mortgage by filing an instrument of release or by a marginal release on the county record. Partial releases of the commodity may be arranged with the county committee by paying to the holder of the note the amount of the loan, plus charges and accrued interest, represented by the quantity of the commodity to be released. In case of warehouse storage loans, each partial release must cover all of the commodity under one warehouse receipt number.

§ 274.82 Storage allowance. On farm-stored blue lupine seed a storage allowance of 10 cents per 100 pounds on the quantity of seed shown on the loan document less any amount owing the Corporation will be paid borrowers if the seed is delivered to Commodity Credit Corporation after September 1, 1947, provided there has been no fraudulent representation or conversion of any part of the collateral by the producer, and the collateral has not been abandoned or has not become damaged or impaired through the fault or negligence of the producer. The storage allowance will also be paid if, pursuant to demand by the Corporation or agreement for repayment of the loan, the seed is delivered to the Corporation before September 1, 1947, Provided, The demand for repayment was not due to any fraudulent representation on the part of the borrower or was not made because the seed was damaged, threatened with damage, abandoned, or otherwise impaired.

For warehouse-stored seeds, the maximum warehousing charges that may be paid by Commodity Credit Corporation if the seed becomes the property of CCC are stated in CCC Seed Form-A, Supplement 1-1947.

§ 274.83 Purchase of notes. Commodity Credit Corporation will purchase, from approved lending agencies, notes evidencing approved loans which are secured by chattel mortgages or negotiable warehouse receipts. The purchase price to be paid by Commodity Credit Corporation will be the principal sums remaining due on such notes, plus accrued interest from the date of disbursement to the date of purchase at the rate of 1½ percent per annum. Lending agencies are required to submit a weekly report to the Corporation and to the county committee on 1940 CCC Form F or such other form as the Corporation may prescribe, of all payments received on producers' notes held by them, and are required to remit promptly to Commodity Credit Corporation an amount equivalent to 1½ percent interest per annum, on the amount of the principal collected, from the date of disbursement to the date of payment. Lending agencies should submit notes and reports to the CCC office serving the area.

PART 151—RECOGNITION OF BREEDS AND PUREBRED ANIMALS

DOGS; BOOK OF RECORD RECOGNITION

Pursuant to the authority vested in the Secretary of Agriculture by paragraph 1606, section 201, Title II, of the act of June 17, 1930 (46 Stat. 673; 19 U. S. C. 1201, par. 1606), paragraph (a) of § 151.6, Chapter I, Title 9, Code of Federal Regulations, as amended (par. 1, sec. 2, reg. 2, B. A. I. Order 365), is amended by adding to the subdivision of said paragraph relating to dogs the following breeds and book of record:

Dogs

Name of breed	Book of record			By whom published
	Newfoundland Register.	Live	Stock
Various recognized breeds				Department of Natural Resources, Kenneth J. Carter, secretary, St. John's Newfoundland.

This amendment shall become effective on publication in the FEDERAL REGISTER.

NOTE: Whereas the importation into the United States of purebred animals for breeding purposes benefits the public by improving the breeds of animals in the United States, and Congress has recognized this fact in paragraph 1606, section 201 of the act of June 17, 1930 (19 U. S. C. 1201, par. 1606) under which purebred animals imported by United States citizens may be imported duty-free if they are certified by the Department of Agriculture as registered in a book of record recognized by the Secretary of Agriculture for the particular breed; and whereas, pending issuance of such certificate, the importer is required by regulations of the United States Customs Bureau to post a bond valid for a limited period and subject to forfeiture unless the certificate is obtained and submitted to the Customs Bureau within such time; and whereas certificates have been requested from the Department of Agriculture for purebred dogs registered in the book of record specified above which has not heretofore been recognized by the Secretary of Agriculture in his regulations under said act; and whereas the Secretary of Agriculture has determined that the regulations should be amended to recognize such book of record and thereby to relieve restrictions upon the importation of such dogs; and whereas the foregoing amendment to accomplish this purpose should be made effective as soon as possible in order to be of maximum benefit to the public and in order to prevent unnecessary hardship to importers through forfeiture of their bonds, it is found, upon good cause, that compliance with the notice and hearing requirements of section 4 of the Administrative Procedure Act would be impracticable, unnecessary and contrary to the public interest, and good cause is found to exist for issuance of the foregoing amendment effective less than thirty days after publication.

Issued this 17th day of June 1947.

(46 Stat. 673; 19 U. S. C. 1201, par. 1606)

TITLE 21—FOOD AND DRUGS

Chapter I—Food and Drug Administration, Federal Security Agency

PART 141—TESTS AND METHODS OF ASSAY FOR ANTIBIOTIC DRUGS

CRYSTALLINE PENICILLIN TABLETS

By virtue of the authority vested in the Federal Security Administrator by the provisions of section 507 of the Federal Food, Drug, and Cosmetic Act (52 Stat. 1040, 1055, as amended by 59 Stat. 463 and Pub. Law 16, 80th Cong., 1st Sess., 21 U. S. C. Sup. 357) the regulations for tests and methods of assay of antibiotic drugs (12 F. R. 2215) are hereby amended by adding the following new section:

§ 141.21 Crystalline penicillin tablets—(a) Potency. Proceed as directed in § 141.1 except paragraph (i) thereof, and in lieu of the directions in paragraph (d) of § 141.1 prepare sample as follows:

Dissolve 12 tablets in sterile distilled water to make an appropriate stock solution. The average potency of the tablets is satisfactory if it contains not less than 85% of the number of units per tablet it is represented to contain.

(b) Microorganism count. Accurately weigh from 3 to 5 tablets in a test tube and add sufficient sterile penicillinase contained in a total volume of 15 ml. to inactivate the penicillin present. Let stand one hour. Thoroughly shake the mixture and transfer aseptically one-third the amount to each of three sterile petri dishes. Pour into the petri dish 20 ml. of nutrient agar, described in § 141.1 (b) (1) which has been melted and cooled to 48° C. Thoroughly mix, allow the agar to solidify, invert the petri dish, and incubate for 48 hours at 37° C. Count the number of colonies appearing on the plates and calculate therefrom the number of viable microorganisms per gram.

(c) Toxicity. Proceed as directed in § 141.4.

(d) Moisture, pH, microscopical test for crystallinity, stability, penicillin G content and penicillin K content. Proceed as directed in § 141.5.

This order, which provides for the marketing of a new penicillin product, crystalline penicillin tablets, shall become effective upon publication in the FEDERAL REGISTER, since both the public and the penicillin industry will benefit by the earliest effective date, and I so find.

Notice and public procedure are not necessary prerequisites to the promulgation of this order and would be contrary to the public interest, and I so find, since it was drawn in collaboration with interested members of the affected industry, and since it would be against public interest to delay the marketing of a new penicillin product. ## PART 146—CERTIFICATION OF BATCHES OF PENICILLIN-OR STREPTOMYCIN-CONTAINING DRUGS

MISCELLANEOUS AMENDMENTS

By virtue of the authority vested in the Federal Security Administrator by the provisions of section 507 of the Federal Food, Drug, and Cosmetic Act (52 Stat. 1040, 1055, as amended by 59 Stat. 463 and Public Law 16, 80th Cong., 1st Sess., 21 U. S. C., Sup. 357) the regulations for the certification of penicillin-containing drugs and streptomycin-containing drugs are hereby amended as indicated below:

1. Paragraph (a) of § 146.25, Penicillin oil and wax, is amended by deleting the last two sentences of the paragraph and substituting therefor the following: "The peanut oil, sesame oil, and the white wax used conform to the standards prescribed therefor by the U. S. P."

2. Part 146 is amended by adding the following new section:

§ 146.39 Crystalline penicillin tablets—(a) Standards of identity, strength, quality, and purity. Crystalline penicillin tablets are molded, freely soluble tablets of crystalline penicillin. It is tableted without the addition of diluents, binders, lubricants, colorings, or flavorings. The potency of each tablet is not less than 50,000 units; it conforms to the requirements of § 146.24 (a) for crystalline penicillin except subparagraphs (2) (4) and (7) of § 146.24 (a) but its content of viable microorganisms is not more than 50 per gram.

(b) Packaging. Each tablet is enclosed in a foil of plastic film or other container each of which is a tight container as defined by the U. S. P. except the provision that it shall be capable of tight reclosure. The composition of the container shall be such as will not cause any change in the strength, quality, or purity of the contents beyond any limit therefor in applicable standards, except that minor changes so caused which are normal and unavoidable in good packaging, storage, and distribution practice shall be disregarded.

(c) Labeling. Each package of crystalline penicillin tablets shall bear, on its label or labeling as hereinafter indicated, the following:

(1) On the outside wrapper or container and the immediate container:

- (i) The batch mark;
- (ii) The number of units in each tablet of the batch;
- (iii) The statement "Warning—Not for injection";

(iv) The statement "Expiration date _____" the blank being filled in with the date which is 36 months after the month during which the batch was certified;

(v) The statement "Caution: To be dispensed only by or on the prescription of a _____," the blank being filled in with the word "physician" or "dentist" or both, as the case may be;

(vi) A reference specifically identifying a readily available medical publication containing directions and precautions (including contraindications and possible sensitization) adequate for the use of such tablets; or a reference to a brochure, or other printed matter containing such directions and precautions, and a statement that such brochure and printed matter will be sent on request.

(d) Requests for certification; samples. (1) In addition to complying with the requirements of § 146.2, a person who requests certification of a batch of crystalline penicillin tablets shall submit with his request a statement showing the batch mark, the number of packages of each size in such batch, the batch mark and (unless it was previously submitted) the date on which the latest assay of the penicillin used in making such batch was completed, the number of units in each tablet, the quantity of crystalline penicillin used in making the batch, and the date on which the latest assay of the tablets comprising such batch was completed.

(2) Such person shall submit in connection with his request results of the tests and assays listed after each of the following, made by him on an accurately representative sample of the batch: Average potency per tablet, toxicity, average moisture, pH, microorganism count, penicillin K content (unless it is crystalline penicillin G) crystallinity, heat stability, and the penicillin G content if it is crystalline penicillin G.

(3) Such person shall submit in connection with his request accurately representative samples of the batch: One tablet for each 5,000 tablets in the batch, but in no case less than 40 tablets or more than 120 tablets, collected by taking single tablets at such intervals throughout the entire time the tablets are being made that the quantities made during the intervals are approximately equal.

(e) Fees. The fee for the services rendered with respect to each batch of crystalline penicillin tablets under the regulations in this part shall be:

(1) $1.00 for each tablet in the sample submitted in accordance with paragraph (d) (3) of this section; and

(2) If the Commissioner considers that investigations, other than examination of such tablets, are necessary to determine whether or not such batch complies with the requirements of § 146.3 for the issuance of a certificate, the cost of such investigations.

The fee prescribed by subparagraph (1) of this paragraph shall accompany the request for certification unless such fee is covered by an advance deposit maintained in accordance with § 146.8 (d)

This order, which provides for the marketing of a new penicillin product, crystalline penicillin tablets, and new and amended standards for peanut oil, sesame oil, and white wax shall become effective upon publication in the FEDERAL REGISTER since both the public and the penicillin industry will benefit by the earliest effective date, and I so find.

Notice and public procedure are not necessary prerequisites to the promulgation of this order and would be contrary to the public interest, and I so find, since it was drawn in collaboration with interested members of the affected industry and since it would be against public interest to delay the marketing of a new penicillin product and revising the stand-

TITLE 32—NATIONAL DEFENSE

Chapter VII—Sugar Rationing Administration, Department of Agriculture

[3d Rev. RO 3, Amdt. 55]

PART 707—RATIONING OF SUGAR SUGAR

A rationale for this amendment has been issued simultaneously herewith and has been filed with the Division of the Federal Register.

Third Revised Ration Order 3 is amended in the following respects:

1. Section 2.8 (b) (2) is amended to read as follows:

(2) All sugar (other than sugar which was included in his present inventory and sugar acquired under the provisions of section 8.9) received without giving up evidences.

2. Section 2.10 (b) is amended by adding a sentence to read as follows: "However, an industrial user who acquires sugar under the provisions of section 8.9 may use such sugar in excess of his allotment for the period in which such sugar was acquired, or any subsequent period."

3. Section 8.9 is added to read as follows:

Sec. 8.9 Ration-free delivery of sugar manufactured for own use. (a) Any person who manufactures sugar for his own use, or has it manufactured for his own use by another person, from (1) an imported sugar-containing product, or from (2) a sugar-containing product for which ration evidences have been surrendered for the amount of sugar contained in such product, may acquire and use such sugar in his registered industrial user establishment without the surrender of ration evidences.

4. Section 17.2 (a) is amended by adding a sentence to read as follows: "However, the provisions of this section do not apply to sugar acquired under the provisions of section 8.9."

This amendment shall become effective June 20, 1947.

Issued this 18th day of June 1947.

CLINTON P. ANDERSON,
Secretary of Agriculture.

Rationale Accompanying Amendment No. 55 to Third Revised Ration Order 3

Under the present regulations, a person who manufactures sugar is a primary distributor and he may not make an industrial use of sugar he produces unless he is also a registered industrial user. As an industrial user, he must give up evidences to his primary distributor establishment for any sugar he acquires or uses in such operations. Thus, a person who manufactures sugar from a product containing sugar for which ration evidences have been surrendered, or from an imported sugar-containing product, may not thereafter make an industrial use of the sugar recovered from such products unless he is a registered industrial user and unless he surrenders ration evidences covering the amount of the sugar.

Sugar-containing products and imported sugar-containing products which are used by an industrial user to make another product and which are damaged in the course of manufacture, may have no commercial value unless the sugar contained therein is recovered. However, under the present provisions of the regulations he may not recover the sugar from such products and make an industrial use of it without surrendering ration evidences. Since it is desirable to provide for the use of such recovered sugar without requiring the surrender of ration evidences, this amendment permits a person who, for his own use, manufactures, or has another person manufacture for him, sugar from a sugar-containing product for which ration evidences have been surrendered, or from an imported sugar-containing product, to acquire and use such sugar in his registered industrial user establishment without the surrender of ration evidences.

TITLE 47—TELECOMMUNI- CATION

Chapter I—Federal Communications Commission

[Docket No. 6763]

PART 3—RADIO BROADCAST SERVICES

MISCELLANEOUS AMENDMENTS

At a session of the Federal Communications Commission held at its offices in Washington, D. C. on the 12th day of June 1947.

The Commission having under consideration proposed amendments to Part 3, Subpart B, §§ 3.203 and 3.204 of the Commission's rules governing Standard and FM Broadcast Stations, and to sections 1, 2 and 4 of the Commission's Standards of Good Engineering Practice Concerning FM Broadcast Stations;

It appearing, that the existing rules provide for the assignment to Class A

FM stations of channels 281 through 300 (104.1 to 107.9 mc) and to Class B FM stations of channels 221 through 280 (92.1 to 103.9 mc) for a normal minimum separation for Class A stations of 50 miles on the same channel and 35 miles on adjacent channels; for the availability for assignment of all Class A channels in cities which are not the central city or cities of a metropolitan district, and for the availability for assignment of ten such channels in central cities of metropolitan districts which have fewer than six Class B stations; and for the reservation from assignment until July 1, 1947, of Class A channels 297, 298, 299 and 300;

It appearing, that under the existing FM standards the term "antenna height above average terrain" is defined as meaning the height of the radiation center of the antenna above the terrain 10 miles from the antenna in case of Class A stations, and as the height of the radiation center of the antenna above the average terrain 2 to 10 miles from the antenna in case of Class B stations; that Class A stations normally will not be required to determine their contours, while Class B stations shall determine the extent of their 1000 uv/m and 50 uv/m contours; and that objectionable interference is not considered to exist when the channel separation is 400 kc or greater, and, accordingly, FM broadcast stations in the same city or same area may be assigned channels 400 kc apart;

It appearing, that the application of the foregoing rules and standards tended to group stations 400 kc apart in most cities, resulting in some interference between stations located in the same city and difficulty in identifying stations close together on the FM receiver dial; and

It appearing, that the proposed amendments to the rules and standards are designed to resolve these interference and related problems by providing for the interspersing of Class A and Class B FM stations throughout the FM frequency band in order to provide a normal minimum separation of 800 kc between stations in the same city, and a minimum of 400 kc separation between stations in nearby cities in a few areas where the demand for such facilities so requires; and

It appearing, that the proposed amendments, in order to effectuate the foregoing design, further provide for the allocation of Class A stations in the same manner as Class B stations; for the availability for assignment of all Class A channels in cities which are not the central city or cities of a metropolitan district and in central cities of metropolitan districts which have fewer than six Class B stations; and for the reservation from assignment until July 1, 1947, of Class A channels 224, 240, 272 and 288; and

It appearing, that the adoption of the proposed amendments would make possible the issuance by the Commission of a revised tentative allocation plan for Class B FM broadcast stations (as proposed on April 10, 1947) under which additional Class B FM channels could be made available in many cities and areas to meet the recently developed demand for FM facilities in such cities and areas; and

It appearing, that on April 17, 1947, a general notice of proposed rule-making with respect to the proposed amendments was published in accordance with section 4 of the Administrative Procedure Act; that such notice provided that any interested party of the opinion that the proposed amendments should not be adopted might file on or before May 1, 1947, a brief or written statement setting forth his comments; that such notice scheduled a hearing before the Commission on May 8 and 9, 1947, to permit persons filing briefs or written statements to submit evidence or argument; and

It appearing, that statements in opposition to the proposed amendments have been filed only (1) by Richard Field Lewis, Jr., permittee of WINC-FM, a class B station at Winchester, Virginia, who subsequently advised the Commission that he desired to withdraw his appearance at the scheduled hearing, but who has requested by letter to the Commission that Channel No. 260 be assigned to WINC-FM under the proposed revision to the tentative allocation plan for class B FM broadcast stations (issued April 10, 1947) and (2) by Hearst Radio, Inc., The Tower Realty Company, and Radio-Television of Baltimore, Inc., jointly, whose applications for new class B FM stations at Baltimore, Maryland, have been heard in a comparative hearing upon issues which include whether three additional channels should be allocated to the Baltimore area, and whose statement in opposition requested, in the alternative, that Channel No. 260 be allocated to the Baltimore area in the proposed revision to the tentative allocation plan for class B FM broadcast stations (in addition to the two additional Class B channels allocated to the Baltimore area in the proposed plan) or that Channel No. 260 be held available for assignment in the event the Commission concludes in the Baltimore hearing that an additional channel should be assigned to that area; and

It appearing, that the Commission on May 7, 1947 announced that the hearing then scheduled for May 8 and 9, 1947 had been cancelled, since the question of the allocation of Channel No. 260, raised by both Lewis and the Baltimore applicants, was an issue between these parties, which did not affect the general merits of the proposed amendments, and which issue could be more appropriately determined at a later date without the necessity of delaying the adoption of the proposed amendments or proposed revision to the tentative allocation plan (which as proposed does not allocate Channel No. 260 in either the Baltimore or Winchester areas) and since, accordingly, no useful purpose would have been served by holding the hearing;

It appearing, that the adoption of the proposed amendments would not reduce the total number of FM channels heretofore assigned or presently available for assignment in any city or area, and would permit an increase in the total number of such channels available for assignment in certain cities and areas where the demand appears to exceed the channels presently available; that no substantial objection to the adoption of the proposed amendments has been made;

Now, therefore, It is ordered, That §§ 3.203 and 3.204 of the Commission's rules governing Standard and FM Broadcast Stations be, and they are hereby, amended in the following respects:

1. Sections 3.203 (a) (b) and (d) are amended to read as follows:

§ 3.203 Class A stations. (a) A Class A station is a station which operates on a Class A channel and is designed to render service primarily to a community or to a city or town other than the principal city of an area, and the surrounding rural area. The transmitter power and antenna height of a Class A station shall normally be capable of coverage equivalent<sup>1</sup> to a minimum of 100 watts and a maximum of 1 kw effective radiated power and antenna height of 250 feet above average terrain, as determined by the methods prescribed in the Standards of Good Engineering Practice Concerning FM Broadcast Stations. Class A stations will not be authorized with more than 1 kw effective radiated power. Standard power ratings of transmitters used for Class A stations shall be not less than 250 watts nor more than 1 kilowatt. Class A stations will normally be protected to the 1 mv/m contour; however, assignments will be made in a manner to insure, insofar as possible, a maximum of service to all listeners, whether urban or rural, giving consideration to the minimum signal capable of providing service.

(b) The following frequencies are designated as Class A channels and are assigned for use by Class A stations:

Frequency (mc)	Channel No.	Frequency (mc)	Channel No.
92.1	221	100.1	201
92.7	224	100.9	205

These channels are available for assignment (1) in cities which are not the central city or cities of a metropolitan district, and (2) in central cities of metropolitan districts which have fewer than six Class B Stations.<sup>2</sup>

(d) No assignments will be made on channels 224, 240, 272 and 288 until July 1, 1947.

2. Section 3.204 (b) is amended to read as follows:

§ 3.204 Class B stations. * * *

(b) The following frequencies are designated as Class B channels and are assigned for use by Class B Stations:

<sup>2</sup>For the time being, until more FM broadcast stations are authorized, the Commission will not authorize Class A stations in central cities of metropolitan districts having four or more standard broadcast stations.

It is further ordered, That sections 1, 2 and 4 of the Commission's Standards of Good Engineering Practice Concerning FM Broadcast Stations be, and they are hereby, amended in the following respects:

1. Definitions. * * *

M. Antenna height above average terrain. (1) The term "antenna height above average terrain" means the height of the radiation center of the antenna above the terrain 2 to 10 miles from the antenna. (In general a different antenna height will be determined for each direction from the antenna. The average of these various heights is considered as the antenna height above average terrain.)

(2) Where circular or elliptical polarization is employed the antenna height above average terrain shall be based upon the height of the radiation center of the antenna which transmits the horizontal component of radiation.

2. Engineering standards of allocation. A. Sections 3.202 to 3.206 inclusive of the rules and regulations describe the basis for allocation of FM Broadcast Stations, including the division of the United States into Areas I and II.

B. FM broadcast stations shall determine the extent of their 1 mv/m and 50 uv/m contours in accordance with the methods prescribed in these Standards.

C. Although some service is provided by tropospheric waves, the service area is considered to be only that served by the ground wave. The extent of service is determined by the point at which the ground wave is no longer of sufficient intensity to provide satisfactory broadcast service. The field intensity considered necessary for service is as follows:

TABLE I

Area:	Median field intensity
City business or factory areas	1 mv/m
Rural areas	50 uv/m

A median field intensity of 3 to 5-mv/m should be placed over the principal city to be served and for Class B stations, a median field intensity of 1 mv/m should be placed over the business district of cities of 10,000 or greater within the metropolitan district served. A field intensity of 5 mv/m should be provided over the main studio of a Class B station except as otherwise provided in § 3.205 of the rules. The location of the main studio of a Class A station is specified in § 3.203 of the rules. These figures are based upon the usual noise levels encountered in the several areas and upon the absence of interference from other FM stations.

E. The service area is predicted as follows: Profile graphs must be drawn for at least eight radials from the proposed antenna site. These profiles should be prepared for each radial beginning at the antenna site and extending to 10 miles therefrom. Normally the radials are drawn for each 45° of azimuth; however, where feasible the radials should be drawn for angles along which roads tend to follow. (The latter method may be helpful in obtaining topographical data where otherwise unavailable, and is particularly useful in connection with mobile field intensity measurements of the station and the correlation of such measurements with predicted field intensities.) In each case one or more radials must include the principal city or cities to be served, particularly in cases of rugged terrain, even though the city may be more than 10 miles from the antenna site. The profile graph for each radial should be plotted by contour intervals of from 40 to 100 feet and, where the data permits, at least 50 points of elevation (generally uniformly spaced) should be used for each radial. In instances of very rugged terrain where the use of contour intervals of 100 feet would result in several points in a short distance, 200- or 400-foot contour intervals may be used for such distances. On the other hand, where the terrain is uniform or gently sloping the smallest contour interval indicated on the topographic map (see below) should be used, although only a relatively few points may be available. The profile graph should accurately indicate the topography for each radial, and the graphs should be plotted with the distance in miles as the abscissa and the elevation in feet above mean sea level as the ordinate. The profile graphs should indicate the source of the topographical data employed. The graph should also show the elevation of the center of the radiating system. The graph may be plotted either on rectangular coordinate paper or on special paper which shows the curvature of the earth. It is not necessary to take the curvature of the earth into consideration in this procedure, as this factor is taken care of in the chart showing signal intensities (fig. 1).

The average elevation of the 8-mile distance between 2 and 10 miles from the antenna site should then be determined from the profile graph for each radial. This may be obtained by averaging a large number of equally spaced points, by using a planimeter, or by obtaining the median elevation (that exceeded for 50 per cent of the distance) in sectors and averaging these values.

To determine the distance to a particular contour, figure 1 concerning the range of FM broadcast stations should be used. This chart has been prepared for a frequency in the center of the band and is to be used for all FM broadcast channels, since little change results over this frequency range. The distance to a contour is determined by the effective radiated power and the antenna height. The height of the antenna used in connection with figure 1 should be the height of the center of the proposed antenna radiator above the average elevation obtained by the preceding method. The distances shown by figure 1 are based upon an effective radiated power of 1 kilowatt; to use the chart for other powers, the sliding scale associated with the chart should be trimmed and used as the ordinate scale. This sliding scale is placed on the chart with the appropriate gradation for power in line with the lower line of the top edge of the chart. The right edge of the scale is placed in line with the appropriate antenna height graduations and the chart then becomes direct reading for this power and antenna height. Where the antenna height is not one of those for which a scale is provided, the signal strength or distance is determined by interpolation between the curves connecting the equidistant points.

The foregoing process of determining the extent of the required contours shall be followed in determining the boundary of the proposed service area. The areas within the required contours must be determined and submitted with each application for these classes of FM broadcast stations. Each application shall include a map showing these contours, and for this purpose sectional aeronautical charts or other maps having a convenient scale may be used. The map shall show the radials along which the profile charts and expected field strengths have been determined. The area within each contour should then be measured (by planimeter or other approximate means) to determine the number of square miles therein. In computing the area within the contours, exclude (1) areas beyond the borders of the United States, and (2) large bodies of water, such as ocean areas, gulfs, sounds, bays, large lakes, etc., but not rivers.

In cases where the terrain in one or more directions from the antenna site departs widely from the average elevation of the 2 to 10 mile sector, the application of this prediction method may indicate contour distances that are different from those which may be expected in practice. In such cases the prediction method should be followed, but a showing may be made if desired concerning the distance to the contour as determined by other means. Such showing should include data concerning the procedure employed and sample calculations. For example, a mountain ridge may indicate the practical limit of service although the prediction method may indicate the contour elsewhere. In cases of such limitation, the map of predicted coverage should show both the regular predicted area and the area as limited or extended by terrain. Both areas should be measured as previously described; the area obtained by the regular prediction method should be given in the application form, with a supplementary note giving the limited or extended area. In special cases the Commission may require additional information as to the terrain in the proposed service area.

In determining the population served by FM broadcast stations, it is considered that the built-up city areas and business districts in cities having over 10,000 population and located beyond the 1 mv/m contour do not receive adequate service. Minor civil division maps (1940 census) should be used in making population counts, excluding cities not receiving adequate service. Where a contour divides a minor division, uniform distribution of population within the division should be assumed in order to determine the population included within the contour, unless a more accurate count is available.

4. Interference standards. Field intensity measurements are preferable in predicting interference between FM broadcast stations and should be used, when available, in determining the extent of interference. (For methods and procedure, see section 5.) In lieu of measurements, the interference should be predicted in accordance with the method described herein.

Objectionable interference is considered to exist when the interfering signal exceeds that given by the ratios of Table II. In Table II the desired signal is median field and the undesired signal is the tropospheric signal intensity exceeded for 1 per cent of the time.

TABLE II

Channel separation:	Ratio of desired to undesired signals
Same channel.....	10:1
200 kc.....	2:1
400 kc.....	( <sup>1</sup> )

<sup>2</sup> Intermediate frequency amplifiers of most FM broadcast receivers are designed to operate on 10.7 megacycles. For this reason the assignment of two stations in the same area, one with a frequency 10.6 or 10.8 megacycles removed from that of the other, should be avoided if possible.

Standards have not been established for channel separations in excess of 200 kc; various types of present FM receivers are under study by the Commission to provide data for determining such standards. Pending the completion of such studies and the promulgation of such standards, stations normally will not be authorized to operate in the same city or in nearby cities with a frequency separation of less than 800 kc, Provided, That stations may be authorized to operate in nearby cities with a frequency separation of not less than 400 kc where necessary in order to provide an equitable and efficient distribution of facilities, and Provided further That class B stations will not be authorized in the same metropolitan district with a frequency separation of less than 800 kc. In the assignment of FM broadcast facilities the Commission will endeavor to provide the optimum use of the channels in the band, and accordingly may assign a channel different than that requested in an application.

In predicting the extent of interference within the ground wave service area of a station, the tropospheric signal intensity (from co-channel and adjacent channel stations) existing for 1 per cent of the time shall be employed. The 1 per cent values for 1 kilowatt of power and various antenna heights are given in figure 2, and values for other powers may be obtained by use of the sliding scale as for figure 1. The values indicated by figure 2 are based upon available data, and are subject to change as additional information concerning tropospheric wave propagation is obtained.<sup>1</sup>

In determining the points at which the interference ratio is equal to the values shown in Table II, the field intensities for the two interfering signals under consideration should be computed for a considerable number of points along the line between the two stations. Using this data, field intensity versus distance curves should be plotted (e. g., cross-curves on graph paper) in order to determine the points on this path where the interference ratios exist. The points established by this method, together with the points along the contours where the same ratios are determined, are considered to be generally sufficient to predict the area of interference. Additional points may be required in the case of irregular terrain or the use of directional antenna systems.

The area of interference, if any, shall be shown in connection with the map of predicted coverage required by the application form, together with the basic data employed in computing such interference. The map shall show the interference within the 50 uv/m contour.

It is further ordered, That the said amendments shall be effective immediately.

Upon further consideration of Service Order No. 653 (11 F. R. 14572) as amended (12 F. R. 128, 1606, 1816, 1952, 2093), and good cause appearing therefor: It is ordered, that:

Section 95.653 Demurrage charges on gondola, open and covered hopper cars, of Service Order No. 653, as amended, be, and it is hereby, further amended by vacating and setting aside the following paragraph (c) (5) thereof:

(c) Application. * * *

(5) Demurrage charges substituted for charges for storage of freight in closed box cars. (i) The operation of all tariff rules, regulations, and charges for storage of freight in gondola, open or covered hopper cars at or short of ports consigned or reconsigned for export, coastwise or intercoastal movement is suspended insofar as they provide charges lower than the charges provided herein.

(ii) In lieu of the charges for storage of freight in gondola, open or covered hopper cars at or short of ports suspended in subparagraph (5) (i) of this paragraph, the applicable charges for detention of gondola, open or covered hopper cars held at or short of ports, for unloading freight consigned to or reconsigned for export, coastwise or intercoastal movement shall be the demurrage charges prescribed in paragraphs (a) and (b) of this section.

PART 95—CAR SERVICE

FREE TIME AT PORTS ON GONDOLA, OPEN AND COVERED HOPPER CARS

At a session of the Interstate Commerce Commission, Division 3, held at its office in Washington, D. C., on the 16th day of June A. D. 1947.

It appearing, that there is a critical shortage of gondola, open and covered hopper cars and that free time published in tariffs for unloading such cars at ports aggravates the shortage thereof; in the opinion of the Commission an emergency exists requiring immediate action at all ports of the country. It is ordered, that:-

§ 95.758 Free time at ports on gondola, open and covered hopper cars—(a) Free time reduced on gondola and hopper cars. No common carrier by railroad, subject to the Interstate Commerce Act, shall allow, grant or permit more than a total of 7 days' free time on gondola, open and covered hopper cars held for unloading in coastwise, intercoastal or foreign commerce at the point of transshipment from car to vessel or when held short of such transfer point. The provisions of this paragraph shall not be construed to require or permit the increase of any free time published in tariffs lawfully on file with this Commission.

(b) Computation of free time. (1) All Sundays and legal holidays shall be included in computing the free time provided in paragraph (a) of this section.

(2) The free time provided in paragraph (a) of this section shall be computed continuously from the first 7:00

a. m. after actual or constructive placement until final release, less actual time required to move a constructively placed car to point of unloading.

(c) Description of cars. This section shall apply to cars suitable for interchange described under the headings Class G-Gondola Car Type, Class H-Hopper Car Type, also covered hopper cars having a mechanical designation prefixed by "LO" in the current Official Railway Equipment Register.

(d) Exemptions. This order shall not apply to cars described in paragraph (c) of this section loaded with coal or coke.

(e) Extreme weather. During the period when weather conditions exist as described in Rule 8, section A, Agent B. T. Jones' Tariff I. C. C. No. 3963, the provisions of this order are suspended. In lieu thereof the rules, regulations, and charges provided in lawfully published tariffs shall apply.

(f) Effective date. This section shall become effective at 7:00 a. m., June 23, 1947.

(g) Expiration date. This section shall expire at 7:00 a. m., December 1, 1947, unless otherwise modified, changed, suspended or annulled by order of this Commission.

(h) Tariff provisions suspended. The operation of all tariffs, rules and regulations, insofar as they conflict with the provisions of this section is hereby suspended.

(i) Announcement of suspension. Each railroad, or its agent shall publish, file, and post a supplement to each of its tariffs affected thereby, in substantial accordance with the provisions of Rule 9 (k) of the Commission's Tariff Circular No. 20 (§ 141.9 (k) of this chapter) announcing the suspension of the operation of any of the provisions therein, and establishing the substituted provisions set forth in this section.

It is further ordered, that a copy of this order and direction shall be served upon the Association of American Railroads, Car Service Division, as Agent of the railroads subscribing to the car service and per diem agreement under the terms of that agreement; and that notice of this order be given to the general public by depositing a copy in the office of the Secretary of the Commission at Washington, D. C., and by filing it with the Director, Division of the Federal Register.

NOTICES

FEDERAL COMMUNICATIONS COMMISSION

TERMINATION OF FM CHANNEL RESERVATION POLICY ON JULY 1, 1947; WAIVER AS TO CLASS B FM APPLICANTS OF RULE AGAINST REPETITIOUS APPLICATIONS

JUNE 13, 1947.

The Commission announced today<sup>1</sup> that the reservation of certain Class A and Class B FM channels from assignment will automatically terminate on July 1, 1947, under §§ 3.203 (d) and 3.204 (c) of the Commission's rules, and that the Commission will consider and act upon applications for such facilities as promptly as possible after that date.

The Commission also announced today the adoption of an order waiving the requirements of § 1.363 (a)<sup>2</sup> of the Commission's rules with respect to any applicant for Class B FM facilities whose application has been denied, or may hereafter be denied, in a comparative hearing (where the applicant was not found to be disqualified), to permit the applicant to file an application for any reserved Class B FM channel prior to the expiration of one year from the effective date of the Commission's order or decision denying his prior application.

Under the FM channel reservation policy, one out of every five Class B channels tentatively indicated as available to an area to which at least five Class B channels have been assigned, has been withheld from assignment since July 17, 1946, and Class A channels Nos. 297, 298, 299 and 300 have been withheld from assignment since April 3, 1947. On July 1, 1947 all of these reserved channels will again become available for assignment to qualified applicants. Since the Commission will consider and act upon applications for such reserved channels as promptly as possible after July 1, persons desiring to make application for either Class A or Class B reserved channels should file their applications promptly, and, if possible, should have them on file on or before July 1, 1947. In this connection, it is pointed out that under § 1.304 of the Commission's rules all FM applications filed on or after July 1, 1947 must specify the particular channel desired.

Commissioner Durr takes the position that the Commission should take steps looking towards further extension of reservation of FM channels.

CLASS B FM BROADCAST STATIONS

NOTICE OF AMENDMENTS TO FM RULES AND STANDARDS AND ADOPTION OF REVISED TEN-TATIVE ALLOCATION PLAN

JUNE 13, 1947.

The Commission announces adoption of an order<sup>1</sup> making final the amendments to the rules and engineering standards concerning FM broadcast stations which were proposed on April 10, 1947, and adoption of the revised tentative allocation plan for Class B FM broadcast stations,<sup>2</sup> which was issued as a proposed revision on April 10, 1947. Also released today is a list of the new channel assignments in accordance with the revised rules and standards for all FM licensees, construction permit holders, and those conditional grantees authorized for interim operation, as of June 9, 1947.

The amended rules and engineering standards, and the revised tentative allocation plan, were made effective immediately.

The amendments to the rules affect §§ 3.203 (a) (b) and (d) and 3.204 (b) The amendments to the standards affect sections 1-M; 2-A, B, C and E; and 4.

The amendments to the rules are identical with those proposed on April 10, 1947. The amendments to the standards are identical with those proposed on April 10, 1947, except that a change has been made in proposed section 4 to conform to the purposes of the amendments as stated in the Commission's Public Notice of April 10, 1947. The change modifies section 4 by adding the provision at the beginning of the paragraph which follows Table II to provide that pending the determination by the Commission of interference ratios for 400 kc and 600 kc channel separation "stations normally will not be authorized to operate in the same city or in nearby cities with a frequency separation of less than 800 kc, Provided, That stations may be authorized to operate in nearby cities with a frequency separation of not less than 400 kc where necessary in order to provide an equitable and efficient distribution of facilities, and, Provided further That class B stations will not be authorized in the same metropolitan district with a frequency separation of less than 800 kc." The change also explains that the Commission is studying various types of present FM receivers to provide data for determining such interference ratios.

The revised tentative allocation plan is the same as that proposed on April 10, 1947, except that a relatively few changes in the particular channels allocated to certain cities or areas have been made to provide a better use of the frequencies in those cities and areas. No change has been made in the total number of Class B channels allocated to any city or area. The changes in channel assignments affect the following cities:

California:	Indiana:
Fresno.	Hammond.
Los Angeles.	Evansville.
Salinas.	Iowa:
San Diego.	Burlington.
Santa Barbara.	Kentucky:
Stockton.	Bowling Green.
Connecticut:	Massachusetts:
Hartford.	Fall River.
New Britain.	North Adams.
Florida:	Michigan:
Fort Lauderdale.	Ann Arbor.
Oriando.	Minnesota:
Palm Beach.	Albert Lea.
Georgia:	Nebraska:
Savannah.	Grand Island.
Illinois:	Hastings.
Aurora.	Norfolk.
Carthage.	West Virginia:
Chicago.	Berkeley.
Waukegan.	Charleston.
Galesburg.

Outstanding construction permits and licenses will not be reissued at this time to specify the changed frequency assignments, but instead these changes will be included in succeeding instruments of authorization. In order to minimize the possibility of interference during the transition period, stations which will change frequency must request Commission approval prior to beginning operation on the new frequency. In some metropolitan areas it may be necessary to set a date on which all stations in the area will be required to change simultaneously to the new frequency assignments. The Commission will assist in resolving any conflicts which may arise in particular areas. It appears, however, that conflicts will be few and that stations now operating may for the most part schedule the change in frequency to meet their particular requirements. It is expected that all changes will have taken place by October 1, 1947.

COMMISSION,

CLASS B FM BROADCAST STATIONS
REVISED TENTATIVE ALLOCATION PLAN
JUNE 13, 1947.

Revised Tentative Allocation Plan for Class B FM Broadcast Stations

The attached revised tentative allocation plan for FM broadcast stations is based on the amendments to the FM rules and engineering standards adopted on this date. The former tentative allocation plan, as revised by the Commission on September 3, 1946 was based on assignments in a general area which were for the most part, on alternate channels (400 kilocycles apart) Recent developments appear to indicate that such operation resulted in interference in many of the receivers being produced at the present time. As a result, the revised plan provides for a minimum frequency separation of class B stations in the same general area of 800 kilocycles. In no case has the number of class B channels in an area been reduced in this revision from that listed in the previous plan. In addition, in instances where the need has developed, channels have been added where possible, to provide assignments for applications which are now on file with the Commission. This revision of the tentative allocation plan is subject to further revisions in the future as the development of FM broadcasting might require, in the same manner as the previous allocation plan has been revised from time to time.

The revised tentative allocation plan is subject to § 3.204 (c) of the Commission's rules which provides for the reservation of certain class B channels until July 1, 1947. As in previous plans, it is emphasized that this allocation plan is tentative only and that deviations will be made wherever desirable or necessary. Consequently, the lack of a channel listing for a particular locality does not necessarily mean that a channel cannot be made available there. For example, a channel listed for a particular area may be assigned to any of several cities within that same general area, provided that the geographical change will not result in objectionable interference.

While the allocation plan is based on stations employing an effective radiated power of 20 kilowatts and antenna height of 500 feet above average terrain, stations in most areas of the United States are not limited to this power. The separation of stations varies from that required by ground wave interference (principally in the eastern United States) to the separation required for freedom from tropospheric interference one percent of the time or less (principally in the western areas) In general, the separation of stations increases toward the western part of the country where the expected demand for channels will be less and where added protection for weak signals will be provided. Since, under the rules, Class B stations may vary considerably in power and antenna height, the interference may be more or less than that which would be indicated by this allocation plan. It will be noted that only a few channels have been designated for a number of small cities, particularly in the West, since it appears that these will supply the probable demand. In such cases, more channels are available and will be provided as required. Examination will also reveal that in some sections of the country more channels are designated for certain areas than for others therein having comparable or larger populations. This results from the fact that areas near large centers of population usually contain a number of cities which require channels, while other areas are farther from dense population centers and thus involve no objectionable interference by the allocation of more channels in its section.

Declarants-applicants have designated section 12 (c) and Rule U-42 as applicable to the proposed transactions.

Notice is further given that any interested person may, not later than June 25, 1947, at 5:30 p. m., e. d. s. t., request the Commission in writing that a hearing be held on such matter, stating the reasons for such request, the nature of his interest and the issues of fact or law raised by said declaration-application which he desires to controvert, or may request that he be notified if the Commission should order a hearing thereon. Any such request should be addressed: Secretary, Securities and Exchange Commission, 18th and Locust Streets, Philadelphia 3, Pennsylvania. At any time after June 25, 1947 said joint declaration-application, as filed or as amended, may be permitted to become effective or be granted as provided in Rule U-23 of the rules and regulations promulgated under the act, or the Commission may exempt all of the proposed transactions or any of them as provided in Rule U-20 (a) and Rule U-100 thereof. All interested persons are referred to said joint declaration-application which is on file in the offices of this Commission for a statement of the transactions therein proposed which are summarized as follows:

Transport proposes to redeem prior to January 1, 1948, at the principal amount thereof plus accrued interest, the balance, aggregating $4,000,000 in principal amount, of its First Mortgage 4% Bonds, held by Electric. Such redemption is contingent upon and will be made simultaneously with the receipt of the proceeds from the proposed sale by Transport of substantially all of its operating properties, consisting principally of its Milwaukee Metropolitan System, its bus lines operated in the City of Milwaukee and known as Wisconsin Motor Bus Lines, its local suburban railway service and certain properties incidental to such operations.

The proposed sale of such transportation properties is to be made pursuant to the terms and conditions of a competitive bidding procedure adopted by the company, under the terms of which procedure sealed written proposals for the purchase of such properties are to be submitted to the company not later than 12:00 noon, central standard time, July 21, 1947, at Room 444, Public Service Building, 231 West Michigan Street, Milwaukee 1, Wisconsin.

With respect to the proposed sale of the transportation properties by Transport, declarants-applicants state that they do not feel that any section of the act or rules of the Commission requires the approval of the Commission for such sale, but if the Commission should determine that the provisions of subdivision (c) of Rule U-44 are applicable, then their application shall be deemed to be a notice of intention by Transport to invite competitive bids and to sell such properties as described therein. In connection with such sale the declarants-applicants have requested that the proposed sale be exempted from the provisions of Rule U-44 (c) under the provisions of Rule U-100, in the event the Commission deems the provisions of Rule U-44 applicable to such sale.

Electric seeks authorization to surrender the bonds to Transport upon the basis above described.
