Abraham Lincoln papers

From David Wills to Abraham Lincoln,1 November 2, 1863

1 Wills, a Pennsylvania lawyer and banker, was chairman of the committee that organized the establishment of the military cemetery at Gettysburg.

Gettysburg Nov. 2nd 1863

Sir,

The several States having soldiers in the Army of the Potomac, who were killed at the Battle of Gettysburg, or have since died at the various hospitals which were established in the vicinity, have procured grounds on a prominent part of the Battle Field for a Cemetery, and are having the dead removed to them and properly buried.

These Grounds will be Consecrated and set apart to this sacred purpose, by appropriate Ceremonies, on Thursday, the 19th distant,—

Hon Edward Everett will deliver the Oration.

I am authorized by the Governors of the different States to invite You to be present, and participate in these Ceremonies, which will doubtless be very imposing and solemnly impressive.

It is the desire that, after the Oration, You, as Chief Executive of the Nation, formally set apart these grounds to their Sacred use by a few appropriate remarks.

It will be a source of great gratification to the many widows and orphans that have been made almost friendless by the Great Battle here, to have you here personally; and it will kindle anew in the breasts of the Comrades of these brave dead, who are now in the tented field or nobly meeting the foe in the front, a confidence that they who sleep in death on the Battle Field are not forgotten by those highest in Authority; and they will feel that, should their fate be the same, their remains will not be uncared for.

We hope you will be able to be present to perform this last solemn act to the Soldier dead on this Battle Field.2
Lincoln accepted the invitation to speak at the dedication ceremony and delivered his Gettysburg Address on November 19.

I am with great respect, Your Excellency's

Obedient Servant,

David Wills

Agent for

A. G. Curtin Gov. of Penna,

and acting for all the States.
