Lug the Army together in this Cantonment of repose for the winter, were to keep alive the spirit of emulation amongst the different corps, to give an opportunity for confirming the habits of Discipline which had been acquired the last Campaign; and improving the internal police of each to the highest degree of perfection. Altho the severity of the season may not for some time admit of the troops being drawn out for exercise and Manœvrimg yet the gratest attention might, and should in the mean time be paid to the establishment of perfect regularity, œconomy and good order, throughout the line of the whole army. As soon as the snow shall be gone, and the weather will suffer it, the General hopes he need not have occasion to prompt the Generals and officers commanding Brigades and regiments, to commence the daily exercises, in the same manner they were practiced the last year: as a necessary prepiration for which he recommends that proper ground for Manœvrimg should be fixed upon by them as soon as may be, that the stumps (if there are any) should be cut level with the surface of the Earth, and that every other obstacle should be seasonably removed.

The troops are to be served with a gill of Rum per man after the feu de joie, which the regimental Quarter Masters will have ready to distribute on their arrival at their respective Cantonments.

After having furnished the ordinary Guards, the remainder of the regiments ordered for duty tomorrow will form, and join in the exercise of the day.

GENERAL ORDERS

Head Quarters, Newburgh, Thursday, February 6, 1783.

Parole America and France. Countersigns United, forever.

For the day tomorrow Major Pettingill.

For duty the 7th. Massachusetts regiment.

The Commander in chief, who wishes on the return of this auspicious day43 to diffuse the feeling of gratitude and pleasure as extensively as possible is pleased to grant a full and free pardon to all military prisoners now in confinement; any Noncomissioned officers or privates who may come under this predicament are ordered to be released without delay and join their respective regiments. The General flatters himself this act of grace will have a proper influence on the future conduct of those immediately concerned and that well timed instances of lenity will operate on generous minds more effectually towards establishing a proper system of Decipline (which he is determined shall be invariably maintained) than the severest examples could have done.

43. Anniversary of signing of the Treaty of Alliance with France.

GENERAL ORDERS

Head Quarters, Newburgh, Friday, February 7, 1783.

For the day tomorrow Major Morrell.

For duty the 4th. Massachusetts regiment.

The Commander in chief orders it to be signified to the troops of this Cantonment that he was yesterday perfectly satisfied with their appearance in general. He thinks proper however in justice to his own observations and the reputation of those corps which made the most respectable figure, to observe that the distinction hereafter will be publickly noticed unless an alteration shall take place before another Review.

The regimental paymasters are desired to apply at the Cloathers store in Newburgh for a proportion of blanketts.

GENERAL ORDERS

Saturday, February 8, 1783.

For the day tomorrow Major Reading.

For duty the third Massachusetts Regiment.

At the general courtmartial of which Colonel Michael Jackson is president, Ensign Ricker Sedam of the 1st. Jersey regiment, charged with seizing a cow belonging to the husband of Catherine Leggett under pretence of its being designed for the enemy, and afterwards carrying the same Cow below the Lines and selling her there, was tried. The court on consideration are of opinion that Ensign Ricker Sedam did seize a Cow belonging to the husband of Catherine Leggett and that he sold the same Cow a few rods below the Lines; they are also of Opinion that he had a right to seize the Cow, but he ought to have had her condemned, before he sold her, which was not the case, yet considering all the circumstances attending the transaction they think him excusable.

The Commander in chief approves the opinion of the court and releases Ensign Sedam from Arrest.

At the General courtmartial of which Colonel Zebulon Butler is president, Thomas Stevens a soldier in the 3d. Massachusetts regiment, charged with using insulting Language to Lieutenant Smith of the 6th. Massa. regiment when crossing the river at Westpoint, and afterwards striking Lieutenant Smith several times, was tried. The court on due consideration find Stephens guilty of a breach of part of article 5th. section 2d. of the rules and articles of war, and sentence him to have his honorary Badge taken off at the head of the regiment to which he belongs, and receive one hundred lashes on his naked back.

The Commander in chief approves the sentence of the Court, but remits the infliction of the punishment in consideration of the orders of the 6th instant.

55. Lieut. Josiah Smith, of the Sixth Massachusetts Regiment. He served to June, 1783.

All officers going on Furlough, Command, or any other business which calls them from Camp, are directed to leave orders on the paymaster for their subsistence, during their absence.

The parties concerned are directed to attend and exhibit such Documents and information as shall be thought proper, and the Board are requested to report their opinion thereon as soon as may be.

GENERAL ORDERS

Monday, February 10, 1783.

For the day Lt. Colonel Comdt. Barber.

For duty the 2d Massachusetts regiment.

Every time the Commander in chief passes through the line he finds himself very agreably affected with a view of the present comfortable and beautifull situation of the troops; and while he considers it as a just testimony of applause to assert that the hutts in point of convenience, regularity and eligance have equaled, if not surpassed his most sanguine expectations, he wishes the soldiery to be assured that it will be his most earnest studdy and endeavour that health and happiness should bless the Inhabitants of them, for which purpose he thinks proper to give some general directions, which are to be often read and inculcated, and will be considered as standing regulations so long as the troops shall continue in their winter cantonment.

Not only the Parade in front of the Cantonment is to be kept constantly clean and free from Nusances, but also the rear and intermediate space between the hutts to be put and kept in the same condition: to effect this the small brush and rubbish must be immediately removed to a suitable distance, and either burned, or piled in heaps and reserved for firing, as may be deemed most expedient.

The hutts to be thoroughly swept and cleansed every day under the order and inspection of the officers of Police small poles to be fixed on stakes for airing the blanketts &ca. in the manner now practiced by the 2d. Massachusetts regiment.

The greatest regularity and good order to be observed by the men, as to the mode of cooking their victuals and the time of eating; as well as in the manner of messing and living together.

Strict attention is also to be paid by them to the neatness of their persons, the cleanliness, and preservation of their Cloathing.

Necessaries to be built at proper places, to be sheltered from view and the vaults daily covered with earth as soon as the warm season advances.

Fresh straw to be furnished by the Quarter master General, once in two months, if it can be possibly procured, and it is hoped a further supply of Blanketts will soon be received as there has lately been an arrival of that article from Europe; scarcely any thing will then be wanting to render the circumstances as elegeble as those of a Military life can be, except a little Money, and that, it is expected will arrive in a short time.

The General cannot conclude this order without reminding the troops of a circumstance which will be remembered to their immortal reputation; that during the whole time the army was encamped the last Campaign on Verplanks point, there never was any filth or trash to be seen on the parade nor any thing offensive to the sight or smell, in the inirons of the encampment but on the contrary there appeared to be an admirable police maintained without the repetition of a single Order on the subject. Nothing more is now wished or requested than that the same line of Conduct may be rigidly observed in quarters, which was found by experience to be so honorable and salutary in the field.

GENERAL ORDERS

Head Quarters, Newburgh, Tuesday, February 11, 1783.

Parole Quebec. Countersigns Romney, Sandwich.

For the day tomorrow Major Rice.
For duty the 8th. Massachusetts regiment.

The 4th. Massachusetts Regiment will march on Thursday next to the relief of the first New York regiment on the Lines.

The Quarter Master General agrees to give six pence, or half a ration per cord for the wood cut for the use of the hospitals, of which the parties employed for that purpose may avail themselves.

The Commander in chief is pleased to direct that all General and other officers who belong to, or expect Commands in this Army and who do not consider themselves included in the order of the 11th. day of December last, should be in Camp by the 15th. of April next at farthest, but in case the Weather should prove favorable for commencing the Decipline of the troops upon a great scale at an earlier period; it is most earnestly recomended that the Major Generals and Brigadiers who are or will be appointed to the commands of Divisions or Brigades (altho they may have discretionary leave of absence) would actually be on the ground in season to take the command in the first instance, and to consider themselves as having the immediate charge of Disciplining and Manœuvring the troops of their respective commands. No officer of any rank whatsoever can be ashamed of Commanding troops which make such an excellent appearance under arms as ours will, with a little more experience and instruction; and no one will be excused from attending personally to these important duties of his station. The Commander in chief expects therefore the pleasure of seeing the Commanding officers of Divisions and Brigades on field days (which will be made frequent for the purpose) take occasion themselves to exercise the Corps under their Command in his presence.

AFTER ORDERS

The Inspection and Muster of the troops as specified in the orders of the 9th. instant, is postponed till further Orders.

GENERAL ORDERS

Head Quarters, Newburgh, Wednesday, February 12, 1783.

Parole Turkey. Countersigns Virginia, Wilmington.

For the day tomorrow Major Scott.
For duty the 5th. Massachusetts regiment.

The General applauds the provident care shewn by the regiments which have laid up Magazines of wood while the snow gave such facility to the transportation; should so favourable an oppertunity again happen, he wishes a sufficient stock of fuel might be provided to serve untill the first of April, or even the first of May if practicable. It is scarcely necessary to mention how much the labour of the men as well as the distruction of the Cloathing would be diminished if the measure recomended could be carried into effect.

The Accounts of Subsistence for the month of March to be lodged at the pay office by the 24th. instant for examination that the notes may immediately on their arrival be issued to the whole Army. A simular mode to be hereafter observed and considered as a standing Regulation.

The field officer of the day and officers commanding patrolls instead of assembling at the place appointed in the orders of the 25th. of December last, will in future meet at the New building.

AFTER ORDERS

The remains of the late Lieutt. Col. Comdt. Barber\textsuperscript{75} will be interred tomorrow. The procession will set out at 10 o'clock A.M. from Mr. Dennisons house the Quarters of the deceased.

GENERAL ORDERS

Thursday, February 13, 1783.

Parole Andalucia. Countersigns Bristol, Charlotte.

For the day tomorrow Major Oliver.

For duty the Maryland Detachment.

At the General courtmartial whereof Colonel Zebulon Butler is president: Captain Lieutenant Taulman\textsuperscript{76} of the Corps of Sappers and Miners, was tried, charged first with disobedience of Orders, particularly in not making out a provision Return of the company under his command agreably to the form sent him December the 31st. 1782 for the purpose by Captn. Bushnell\textsuperscript{77} his Commanding officer; in bringing his Baggage into Captain Bushnells Quarters the 1st of January last, contrary to Captn. Bushnells command to him, and refusing to take it away agreeably to Captain Bushnells express orders. 2dly. With sending an indecent and impertinent answer to Captn. Bushnells order, subversion of good order and Discipline and unbecoming the Character of a Gentleman or an officer. 3dly. with mutinous behavior particularly in Commandg. soldiers to disobey Captain Bushnells express orders to them, on the 1st. of January last.

The Court after maturely considering the evidences for and against Captn. Lieut. Taulman and his Defence are of opinion that he did not make out a provision return agreeably to a form sent him for that purpose Decr. the 31st. 1782, by Captain Bushnell his Commanding officer, and also that he did order his Baggage into Captn. Bushnells quarters the first of January last contrary to Captain Bushnells command to him, and refused to take it away agreeably to Captn. Bushnell's express orders in breach of the latter part of art. 5 section 2d. of the rules and articles of war, the Court are also of opinion that Captain Lieutenant Taulmans answer to Captn. Bushhells order to him of the 31st. December 1782 is indecent and impertinent and unbecoming the Character of an Officer in breach of articles the 5th. section 18th. of the Rules and articles of war. On the third charge the Court are of opinion that Captain Lieutenant Taulman did order soldiers to disobey the express orders of Captain Bushnell on the 1st. of January, in such a mariner however as not to amount to mutinous behavior, but which does amount to very disorderly behavior in breach of Article 5th. section 18th. of the rules and articles of war.

The court sentence Captain Lt. Taulman to be repremanded in Genl. orders, and be suspended from service for three months. 78

At the same court, Captain Lieutenant Kirkpatrick 79 of the corps of Sappers and Miners, was tried...
78. On February 18 Washington wrote to Taulman, in answer to his query, that “you are perfectly at liberty to leave the Army for the whole time of your suspension.” This draft is in the Washington Papers.

79. Capt.-Lieut. David Kirkpatrick. He had been wounded at Yorktown in October, 1781, and served to June, 1783.

charged with mutinous behavior and disobedience of orders on the first of January last in the following particulars, first for commanding soldiers to disobey the express orders of Capt'n. Bushnell, Commandant of the corps, of Sappers and Miners second for ordering his Capt'n. Lt. Kirkpatricks Baggage into Capt'n. Bushnells quarters, contrary to Capt'n. Bushnells command to him, and refusing to take it away agreable to Capt'n. Bushnells express orders.

The court after maturely considering the evidences for and against Captain Lieutt. Kirkpatrick and his defence are of opinion that Captain Lt. Kirkpatrick did on the first of January order soldiers to disobey the express orders of Captain Bushnell his commanding officer, and also that he did order his baggage into Captain Bushnells Quarters contrary to Captain Bushnells command to him, and refused to take it away agreeably to Capt'n. Bushnells express orders to him. The court acquit Capt'n. Lieutenant Kirkpatrick of mutinous behavior but find him guilty of disobedience of orders in breach of a part of article 5th. section 2d. of the rules and articles of war and sentence him to be repremanded in Genl. orders.

Had the transaction's which are the subject of reprehension taken place at the commencement of our military establishment, want of experience, ignorance of the rules of service or some other palliating circumstance might have been plead in excuse; and would in some degree have effaced the blot which now stains a page in the Records of the Army; but at this period of the war, when the necessity of subordination, and the principles of service are generally well understood, and practiced, Capt'n. Lieutt. Taulman and Capt'n. Lt. Kirkpatrick could not but have known, that the improper Conduct, willful disobedience of Orders they have been guilty of were an outrageous infraction of military Discipline: and the behavior of Captain Lieutenant Taulman (that officer must be sensible) would have justified a more rigorous and exemplary sentence; with this consciousness to attend them, the Commander in Chief leaves the young Gentlemen to the sting of their own reflections as a punishment for what is past, and only advises them not to be guilty of any thing of a simular nature in future.

GENERAL ORDERS

Head Quarters, Newburgh, Saturday, February 15, 1783.

For the day tomorrow Major Gibbs.

For duty the 2d. Jersey regiment.
The New building being so far finished as to admit the troops to attend public worship therein after tomorrow, it is directed that divine Service should be performed there every Sunday by the several Chaplains of the New Windsor Cantonment, in rotation and in order that the different brigades may have an opportunity of attending at different hours in the same day (when ever the weather and other circumstances will permit which the Brigadiers and Commandants of brigades must determine) the General recommends that the Chaplains should in the first place consult the Commanding officers of their Brigades to know what hour will be most convenient and agreeable for attendance that they will then settle the duty among themselves and report the result to the Brigadiers and Commandants of Brigades who are desired to give notice in their orders and to afford every aid and assistance in their power for the promotion of that public Homage and adoration which are due to the supreme being, who has through his infinite goodness brought our public Calamities and dangers (in all humane probability) very near to a happy conclusion.

The General has been surprised to find in Winter Qrs.

that the Chaplains have frequently been almost all absent, at the same time, under an idea their presence could not be of any utility at that season; he thinks it is proper, he should be allowed to judge of that matter himself, and therefore in future no furloughs will be granted to Chaplains except in consequence of permission from Head quarters, and any who may be now absent without such permission are to be ordered by the Commanding officers of their Brigades to join immediately, after which not more than one third of the whole number will be indulged with leave of absence at a time. They are requested to agree among themselves upon the time and length of their furloughs before any application shall be made to Head quarters on the subject.

The Commander in Chief also desires and expects the Chaplains in addition to their public functions will in turn constantly attend the Hospitals and visit the sick, and while they are thus publickly and privately engaged in performing the sacred duties of their office they may depend upon his utmost encouragement and support on all occasions, and that they will be considered in a very respectable point of light by the whole Army.

GENERAL ORDERS

Parole Kidderminster. Countersigns Lamberton Milford.
For the day tomorrow Major Knapp.

For duty the 2d. Newyork regiment.

By the last Inspection report it appears there are a small number of Bayonetts wanting in several corps of the army; the deficiency must be supplyed before the Genl. sees the Troops under arms.

In whatever Regiments or Corps the full compliment of Drums and Fifes have been furnished by the public since the Resolve of Congress of the 22d. January 1782 that supply must be made good and kept compleat by regular stoppages from the weekly allowances of the pay of such Drumers and Fifers as may be deficient. Colonels and Commandants of those corps are responsible for the execution of this order, and in all other regiments or Corps the most effacacious measures should be taken to obtain a sufficient number of these articles without a moments delay, which are then to be kept compleat in the same manner.

At the Inspection of the troops which shall be made in the month of March, the Inspector of Musick will be present at every regiment and corps with the Inspector of the Army, to examine into the state of the Music; and the number of Instruments in each; he will make report thereof to the Commander in Chief at the conclusion of the Inspection.

¹⁴. Maj. Amos Morrill, of the New Hampshire battalion. He served to the close of the war.
and reported in the words following vizt. The Board having determined.

That the first charge vizt. want of abilities and a regular Judicious system in the office and duties of a Judge advocate is not a Military offence cognizable by a Courtmartial, proceeded to the fullest and most minute investigation of the 2d. and 3d. charges, viz want of candor and impartiality in conducting prosecutions as Judge Advocate in Courtmartial, and a neglect of duty in the office of Judge advocate, and are unanimously of opinion that neither of them are supported.

The Commander in Chief fully approves the foregoing report.

GENERAL ORDERS

Head Quarters, Newburgh, Friday, February 21, 1783.

For the day tomorrow Lt. Colonel Cochran.

For duty the 3d. Massachusetts regiment.

At a General Courtmartial held at New Windsor Cantonment December the 30th. by order of his Excellency the Commander in chief, whereof Colonel (now Brigadr. General) Putnam is president, Major James R. Reid of Hazens regiment was tried, charged with disobedience of Orders, unmilitary Conduct and behaving unbecoming the Character of an officer and Gentleman. The following is the specification of the above General Charges, Viz: In support of the charge of unofficer and ungentlemanlike behavior, it is meant to produce a Manuscript from under Major Reids hand exhibited at a public General Courtmartial, called his Defence containing unwarrantable Invectives, Insinuations, accusations and charges of the most infamous nature impeaching the honor and integrity and reputation of a large majority of the officers of the regiment, in a manner which if true would render them unworthy of holding Commissions in the Army.

For neglecting or refusing to prosecute the officers on the Charges which he has impeached them with, altho repeatedly requested by them, who assured him at the same time that they should decline doing duty with him until an Investigation of the matter should take place, the only means left to justify their injured Characters. For offering himself to do duty with the Officers whom he had charged as aforesaid without first taking the necessary measures to have them brought to Justice.

Disobedience of Orders and unmilitary Conduct in the following particulars vizt. first for disobedience of the orders of the honorable Major Genl. Lincoln at the head of Elk on the 22d. of November 1781, in his not joining the regiment according to the words, spirit and meaning of the order.

2dly. For disobedience of the orders of his Excellency the Commander in Chief of the 27th. December 1781.

3dly. For disobedience of his Excellency's the Commander in Chiefs Orders of the 10th. January 1782 by his not joining the regiment by the time therein limited.

4thly. Unmilitary Conduct in the disobedience of the three preceding Orders and by not applying to the Commanding officer of the regiment previous to his application to the Commander in Chief for a Furlough, as also by not advising the Commanding officer of the regiment of a true state of the leave granted by the General, and thereby subjecting the Commanding officer of the regiment to make erroneous and unmilitary Musters and Returns. Defrauding the United States or the regiment or a part of the regiment in which he holds a commission, in the particulars hereafter mentioned.

First for making up in his pay rolls and passing in his recruiting accounts on Oath George Devault and Andrew Lucky and receiving public money for them, when it now appears they were never duly enlisted or at any public expense whatever.

2ndly. For unmilitary conduct in giving George Devault and Philip Wolfts, two reputed soldiers of the regiment, Certificates on the 10th. of May 1782, when under confinement and the care of an inferior officer, which amounted to a discharge from the service and release from confinement, altho taken up by General Hazens orders at the expense of the public in consequence of Major Reids own Musters, Returns, Recruiting Accounts on Oath and Inlistments in support of them, deposited with General Hazen as Commanding officer of the regiment.

3dly. On suspicion of his having made false Musters and Returns.

4thly. For withholding a sum of money from a part of the regiment which he has long since acknowledged to have in his possession.
5thly. For unofficer and ungentlemanlike Conduct and Behavior in his official Letters to General Hazen in particular that of the 23d. September 1782.

6thly. For unmilitary Conduct in signing himself Major of the 1st. Battalion Light Infantry when at that time there was no such corps existing in the American Army.

ADDITIONAL

1st. Disobedience of orders in his not joining the regiment in the course of the month of November, agreeable to the tenor of General Hazens leave of absence given him at Lancaster on or about the second of the same Month.

2ndly. For embezling or misapplying money received by him to enlist Men into the service of the United States of America, which will appear by his own Pay rolls, Muster rolls, Recruiting accounts, and Certificates, and in not paying a number of the soldiers of the regiment a certain sum of money given him for that purpose in 1779.

3dly. For signing a false Certificate or Certificates relating to the absence of some of the men contained in his late Company.

The Court on mature consideration are of opinion respecting the several charges against Major Reid, That on the first and third particular under defrauding the United States &ca. and the first part of the 2d. additional particular, tho it appears that he made up in his payrolls and recruiting account, Andrew Lucky and George Duvault and received public money for them, when it appears they ought not to have been so made up, yet on full consideration of all circumstances attending the matter it does not appear there was any fraudulent intention in Major Reid in so doing and therefore acquit him of any guilt in either of them. The Court are further of opinion that Major Reid is not guilty and they do acquit him of each and every the other charges against him except the 6th. particular under defrauding the United States &ca. on this they are of opinion that Major Reid did sign himself Major of the first Battalion Light Infantry when there was no such Corps existing in the American Army, and tho they think in some circumstances stances this might be reprehensible, yet in this case they think it so trifling and that it so strongly marks the nature of the whole prosecution against him, that they think it proper to pass no censure on him.

The Commander in chief confirms the opinions of the Court.

Major Reid is released from his Arrest.
The Court martial whereof Colonel (now Brigadier General) Putnam is president is desolved.

The Non arrival of the Cloathing expected from Europe renders the gratest Oeconomy in that article doubly necessary. The Commander in Chief therefore recommends that the business of turning and repairing the Coats of last year should now be considered as a primary object, in doing which a certain Model as to the fashion and length (for the coats ought to be made something shorter than at present) will be established by the Commanding officer of the Corps, from which there must be no deviation. Should the men in any instance presume to make alterations in the fashion of their Cloathing according to their own whim and caprice, report is to be made thereof by the Inspector that the want of System and Police in such Corps may be publicly noticed. It is expected scarlet Cloth for Cuffs, Capes and perhaps half facings will be furnished, as the Secretary at war has been pleased to give assurances that he will cause a quantity of that cloth, together with a sufficiency of thread to be immediately forwarded from Philadelphia if possible.

The Commander in Chief flatters himself he shall see the good taste and attention of the officers as beautifully displayed in the present instance as all the military virtues have been on every late occasion.

A communication across the low grounds between the right and left wings of the Army is instantly to be compleated, The Brigadiers and Commanding officers of Brigades will be pleased to meet tomorrow morning eleven o'clock at the New-building to fix upon a plan and take effectual measures for carrying this order into execution. The Genl. conceives a passage might be opened in a more eligible direction than that by which it has already been attempted.

The Board of officers assembled in consequence of the orders of the 29th. ultimo (Major General Baron Steuben President) to enquire into the claim of Captn. Segond to be admitted into the corps of Colonel Armand, report as follows viz.

The Board having considered the Claim of Captn. Segond and the papers handed them in support of it, on the one part: and the objections of Colonel Armand with the papers offered by him on the other part are unanimously of opinion that Captain Segond has not a right to a command in the Legion of Colonel Armand.

The Board are sensible that the Capitivity of Captn. Segond alone, has prevented his being at this moment in the Legion of Colonel Armand, and therefore as his unfortunate situation has thrown him out of command; and as by testimony it appears he has served with reputation in the Corps of the late Count Pulasky, The Board beg leave to recommend him to the consideration of Congress and of his Excellency the Commander in Chief. The Commander in Chief approves the Report.

The Muster and Inspection of the troops in this Cantonment for the Month of February will take place on the following days, vizt.: New Hampshire Brigade the 1st. March; Jersey do. 4th; 1st. and 7th. At the General Court Martial of which Colonel Micheal Jackson is president, Lieutenant Henry Williams of the 2d. regiment of Artillery, was tried, charged with unofficer and ungentlemanlike behavior on the evening of the 6th. of October 1782 “First for asserting a falsehood tending to promote dissension between the 2d. and 3d. regiments of Artillery, by saying that We, the 2d. regiment of Artillery to a man (addressing himself to Captn. Lieutenant Kemper) do dispise you and your regiment, or any thing you can say in behalf of it.” 2dly. For stripping to buffet with Captn. Lt. Kemper, and afterwards drawing a sword on him when unarmed. 3dly. For writing a challenge for Captn. Lieutenant Kemper and leaving it in the Bar-room of a public Tavern unsealed.

The Court after maturely considering the evidence for and against Lt. Williams, and his Defence, are of opinion on the first charge, that Lt. Williams did on the evening of the 6th. of October last say that “We, the 2d. regiment of Artillery to a man; addressing himself to Captain Lt. Kemper, do dispise you and your regiment, or any thing you can say in behalf of it” for which they think him very unjustifiable, in breach of article 5th. Section 18th. of the Rules and Articles of war. On the 2d. Charge the Court are of opinion that Lt. Williams did on the evening of the 6th. of October last, strip to buffit with Captain Lt. article 5th. section 18th: of the Rules and Articles of war. The Court are also of opinion that the 3d. Charge is not supported. The Court sentence Lt. Williams to be reprimanded in General orders and suspended from service for three months.

The Commander in Chief confirms the sentence.

Lieutenant Williams should have better understood the delacacy of an officers Character than to have suffered himself to have been betrayed into such improper conduct as he has been guilty of.

A distribution of the Cloathing now in store is to be made to the Army. the Assistant Cloathier at Newburgh has the Commander in Chiefs instructions on the subject. The regimental paymasters will therefore apply to him without delay.

Accurate Returns to be made to the Assistant Clothier of the men who joined after the distribution of Cloathing was made for the last year, and for whom no regimentals have been since drawn.

When the New Cloathing shall have been delivered to the Light Infantry and other companies pointed out by the Commander in Chief, all their Coats of last year are to be returned to the orders of the Commandant of the Corps who will have them applied towards repairing the Coats of the Battalion companies in such manner as he shall judge most conducive to the comfort of the men as well as the uniformity of their appearance. Exact accounts must be kept of the number and quality of the Coats received; and from whom, also of the uses to which they are applied. Notwithstanding the proposed alteration in the Uniform of the Infantry and Cavalry it appears necessary from inevitable circumstances that all the Light Infantry Companies should be cloathed in blue Coats faced with White until further orders.

The Noncommissioned officers and Privates of the late 10th. Massachusetts regiment who were annexed to the regiments of that Line. at the Arrangement which took place on the first of January should for reviews at least, be drawn up together on the parade, and it would contribute much to the order and uniformity of the corps, if they could be formed into a company or have their cloathing so transferred as to prevent that disagreeable able and speckled appearance which two or three regiments at present exhibit.

Altho the General does not urge the business of turning and repairing the Coats to be precipitated before the scarlet cloth can be obtained yet he wishes every preparation may be made for expediting it as much as possible upon the arrival of the necessary materials; and he hopes the whole may be accomplished by the 15th. of April or the first day of May at farthest.

The honorable the Congress have been pleased to pass the following Resolves:

By the United States in Congress assembled, March 22, 1783. On the report of a committee, to whom was referred a motion of Mr. Dyer, together with the memorial of the officers of the army, and the report of the committee thereon; Congress came to the following resolutions:

82. William Bedlow.

On March 29 Washington wrote briefly to Du Portail acknowledging his congratulations on the news of peace. “The terms are extremely satisfactory to me and I am as pleased as possible that the great work is so happily consumated.” This draft is in the Washington Papers.

Whereas the officers of the several lines under the immediate command of his Excellency General Washington, did, by their late memorial transmitted by their committee, represent to Congress, that the half-pay granted by sundry resolutions, was regarded in an unfavourable light by the citizens of some of these states, who would prefer a compensation for a limited term of years, or by a sum in gross, to an establishment for life; and did, on that account, solicit a commutation of their hall pay for an equivalent, in one of the two modes above mentioned, in order to remove all subject of dissatisfaction from the minds of their fellow-citizens: and whereas Congress are desirous, as well of gratifying the reasonable expectations of the officers of the army, as of removing all objections which may exist in any part of the United States, to the principle of the half pay establishment, for which the faith of the United States hath been pledged; persuaded that those objections can only arise from the nature of the compensation, not from any indisposition to compensate those, whose services, sacrifices and sufferings, have so just a title to the approbation and rewards of their country: Therefore,

Resolved, That such officers as are now in service and shall continue therein to the end of the war, shall be entitled to receive the amount of five years' full pay in money, or securities on interest at six per cent. per annum, as Congress shall find most convenient, instead of the half pay promised for life, by the resolution of the 21 day of October 1780; the said securities to be such as shall be given to other creditors of the United States, provided that it be at the option of the lines of the respective states, and not of officers individually in those lines, to accept or refuse the same; and provided also that their election shall be signified to Congress through the Commander in Chief, from the lines under his immediate command, within two months, and through the commanding officer of the southern army, from those under his command, within six months from the date of this resolution.

That the same commutation shall extend to the corps not belonging to the lines of particular states, and who are entitled to half pay for life as aforesaid; the acceptance or refusal to be determined by corps, and to be signified in the same manner, and within the same time as above mentioned: That all officers belonging to the hospital department, who are entitled to half pay by the resolution of the 17th day of January, 1781, may collectively agree to accept or refuse the aforesaid commutation, signifying the same through the Commander in Chief within six months from this time:

That such officers as have retired at different periods, entitled to half pay for life, may collectively, in each State of which they are inhabitants, accept or refuse the same; their acceptance or refusal to be signified by agents authorized for that purpose, within six months from this period; that with respect to such retiring officers, the communication, if accepted by them, shall be in lieu of whatever may be now due to them since the time of their retiring from service, as well as of what might hereafter become due; and that so soon as their acceptance shall be signified, the Superintendent of finance be, and he is hereby directed to take measures for the settlement of their accounts accordingly, and to issue to them certificates bearing interest at six per cent. That all officers entitled to half pay for life not included in the preceding resolution, may also agree collectively agree to accept or refuse the aforesaid commutation signifying the same within six months from this time.

The Commander in Chief desires the officers immediately concerned will defer reporting their election on the subject of the foregoing act until the 15th. of April by which time the officers now absent on furlow will have returned, and it will be expected that the reports of the several Lines and corps not belonging to the Line of any State which compose this Army shall be lodged at Head Quarters as soon after as conveniently may be.

Mr. George Bennet, an Englishman, on a voyage from Jamaica, was captured off New York harbor and carried to Rhode Island. From thence he traveled to Newburgh, N.Y., and on April 15 he wrote to his mother describing his meeting with General Washington. “He then with great affability asked me to sit down and to drink a glass of wine. After some conversation, as it was now 2 o'clock I rose to take my leave—Mr B, said he, you will do me the favor to stay & dine—we shall dine in less than an hour—this was honour which I could never have expected & would by no means decline—at table he placed me on the left hand of Mrs Washington—he was on her right & he drank his first glass of wine with me—the company besides consisted of about 15 officers—The dinner was good, but everything was quite plain—we all sat on camp stools & there was nothing to be seen about his House, but what every officer in the army might likewise have in his—Mrs W. was as plain, easy, and affable as he was, & one would have thought from the familiarity which prevailed there, that he saw a respectable private gentleman dining at the Head of his own Family.

“Genel. W. is now just 50 year old—he is a tall genteel figure of a man, rather exceeding 6 foot in height—His countenence is grave, composed, mild and penetrating— his nose is long & of the Roman shaws eyes a little hollow under the eyebrows but active and lively—his whole countenance is expressive of Sagacity, of Prudence, and of Moderation, & his figure altogether has something of the solemn and majestick, which impresses respect in every beholder...in his dress he was perfectly plain—an old blue coat faced with buff waistcoat and britches of the latter, seemingly of the same age & without any lace upon them composed his dress, his shirt had no ruffles at the wrists. but of very fine linen—he always wears Boots, & never uses a Carriage, but when Mrs W. is with him, & that is only in winter. His hair is a little gray & combed smoothly back from the forehead & in a small queue—no curlls & but very little Powder to it.”

67. The anniversary of the battle of Lexington.

68. See Journals of the Continental Congress, Apr 11, 1783.

Although the proclamation before alluded to, extends only to the prohibition of hostilities and not to the annunciation of a general peace, yet it must afford the most rational and sincere satisfaction to every benevolent mind, as it puts a period to a long and doubtful contest, stops the effusion of human blood, opens the prospect to a more splendid scene, and like another morning star, promises the approach of a brighter day than hath hitherto illuminated the Western Hemisphere; on such a happy day, a day which is the harbinger of Peace, a day which compleats the eighth year of the war, it would be ingratitude not to rejoice! it would be insensibility not to participate in the general felicity.

The Commander in Chief far from endeavouring to stifle the feelings of Joy in his own bosom, offers his most cordial Congratulations on the occasion to all the Officers of every denomination, to all the Troops of the United States in General, and in particular to those gallant and persevering men. who had resolved to defend the rights of their invaded country so long as the war should continue. For these are the men who ought to be considered as the pride and boast of the American Army; And, who crowned with well earned laurels, may soon withdraw from the field of Glory, to the more tranquil walks of civil life.

While the General recollects the almost infinite variety of Scenes thro which we have passed, with a mixture of pleasure, astonishment, and gratitude; While he contemplates the prospects before us with rapture; he can not help wishing that all the brave men (of whatever condition they may be) who have shared in the toils and dangers of effecting this glorious revolution, of rescuing Millions from the hand of oppression, and of laying the foundation of a great Empire, might be impressed with a proper idea of the dignifyed part they have been called to act (under the Smiles of providence) on the stage of human affairs: for, happy, thrice happy shall they be pronounced hereafter, who have contributed any thing, who have performed the meanest office in erecting this stuebendous fabrick of Freedom and Empire on the broad basis of Indipendency; who have assisted in protecting the rights of humane nature and establishing an Asylum for the poor and oppressed of all nations and religions. The glorius task for which we first fleu to Arms being thus accomplished, the liberties of our Country being fully acknowledged, and firmly secured by the smiles of heaven, on the purity of our cause, and the honest exertions of a feeble people (determined to be free) against a powerful Nation (disposed to oppress them) and the Character of those who have persevered, through every extremity of hardship; suffering and danger being immortalized by the illustrious appellation of the patriot Army: Nothing now remains but for the actors of this mighty Scene to preserve a perfect, unvarying, consistency of character through the very last act; to close the Drama with applause; and to retire from the Military Theatre with the same approbation of Angells and men which have crowned all their former vertuous Actions. For this purpose no disorder or licentiousness must be tolerated, every considerate and well disposed soldier must remember it will be absolutely necessary to wait with patience untill peace shall be declared or Congress shall be enabled to take proper measures for the security of the public stores &ca.; as soon as these Arrangements shall be made the General is confident there will be no delay in discharging with every mark of distinction and honor all the men enlisted for the war who will then have faithfully performed their engagements with the public. The General has already interested himself in their behalf; and he thinks he need not repeat the assurances of his disposition to be useful to them on the present, and every other proper occasion. In the mean time he is determined that no Military neglects or excesses shall go unpunished while he retains the command of the Army.

The Adjutant General will have such working parties detailed to assist in making the preparations for a general rejoicing as the Chief Engineer with the Army shall call for, and the Quarter Master Genl. will also furnish such materials as he may want. 69

The Quarter Master General will without delay procure such a number of Discharges to be printed as will be sufficient for all the men enlisted for the War; he will please to apply to Head Quarters for the form.

An extra ration of liquor to be issued to every man tomorrow, to drink Perpetual Peace, Independence and Happiness to the United States of America.

The Inspection of the Army for the month of March will take place in the following manner and on the following days: The Maryland Detachment and Jersey brigade on Monday the 21st; York brigade and Hampshire, 22d; 1st Massachusetts Brigade, 23d; 2d, do, 24th; 3d, do, 25th; The regiments of Artillery at Westpoint, Sappers and Miners, Col. Swifts regimt. and Invalids, 28th; Connecticut brigade, 29th.

Inspection Rolls may be had at Colonel Stewarts Quarters.

69. “April 19th. At noon the proclamation of Congress for a cessation of hostilities was proclaimed at the door of the New Building, followed by three huzzas; after which a prayer was made by the Reverend Mr. Ganno, and an anthem (Independence, from Billings,) was performed by vocal and instrumental music.”—Heath's Memories.

The Court on consideration are of opinion that the 1st. and 3d. charges against Lt. Kenney are supported, yet they do not find his opposition to Lt. Stewart was attended with an intention of encourageing the illicit Traffick. They are also of opinion that the 2d. and 4th. Charges are not supported.

The Court adjudges the conduct of Lt. Kenney as found supported on the 1st. and 3d. charges to be in breach of article 5th. section 18th. of the Rules and Articles of war and sentence him to ask pardon of Lieutt. Tho, it does not appear from the trial that Mr. Kenney was concerned in any illicit Traffic, yet his going below the Lines and being there in company with persons of suspicious characters was highly improper. His conduct in opposing Lt. Stewart in the execution of his duty, and the language it appears he made use of on that occasion were derogatory to the character an officer should support.

At a Genl. courtmartial held at Westpoint by order of Major General Knox, Lt. Colonel Gray president.
Capt. John Reily of the corps of Invalids was tried, charged with conducting himself in a manner unbecoming an officer and Gentleman, by receiving his pay from the regimental pay master for the month of January last, partly in money, the remainder in orders drawn on said Paymaster, and accepted by him; and afterwards applying to, and receiving the same Months pay from the Deputy Pay Master Genl., on an assurance that he had not received it from the regimental paymaster.

The Court on mature consideration are of opinion that Captain Reily did receive a part of his pay for the month of January last, vizt.

eight Dollars from the regimental paymaster, and that he afterwards did apply to and receive from the Deputy Paymaster Genl. the same Months pay, for which conduct they think him highly reprehensible, in breach of art. 5th. sect. 18th. of the Rules and art. of War and do sentence him to be repremanded in Genl. orders. He is acquitted of the other part of the charge.

The Commander in Cheif approves the opinion of the Court, and while he finds from the proceedings there is rather an appearance of indiscretion than of intentional criminality in the conduct of Captain Reily he can not but express his concern, that an officer who has bled so freely in the service of his Country should (at the close of so honorable a contest) be guilty of behaving, not only in itself culpable, but very inconsistent with the delicacy of the Military character.
