

The grand committee to whom was referred a letter of the governor of Massachusetts, of the 28th of October, 1783, relative to the continental bills of credit of the old emissions, submit the following. ...

The GRAND COMMITTEE to whom was referred a Letter of the Governor of Massachusetts, of the 28th of October, 1783, relative to the Continental Bills of Credit of the old Emissions, submit the following.

RESOLVED, THAT all sums of continental bills of credit paid by or to any state, on account of the United States, shall be credited or debited in account, according to the specie value of such bills at the time of payment, as settled by the legislature of the same state, in their table of depreciation formed for the use of their state; and where none such tables have been formed: on which payments an interest shall be allowed at the rat of six per centum from the time of payment.

That all such bills now in the treasury of any state, shall be credited to such state at the value they bore in specie, at the time they were received by the state, which value shall be settled by a table of depreciation as directed in the preceding resolution, for all the period of time comprehended in such depreciation table; and if the said bills were received after the last day, to which such table descends, they shall then be credited at the rate at which they were actually purchased or received; or if not purchased or received at any particular rate, then at the market value of such bills within the state at the time, to be estimated on the best evidence which may be obtained: on which sums also a like interest of six percent per annum, from the time of receipt shall be allowed; and the affidavit of the treasurer receiving the said bills, shall be evidence of the time and rate at which they were received.

Library of Congress

That all such bills now in the hands of individuals shall be redeemed at the same rates prescribed for those in the treasury of their state. That the holders of such bills shall be at liberty to carry them to the loan-officer of the United States within their state, who shall give them in exchange for the same, a certificate expressing the sum in specie which the United States owe in lieu thereof, and the time from which it bears interest, which time shall be the 1st day of April, 1781, where the said bills were received before that day, and where received afterwards, the time of their actual receipt. The loan-officer shall require from the holder, the best evidence of the time of his receiving them, which the nature of the case will admit. viz. That of circumstances and disinterested persons, where to be had, and where not to be had to his satisfaction, then resorting to the examination of the party himself on oath, and giving thereto so much credit as in his conscience he shall think it deserves. And in all cases of importance and difficulty, shall associate to himself two honest and able persons to assist him in the examination and judgment. These certificates shall be funded and paid as other debts of the United States, but no certificate shall be issued for a less sum than twenty specie dollars.