Air — Old Hundred.

Here, where all climes their offerings send, Here, where all arts their tribute lay, Before thy presence, Lord, we bend, And for thy smile and blessing pray.

For thou dost sway the tides of thought, And hold the issues in thy hand, Of all the human toll has wrought, And all that human skill has planned.

Thou lead'st the restless Power of Mind O'er destiny's untrodden field, And guid'st him, wandering bold but blind, To mighty ends not yet revealed.

At the close of the ceremonies, the Hallelujah Chorus, from Handel's Messiah.

Triumphal March, by Ferd. Ries

Chorus, from Haydn's Creation.

While the guests are occupied in viewing the Exhibition, the following pieces of music will be played alternately by DODWORTH'S and NOLL'S National Guard Bands in order, until the Exhibition is closed:
