

THE SUNDAY JOURNAL SUMMER RESORT SUPPLEMENT

After the Big Bicycle Parade at the Branch.

NEWPORT WAITS FOR A DUCHESS.

Newport, July 17.—The Duchess of Manchester will arrive in Newport on the 20th of this month. It is expected that she will be accompanied by her son, the Duke of Manchester. She will be entertained the first two weeks of her visit here by Mrs. William Post at her cottage on Bellevue avenue. The Duchess will remain here all the season, but will visit J. J. Van Alen during the rest of her stay here.

and is looked upon as one of the season's entertainers. Doting mamma with dainty hints to marry off are eyeing the alert for eligible parties. It seems that desirable bachelors with money, breeding and family at their disposal are very few and far between, and many a son of the "awful second season" has risen to find fair Arabella still unclaimed and far from wed.

There is no first class hotel, no boating, very little fishing, and it is almost as much as your life is worth to get a boat for a sail. The want of these is what keeps people away, and Buzzard's Bay itself will never become an attractive and successful watering place.

Mr. and Mrs. O. H. P. Belmont gave a well coached party Monday. Mr. Belmont sailed and Miss Virginia Fair, Miss Katherine Deur, Pierpont Duray and Sidney Smith completed the party. Miss Bessie Bradhurst, of New York, is visiting Mrs. William Burden. She will remain here all season, dividing her stay with Mrs. James T. Kerochian.

Mr. and Mrs. O. H. P. Belmont gave a well coached party Monday. Mr. Belmont sailed and Miss Virginia Fair, Miss Katherine Deur, Pierpont Duray and Sidney Smith completed the party. Miss Bessie Bradhurst, of New York, is visiting Mrs. William Burden. She will remain here all season, dividing her stay with Mrs. James T. Kerochian.

Mr. and Mrs. O. H. P. Belmont gave a well coached party Monday. Mr. Belmont sailed and Miss Virginia Fair, Miss Katherine Deur, Pierpont Duray and Sidney Smith completed the party. Miss Bessie Bradhurst, of New York, is visiting Mrs. William Burden. She will remain here all season, dividing her stay with Mrs. James T. Kerochian.

BUZZARD'S BAY IS DEAD.

With the Decline of the Cleveland Boom, Its Career Comes to a Close. Buzzard's Bay, July 17.—It is the universal opinion here that Buzzard's Bay was never so quiet as at the present time. There is no social gaiety whatever, and the social world seems practically dead.

There is no first class hotel, no boating, very little fishing, and it is almost as much as your life is worth to get a boat for a sail. The want of these is what keeps people away, and Buzzard's Bay itself will never become an attractive and successful watering place.

Mr. and Mrs. O. H. P. Belmont gave a well coached party Monday. Mr. Belmont sailed and Miss Virginia Fair, Miss Katherine Deur, Pierpont Duray and Sidney Smith completed the party. Miss Bessie Bradhurst, of New York, is visiting Mrs. William Burden. She will remain here all season, dividing her stay with Mrs. James T. Kerochian.

Mr. and Mrs. O. H. P. Belmont gave a well coached party Monday. Mr. Belmont sailed and Miss Virginia Fair, Miss Katherine Deur, Pierpont Duray and Sidney Smith completed the party. Miss Bessie Bradhurst, of New York, is visiting Mrs. William Burden. She will remain here all season, dividing her stay with Mrs. James T. Kerochian.

Mr. and Mrs. O. H. P. Belmont gave a well coached party Monday. Mr. Belmont sailed and Miss Virginia Fair, Miss Katherine Deur, Pierpont Duray and Sidney Smith completed the party. Miss Bessie Bradhurst, of New York, is visiting Mrs. William Burden. She will remain here all season, dividing her stay with Mrs. James T. Kerochian.

Mr. and Mrs. O. H. P. Belmont gave a well coached party Monday. Mr. Belmont sailed and Miss Virginia Fair, Miss Katherine Deur, Pierpont Duray and Sidney Smith completed the party. Miss Bessie Bradhurst, of New York, is visiting Mrs. William Burden. She will remain here all season, dividing her stay with Mrs. James T. Kerochian.

LONG BRANCH'S BICYCLE PARADE WAS A WONDER.

Long Branch, July 17.—The cycle parade was just as great a success as every one believed it would be. In fact it marked a new era in cycling at this place. Those not participating in the parade occupied seats in the reviewing stand at the West End, and nothing but praise and congratulations were heard on all sides.

The judges and promoters, numbering thirty, were tendered a subscription dinner at the West End Hotel cottages Wednesday evening. The dinner was given in recognition of the services rendered. A collation was served at the Ocean Hotel to fully eight hundred cyclists. The spread was complimentary, and provided by the Cycle Parade General Committee.

The Grand Lodge officers of the F. and A. M. of America, were tendered a clam bake at Pleasure Bay, Wednesday. New York was represented by R. W. G. M. John Stewart and E. N. S. Ehlers.

The cycle parade prizes were much admired. They included two silver cups, contributed by the New York Journal, two decorated banners, twelve silver and gold medals and two bicycles. The guests at the Hotel Brighton gave a progressive heart party Wednesday evening. There were seven tables of players.

A new organization that will keep the sports progressing is the Norwood Field Club. The club, having purchased a suitable site, a very pretty club house will shortly be erected. During the week of August 3, the club will hold an invitation trophy tennis tournament.

George M. Pullman and family, Chicago, arrived in their special car Sunday noon. They will occupy their Ocean avenue cottage, Elberon. In the party were Mr. and Mrs. Pullman, Mrs. Fred Sanger and child, Mrs. Charles Smith and Miss Robinson.

At Pleasure Bay.

SARATOGA ENJOYING A BRISK SEASON.

Saratoga, N. Y., July 17.—A large number of Boston excursionists arrived here day evening and remained in town Thursday. Wednesday afternoon's slightly interfered with their sight but they made the best use possible of their brief sojourn. They stopped at C. Hall.

George W. Bark, of Buffalo, has for a musical fete, to be given on the Union Hotel lawn Thursday evening August 13. The children's annual will take place the following after on Saturday evening the fete will conclude with a grand ball under the elms in spacious ground. The fete will supersede the Shakespearean festival, which planted the garden parties that attract so much glittering attention at this resort.

Former Canal Superintendent James Grey proposes to at once rebuild his Saratoga Lake roadhouse, which was wiped out of visible existence by a fire on the western shore, with a new and more commodious building. Snake Hill, on the opposite shore.

A Saratoga delegate to the national convention of the Ancient Order of Hibernians met at Detroit, Mich., this week and returned with him an invitation for that to assemble here in 1897. Rev. Dr. E. P. Gould, professor of Testament literature at the Philadelphical Episcopal Divinity School, and Rev. Charles C. Stearns, of the Harvard Theological Seminary, each this week delivered six lectures in the Saratoga series. The lecturers next week will be Rev. Henry Ferguson, professor of Hebrew in Trinity College, and the Rev. Dr. H. Stuckenber, of Cambridge, Mass. The plenary course of popular lectures will be opened on Monday next. All of the lectures are replete with interest.

Miss Annie Louise White, of New York, on Thursday evening, at the C. Hall, gave her monologue entertainment "Firts and Matrons," for the benefit of Martha's Rest, a philanthropic Saratoga auxiliary of a New York institution. Mrs. A. S. Quilley, of Philadelphia, entertained the Strong Sanitarium guests Monday evening with an address on "Woman's National Indian Association."

September 3 and 4 have been selected as the dates for the convention and field day here of the Tri-County Firemen's Association of Saratoga, Warren and Washington counties. Mrs. M. A. Maschmedt, of New York, will at the Grand Union Hotel next week deliver a number of free lectures upon "What Theology?" "Religion and Karma" and "Is Theology Practical?"

Mrs. Ward McAllister, of New York City, was on Monday given a reception at the General Batcheller cottage by Miss Batcheller, who was assisted by Mrs. Donald J. Leach, of the above city, and others, all of whom are prominently identified with the Daughters of the American Revolution. A West Shore Railroad excursion will reach here July 23. Another from the Pennsylvania road will arrive August 1.

The Rome Lake musical festival, which takes place next week, will be attended by a large number of Saratoga visitors. Occasional showers early in the week interfered with the bicyclers' regular outings. As soon as the weather cleared and the roads were in order, troop after troop of cyclists made up for lost time. Among the popular long-run trips made of late have been those to Lake George and to Schroon Lake. They are easily made between breakfast and sunset.

Fred B. Fortmeyer, of Newark, N. J., secretary of the National Association of Amateur Orators, was in town early in the week supervising arrangements for the annual regatta on Saratoga Lake, August 13 and 14.

The meteorological disturbances Wednesday afternoon necessitated a postponement of the Saratoga Quill Club bicycle races till the following day. The competitors hailed from New York City, Jersey City, Boston, Syracuse, Rome, Albany, Troy, Cohoes, Glens Falls, Wilton, Ballston Spa and Saratoga Springs. According to the present outlook, the Floral Festival Association will hold its floral fete during the first week of September.

LENOX WILL HAVE A CASINO.

The Leading Cottagers Are Back of the Project, Which Promises to Materialize Within a Year.

Lenox, Mass., July 17.—Lenox is to have a casino. This was semi-officially announced by one of the executive officers of the Golf Club on the greens this week. The project is well backed by many of the leading cottagers, and within a year the casino will be a reality. The men who are interested in this matter are already negotiating for land, and one of the most modern and complete buildings of its type will be erected.

The site will be in the vicinity of the golf links, where several available spots can be secured. It is likely that polo will be introduced here next year, and the two sports will be amalgamated under one club, which will be organized as the Lenox Country Club.

The greatest of the events of the week was the tea at the golf links. It was a charming function. The ladies wore the prettiest of their dainty gowns, and the golfers were picturesque in scarlet coats and white ducks. The dancing of the Virginia reel on the green was a delightful feature. The toilettes, nearly all of white, pink or pale green, were beautiful, while among the hats those with black or white feathers predominated.

Miss Skinnle—Just think! I'm ahead ten pounds since coming up here. Dude Raymond (just from a whole week in dear old Lummox, you know)—Bless me! Ten pounds! How much does that represent in American money? Miss Skinnle—Twelve dollars a week, including washing.

Among the week's arrivals at Curtis Hotel are Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Martin, Philadelphia; Miss Henderson and Miss Pecker, New York; Judge Alling, Newport, R. I.; Miss Ellen Brown, Princeton, N. J.; Mr. and Mrs. M. T. Lynde, Brooklyn; Mrs. Henry Stocking, Baltimore; E. L. Andrews, Beresford, N. Y.; E. S. Robinson and Miss Herriman, New York.

Mr. and Mrs. William Everard Strong, New York, who are summering at their country home, Mead Lawns, this place, have announced the engagement of their daughter, Miss Massey Strong, to William Travers Gray, of New York.

The annual fair for the benefit of the Summer branch of the Babies' Hospital will be held at the Tennis Club, Saturday, July 25.

The members of the Seabright Beach Club are giving a series of Saturday evening dances. These affairs are making Seabright very popular.

Edward Valpey, London; John C. Elsele, William J. Casey, the Misses Moliner, Savannah, Ga.; Mrs. N. de Moliner, Georgia; D. C. Brown and wife, Mrs. E. N. Kimball, Miss Pauline Reardon, New York.

OCEAN WAVE—Mr. and Mrs. G. King, Mr. and Mrs. F. Hill, C. Eiler and family, New York; J. P. Watson and family, E. P. Leonard and family, Texas; John H. Cummings, Philadelphia; Mr. and Mrs. William Cohen, Chicago.

HOWLAND—L. Bach, W. Goldman, A. Renben, S. T. Meyers, Mrs. J. Englebert, Miss A. Rogers, A. Simon, M. A. Singer, M. A. Myers, S. Harris, Miss J. Harris, New York.

WEST END—L. W. Ahrens, S. C. Klamber, S. Solomon, Nicholas Biddle, D. Gardner, Arthur Stein, L. R. Rothschild, George Alfred Townsend, Miss O'Neill, H. F. Locke, New York; C. A. Robinson, Portland, Me.; Mr. and Mrs. N. L. Cutting, E. Romandes, Natalie A. Gieson, James G. Beemer, Henry A. Jones, New York; Edward C. Moore, Philadelphia; D. Stern, G. Gershel, Mrs. A. H. Berlin, Mrs. E. M. Moore, S. C. Kinuber, Mrs. S. Landes, Miss Isabel Frenchline, Miss Dewar, Miss McDonald, David Martin, Mrs. J. Minardi, Max H. Well, New York.

WEST BERMINGTON—C. H. McKnight, L. B. Zacharias, G. Frost, New York;