

HONORS FOR TWO HEROES.

Statues to Generals Meade and Hancock Unveiled on the Battlefield of Gettysburg.

Gettysburg, Pa., June 5.—The equestrian statue erected by the State of Pennsylvania in honor of General George G. Meade, commanding the army of the Potomac, was unveiled this morning in the presence of a large number of distinguished military officers and civilians.

Master George Gordon Meade, a grandson of the dead hero, unveiled the statue. As the drapery fell from the statue, Light Battery C, Third United States Artillery, fired a salute.

Governor Daniel H. Hastings, of Pennsylvania, received the statue on behalf of the Commonwealth. Brevet Major-General David McMillan, who commanded the Second Cavalry Division at Gettysburg, delivered an oration.

In the afternoon the equestrian statue of the late General Meade, which was unveiled yesterday, was the subject of a lecture by the Rapid Transit Commission.

From the annexed district, along the projected Kingsbridge, Fordham and West Farms extensions, it is said that the Manhattan company has received assurances that 55 per cent of the property owners affected will waive claims for damages.

As soon as the company's application for the appointment of an appraiser commission is filed, and the Rapid Transit Commissioners have entered into a legally binding agreement, we propose to place the building orders for iron, steel and other building materials, and make contracts for construction.

None of the Commissioners will express his views of the Manhattan plan, but it is understood that the proposition in its general form is approved by the majority.

Mr. Sage said yesterday that the company would not set on foot a change of motive power on the "L" lines within a few weeks. He is a believer in compressed air, and has investigated to his own satisfaction the Harde motor, promoted by General Hermann Haupt, former Government Director of Military Roads and builder of the Hoosac tunnel.

A model motor of this type is being built at Rome, N. Y., and will be tested on the New York Central tracks next month.

Harlem patrons of the "L" system are preparing to make trouble for the company on long standing defects in the service at East One Hundred and Twenty-ninth street and on the suburban line.

When the Tax Commissioners assessed the property of the Manhattan Railway Company at $14,406,935, the officers in two statements, declared it to be excessive and the Commission to review the finding of the Supreme Court the Tax Commissioners are continuing to do so.

The Board of Street Opening decided on a site for a new East Side park yesterday, and incidentally solved the problem of the location for a new bath house.

The Board of Street Opening decided on a site for a new East Side park yesterday, and incidentally solved the problem of the location for a new bath house.

The United States training steamship Alliance, Captain Henry N. Manney commanding, returned yesterday from her regular Spring cruise in the West Indies.

The United States training steamship Alliance, Captain Henry N. Manney commanding, returned yesterday from her regular Spring cruise in the West Indies.

The United States training steamship Alliance, Captain Henry N. Manney commanding, returned yesterday from her regular Spring cruise in the West Indies.

The United States training steamship Alliance, Captain Henry N. Manney commanding, returned yesterday from her regular Spring cruise in the West Indies.

WIRE WAS ALIVE, BOYLAN IS DEAD.

Lineman Grasped It to Save Himself from Falling from a Crossbeam.

For Fifteen Years He Had Climbed Poles, but This Time He Had No Gloves.

HIS DEATH WAS INSTANTANEOUS. Current Was Stronger Than That Used for the Execution of Murderers.

John Boylan, of Fort Lee, N. J., a lineman, while working for the Citizen's Electric Light Company yesterday at East New York and Nostrand avenues, Brooklyn, was killed by electricity.

He slipped from a crossbeam, and to save himself, grasped a wire above from which the insulation had been cut preparatory to severing the wire. The shock killed him.

Wienan was intent on his work, when suddenly he felt the tug on the wires, and looking over saw Boylan's plight. The man never uttered a word.

Wienan immediately climbed the pole to take Boylan down. He could not pull the victim's hand free, and had to cut the wire.

Wienan immediately climbed the pole to take Boylan down. He could not pull the victim's hand free, and had to cut the wire.

Wienan immediately climbed the pole to take Boylan down. He could not pull the victim's hand free, and had to cut the wire.

Wienan immediately climbed the pole to take Boylan down. He could not pull the victim's hand free, and had to cut the wire.

Wienan immediately climbed the pole to take Boylan down. He could not pull the victim's hand free, and had to cut the wire.

Wienan immediately climbed the pole to take Boylan down. He could not pull the victim's hand free, and had to cut the wire.

Wienan immediately climbed the pole to take Boylan down. He could not pull the victim's hand free, and had to cut the wire.

Wienan immediately climbed the pole to take Boylan down. He could not pull the victim's hand free, and had to cut the wire.

Wienan immediately climbed the pole to take Boylan down. He could not pull the victim's hand free, and had to cut the wire.

Wienan immediately climbed the pole to take Boylan down. He could not pull the victim's hand free, and had to cut the wire.

Wienan immediately climbed the pole to take Boylan down. He could not pull the victim's hand free, and had to cut the wire.

Wienan immediately climbed the pole to take Boylan down. He could not pull the victim's hand free, and had to cut the wire.

PLUMBERS WAR ON BIKES.

They Oppose Their Use Because Their Time Charges Are Thereby Cut Short.

The organized plumbers are in a snarl over the bicycle question. As every householder can easily imagine, hurry is no part of the plumber's trade.

Plumbers with dangerously radical ideas, however, have made their appearance in the unions. They hurry through their work in a day as possible, and do as their work on bicycles.

Members of the Board of Walking Delegates of this city ride on bicycles to see if their fellow-members are working under union conditions.

These men, he said between sobs, "will come to a bad end. It's all owing to the reform government and the McKinley boom."

These men, he said between sobs, "will come to a bad end. It's all owing to the reform government and the McKinley boom."

These men, he said between sobs, "will come to a bad end. It's all owing to the reform government and the McKinley boom."

These men, he said between sobs, "will come to a bad end. It's all owing to the reform government and the McKinley boom."

These men, he said between sobs, "will come to a bad end. It's all owing to the reform government and the McKinley boom."

These men, he said between sobs, "will come to a bad end. It's all owing to the reform government and the McKinley boom."

These men, he said between sobs, "will come to a bad end. It's all owing to the reform government and the McKinley boom."

These men, he said between sobs, "will come to a bad end. It's all owing to the reform government and the McKinley boom."

These men, he said between sobs, "will come to a bad end. It's all owing to the reform government and the McKinley boom."

These men, he said between sobs, "will come to a bad end. It's all owing to the reform government and the McKinley boom."

These men, he said between sobs, "will come to a bad end. It's all owing to the reform government and the McKinley boom."

These men, he said between sobs, "will come to a bad end. It's all owing to the reform government and the McKinley boom."

These men, he said between sobs, "will come to a bad end. It's all owing to the reform government and the McKinley boom."

BERNHEIM & CO.'S

Dissolution Sale OF HIGH GRADE Clothing and Furnishings

will reach its climax to-day, when we include all of our reserve stock. Until retiring partner is paid out we'll continue to sell every Man's and Boy's Suit at the prices advertised when the sale commenced.

YOUR CHANCE TO BUY BARGAINS THAT ARE MAKING A Sensation in the Clothing Trade.

Men's Suits. Children's Suits. Scores of wholesale clothing clerks have availed themselves of this opportunity to get some of our English Serge or Imported Worsteds Suits.

worth 16.00, 18.00 and 20.00, at 9.50. Other lots, Light or Dark Shades, Sacks or Cut-aways, go at $5.00, $7.50, $12.00 & $14.00.

Money Refunded or Goods Exchanged for the Asking. Open Evenings Till 9. Saturdays Till 11.

BERNHEIM & CO. Third Ave., 2 Doors Below 125th St.

THE YALE CREW Sail for Henley this morning. Their Famous Coach, BOB COOK,

Has prepared a Special Article on their condition, prospects, etc., which will appear only in this afternoon's Commercial Advertiser.

2c. 20 PAGES. 2c. FOR SALE EVERYWHERE.

ESTABLISHED 1845. Smith, Gray & Co. NEW YORK STORE, BROOKLYN STORES.

Headquarters for good hats, or hat quarters for good heads. Whichever way you put it, our store is the place.

Positively cured by these Little Pills. They also relieve Distress from Dyspepsia, Indigestion and Too Hearty Eating.

THE GLORY OF MAN. STRENGTH, VITALITY. THE SCIENCE OF LIFE.

GUARANTEE SHOE CO. MEN'S SHOES, 102 Broadway, bet. Broome and Spring.

THE SILVER QUESTION does not affect the purchasing power of a dollar with U. S. & Co. Silver, gold or paper dollars received for those Blue Serge Business Suits.

UPSON, SINGLETON & CO. West 23d St. Clothiers, Nos. 244 and 246. OPEN THIS EVENING.

Chemicals won't make Nature's Rootbeer. HIRE'S Rootbeer is made of roots, barks and berries—whole-some things.

WIRE WAS ALIVE, BOYLAN IS DEAD.

Lineman Grasped It to Save Himself from Falling from a Crossbeam.

For Fifteen Years He Had Climbed Poles, but This Time He Had No Gloves.

HIS DEATH WAS INSTANTANEOUS. Current Was Stronger Than That Used for the Execution of Murderers.

John Boylan, of Fort Lee, N. J., a lineman, while working for the Citizen's Electric Light Company yesterday at East New York and Nostrand avenues, Brooklyn, was killed by electricity.

He slipped from a crossbeam, and to save himself, grasped a wire above from which the insulation had been cut preparatory to severing the wire. The shock killed him.

Wienan was intent on his work, when suddenly he felt the tug on the wires, and looking over saw Boylan's plight. The man never uttered a word.

Wienan immediately climbed the pole to take Boylan down. He could not pull the victim's hand free, and had to cut the wire.

Wienan immediately climbed the pole to take Boylan down. He could not pull the victim's hand free, and had to cut the wire.

Wienan immediately climbed the pole to take Boylan down. He could not pull the victim's hand free, and had to cut the wire.

Wienan immediately climbed the pole to take Boylan down. He could not pull the victim's hand free, and had to cut the wire.

Wienan immediately climbed the pole to take Boylan down. He could not pull the victim's hand free, and had to cut the wire.

Wienan immediately climbed the pole to take Boylan down. He could not pull the victim's hand free, and had to cut the wire.

Wienan immediately climbed the pole to take Boylan down. He could not pull the victim's hand free, and had to cut the wire.

Wienan immediately climbed the pole to take Boylan down. He could not pull the victim's hand free, and had to cut the wire.

Wienan immediately climbed the pole to take Boylan down. He could not pull the victim's hand free, and had to cut the wire.

Wienan immediately climbed the pole to take Boylan down. He could not pull the victim's hand free, and had to cut the wire.

Wienan immediately climbed the pole to take Boylan down. He could not pull the victim's hand free, and had to cut the wire.

Wienan immediately climbed the pole to take Boylan down. He could not pull the victim's hand free, and had to cut the wire.

WIRE WAS ALIVE, BOYLAN IS DEAD.

Lineman Grasped It to Save Himself from Falling from a Crossbeam.

For Fifteen Years He Had Climbed Poles, but This Time He Had No Gloves.

HIS DEATH WAS INSTANTANEOUS. Current Was Stronger Than That Used for the Execution of Murderers.

John Boylan, of Fort Lee, N. J., a lineman, while working for the Citizen's Electric Light Company yesterday at East New York and Nostrand avenues, Brooklyn, was killed by electricity.

He slipped from a crossbeam, and to save himself, grasped a wire above from which the insulation had been cut preparatory to severing the wire. The shock killed him.

Wienan was intent on his work, when suddenly he felt the tug on the wires, and looking over saw Boylan's plight. The man never uttered a word.

Wienan immediately climbed the pole to take Boylan down. He could not pull the victim's hand free, and had to cut the wire.

Wienan immediately climbed the pole to take Boylan down. He could not pull the victim's hand free, and had to cut the wire.

Wienan immediately climbed the pole to take Boylan down. He could not pull the victim's hand free, and had to cut the wire.

Wienan immediately climbed the pole to take Boylan down. He could not pull the victim's hand free, and had to cut the wire.

Wienan immediately climbed the pole to take Boylan down. He could not pull the victim's hand free, and had to cut the wire.

Wienan immediately climbed the pole to take Boylan down. He could not pull the victim's hand free, and had to cut the wire.

Wienan immediately climbed the pole to take Boylan down. He could not pull the victim's hand free, and had to cut the wire.

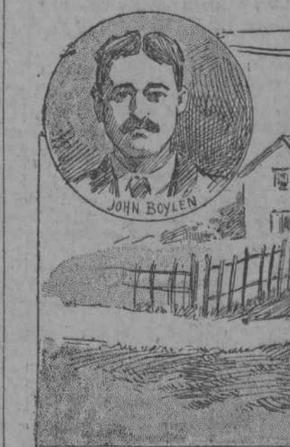

Wienan immediately climbed the pole to take Boylan down. He could not pull the victim's hand free, and had to cut the wire.

Wienan immediately climbed the pole to take Boylan down. He could not pull the victim's hand free, and had to cut the wire.

Wienan immediately climbed the pole to take Boylan down. He could not pull the victim's hand free, and had to cut the wire.

Wienan immediately climbed the pole to take Boylan down. He could not pull the victim's hand free, and had to cut the wire.

Wienan immediately climbed the pole to take Boylan down. He could not pull the victim's hand free, and had to cut the wire.

JOHN BOYLAN

Death of John Boylan, a Lineman. He grasped a live wire to save himself from falling and was instantly killed.

CORNELL FORCED TO PAY. Appellate Court Holds Him Responsible for Mrs. Martin's Fine.

The Appellate Division of the Supreme Court yesterday affirmed the finding of the lower court that Henry M. Cornell is liable to Ernest Redfern for clothing supplied to Mrs. J. H. Martin on Mr. Cornell's representation.

The testimony showed that Mrs. Martin was living with Cornell as his wife at No. 23 West Fifteenth street.

In the latter part of last November Redfern sued Henry M. Cornell on a bill of $2,061 for finery ordered by Mrs. Martin. She had given Cornell's name as a reference.

The case was tried in the Supreme Court before Judge Beach. A verdict for the full amount, with interest, was brought in by the jury.

MAJOR WILL SEE THE GAME. "Microbe Chasers" Are to Play the "Contagies" at Manhattan Field.

A game of baseball will be contested in the presence of Mayor Strong and many city officials on the Manhattan Field diamond on Saturday, June 20.

ELLIS ISLAND PRIVILEGES. Go at Lower Rates Than Before, and Charges Will Be More Reasonable.

The privileges on Ellis Island were disposed of yesterday at lower rentals than for years.

Two Killed by a Runaway. Clinton, Mass., June 5.—Antoine Nedon, aged sixty-seven years, and his daughter, Mrs. Paulin, aged forty-two, were killed this afternoon in a runaway accident.

Close of "The Liberty Bell" Season. Boston, June 5.—The spectacular opera "The Liberty Bell," which began a season at the Boston Theatre on Thursday, closes its season to-morrow night rather unexpectedly.

Rev. Thomas Dixon Wanted in the South. Atlanta, Ga., June 5.—A committee of deacons of the First Baptist Church of this city will reach New York to-morrow, and will at once hunt up Rev. Thomas Dixon.

Professor Hawn Hurt by the Trolley. Henry Galtes Hawn was thrown from a Halsey street, Brooklyn, trolley car on Thursday and severely injured.

JOHN BOYLAN

Death of John Boylan, a Lineman. He grasped a live wire to save himself from falling and was instantly killed.

CORNELL FORCED TO PAY. Appellate Court Holds Him Responsible for Mrs. Martin's Fine.

The Appellate Division of the Supreme Court yesterday affirmed the finding of the lower court that Henry M. Cornell is liable to Ernest Redfern for clothing supplied to Mrs. J. H. Martin on Mr. Cornell's representation.

The testimony showed that Mrs. Martin was living with Cornell as his wife at No. 23 West Fifteenth street.

In the latter part of last November Redfern sued Henry M. Cornell on a bill of $2,061 for finery ordered by Mrs. Martin. She had given Cornell's name as a reference.

The case was tried in the Supreme Court before Judge Beach. A verdict for the full amount, with interest, was brought in by the jury.

MAJOR WILL SEE THE GAME. "Microbe Chasers" Are to Play the "Contagies" at Manhattan Field.

A game of baseball will be contested in the presence of Mayor Strong and many city officials on the Manhattan Field diamond on Saturday, June 20.

ELLIS ISLAND PRIVILEGES. Go at Lower Rates Than Before, and Charges Will Be More Reasonable.

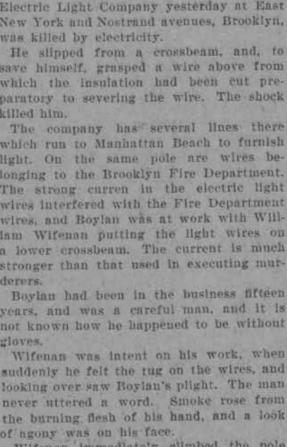

The privileges on Ellis Island were disposed of yesterday at lower rentals than for years.

Two Killed by a Runaway. Clinton, Mass., June 5.—Antoine Nedon, aged sixty-seven years, and his daughter, Mrs. Paulin, aged forty-two, were killed this afternoon in a runaway accident.

Close of "The Liberty Bell" Season. Boston, June 5.—The spectacular opera "The Liberty Bell," which began a season at the Boston Theatre on Thursday, closes its season to-morrow night rather unexpectedly.

Rev. Thomas Dixon Wanted in the South. Atlanta, Ga., June 5.—A committee of deacons of the First Baptist Church of this city will reach New York to-morrow, and will at once hunt up Rev. Thomas Dixon.

Professor Hawn Hurt by the Trolley. Henry Galtes Hawn was thrown from a Halsey street, Brooklyn, trolley car on Thursday and severely injured.

JOHN BOYLAN

Death of John Boylan, a Lineman. He grasped a live wire to save himself from falling and was instantly killed.

CORNELL FORCED TO PAY. Appellate Court Holds Him Responsible for Mrs. Martin's Fine.

The Appellate Division of the Supreme Court yesterday affirmed the finding of the lower court that Henry M. Cornell is liable to Ernest Redfern for clothing supplied to Mrs. J. H. Martin on Mr. Cornell's representation.

The testimony showed that Mrs. Martin was living with Cornell as his wife at No. 23 West Fifteenth street.

In the latter part of last November Redfern sued Henry M. Cornell on a bill of $2,061 for finery ordered by Mrs. Martin. She had given Cornell's name as a reference.

The case was tried in the Supreme Court before Judge Beach. A verdict for the full amount, with interest, was brought in by the jury.

MAJOR WILL SEE THE GAME. "Microbe Chasers" Are to Play the "Contagies" at Manhattan Field.

A game of baseball will be contested in the presence of Mayor Strong and many city officials on the Manhattan Field diamond on Saturday, June 20.

ELLIS ISLAND PRIVILEGES. Go at Lower Rates Than Before, and Charges Will Be More Reasonable.

The privileges on Ellis Island were disposed of yesterday at lower rentals than for years.

Two Killed by a Runaway. Clinton, Mass., June 5.—Antoine Nedon, aged sixty-seven years, and his daughter, Mrs. Paulin, aged forty-two, were killed this afternoon in a runaway accident.

Close of "The Liberty Bell" Season. Boston, June 5.—The spectacular opera "The Liberty Bell," which began a season at the Boston Theatre on Thursday, closes its season to-morrow night rather unexpectedly.

Rev. Thomas Dixon Wanted in the South. Atlanta, Ga., June 5.—A committee of deacons of the First Baptist Church of this city will reach New York to-morrow, and will at once hunt up Rev. Thomas Dixon.

Professor Hawn Hurt by the Trolley. Henry Galtes Hawn was thrown from a Halsey street, Brooklyn, trolley car on Thursday and severely injured.

JOHN BOYLAN

Death of John Boylan, a Lineman. He grasped a live wire to save himself from falling and was instantly killed.

CORNELL FORCED TO PAY. Appellate Court Holds Him Responsible for Mrs. Martin's Fine.

The Appellate Division of the Supreme Court yesterday affirmed the finding of the lower court that Henry M. Cornell is liable to Ernest Redfern for clothing supplied to Mrs. J. H. Martin on Mr. Cornell's representation.

The testimony showed that Mrs. Martin was living with Cornell as his wife at No. 23 West Fifteenth street.

In the latter part of last November Redfern sued Henry M. Cornell on a bill of $2,061 for finery ordered by Mrs. Martin. She had given Cornell's name as a reference.

The case was tried in the Supreme Court before Judge Beach. A verdict for the full amount, with interest, was brought in by the jury.

MAJOR WILL SEE THE GAME. "Microbe Chasers" Are to Play the "Contagies" at Manhattan Field.

A game of baseball will be contested in the presence of Mayor Strong and many city officials on the Manhattan Field diamond on Saturday, June 20.

ELLIS ISLAND PRIVILEGES. Go at Lower Rates Than Before, and Charges Will Be More Reasonable.

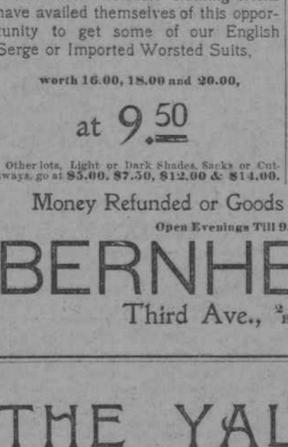

The privileges on Ellis Island were disposed of yesterday at lower rentals than for years.

Two Killed by a Runaway. Clinton, Mass., June 5.—Antoine Nedon, aged sixty-seven years, and his daughter, Mrs. Paulin, aged forty-two, were killed this afternoon in a runaway accident.

Close of "The Liberty Bell" Season. Boston, June 5.—The spectacular opera "The Liberty Bell," which began a season at the Boston Theatre on Thursday, closes its season to-morrow night rather unexpectedly.

Rev. Thomas Dixon Wanted in the South. Atlanta, Ga., June 5.—A committee of deacons of the First Baptist Church of this city will reach New York to-morrow, and will at once hunt up Rev. Thomas Dixon.

Professor Hawn Hurt by the Trolley. Henry Galtes Hawn was thrown from a Halsey street, Brooklyn, trolley car on Thursday and severely injured.

JOHN BOYLAN

Death of John Boylan, a Lineman. He grasped a live wire to save himself from falling and was instantly killed.

CORNELL FORCED TO PAY. Appellate Court Holds Him Responsible for Mrs. Martin's Fine.

The Appellate Division of the Supreme Court yesterday affirmed the finding of the lower court that Henry M. Cornell is liable to Ernest Redfern for clothing supplied to Mrs. J. H. Martin on Mr. Cornell's representation.

The testimony showed that Mrs. Martin was living with Cornell as his wife at No. 23 West Fifteenth street.

In the latter part of last November Redfern sued Henry M. Cornell on a bill of $2,061 for finery ordered by Mrs. Martin. She had given Cornell's name as a reference.

The case was tried in the Supreme Court before Judge Beach. A verdict for the full amount, with interest, was brought in by the jury.

MAJOR WILL SEE THE GAME. "Microbe Chasers" Are to Play the "Contagies" at Manhattan Field.

A game of baseball will be contested in the presence of Mayor Strong and many city officials on the Manhattan Field diamond on Saturday, June 20.

ELLIS ISLAND PRIVILEGES. Go at Lower Rates Than Before, and Charges Will Be More Reasonable.

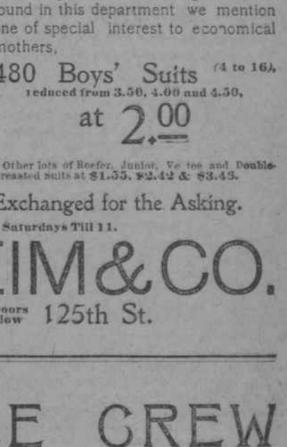

The privileges on Ellis Island were disposed of yesterday at lower rentals than for years.

Two Killed by a Runaway. Clinton, Mass., June 5.—Antoine Nedon, aged sixty-seven years, and his daughter, Mrs. Paulin, aged forty-two, were killed this afternoon in a runaway accident.

Close of "The Liberty Bell" Season. Boston, June 5.—The spectacular opera "The Liberty Bell," which began a season at the Boston Theatre on Thursday, closes its season to-morrow night rather unexpectedly.

Rev. Thomas Dixon Wanted in the South. Atlanta, Ga., June 5.—A committee of deacons of the First Baptist Church of this city will reach New York to-morrow, and will at once hunt up Rev. Thomas Dixon.

Professor Hawn Hurt by the Trolley. Henry Galtes Hawn was thrown from a Halsey street, Brooklyn, trolley car on Thursday and severely injured.

JOHN BOYLAN

Death of John Boylan, a Lineman. He grasped a live wire to save himself from falling and was instantly killed.