

ORPHAN'S MOTHER RETURNS TO FIND HOME A DUSTHEAP

Mme. Dupire Tells Henri's Parrain She Is "a Little Saddened" by Visit

275,149 FRANCS FOR 3,444

Additional Contributions Boost Continuation Fund for A.E.F.'s Adopted Mascots

Mme. Vve. Henri Dupire, mother of little Henri Oscar Dupire, one of THE STARS AND STRIPES' 3,444, has just paid a visit to the site of her former home in Houplines.

"This is her letter and it portrays conditions faced by thousands of refugees returning to the devastated regions of France: 'I beg to thank the principal officer that I have just received regarding my little Henri Oscar Dupire. You will excuse the delay in replying, as having received a telegram from the prefect of the Nord Department to go to Houplines. I left Echire on February 12 for Houplines. I stayed with the family at Tourcoing three days, going to Houplines on February 15.

Ruins Amid the Snow

"It was snowing at that time, but in spite of the weather I arrived in Houplines, and after searching for three hours found the ground on which our house once stood. But nothing remains—neither fruit trees, house nor anything else. Alas, what ruins! I can only resign myself, for I am not likely to be able to go back to the place of my birth, when the ground on which my home stood has been the principal field of battle. Also what disaster nothing remains to use, neither fields nor houses. Then, dear sir, I returned to Tourcoing.

"I must tell you that little Henri Oscar had a slight attack of the grippe, but that he is almost quite well again now and is going to school regularly, and also his little sister and brother are in excellent health. My own health is good, but I am a little saddened by my journey and at not finding anything remaining of our home to return to work the land which has not been cultivated for at least two years."

More Continuation Money

Last week saw the creation of several additional individual trust funds for the benefit of war orphans already adopted, and a most interesting increase in the Continuation Fund, which will be devoted to the care of the 3,444 in an effort to give them the opportunity they would have enjoyed had not their fathers died fighting for the freedom of the world.

YVES LAMOE SHINES AS ORPHAN LITTERATEUR

Little Yves Lamoe may not know it, but she is one of the best correspondents among the 3,444 orphans of THE STARS AND STRIPES' family.

Yves was adopted by a modest captain of the A.E.F. who resents publicity, but is willing that his protégé should be given credit for his efforts. Following is Yves' letter, as printed in the booklet "From French War Orphans to Their American Parrains," published by the American Red Cross, a copy of which will be sent free on application to THE STARS AND STRIPES:

"My dear Godfather: 'I am sure you will not be sorry to have a larger acquaintance with your little war orphan. I will tell you then that I am a lively little boy, very fond of playing during recreation time, but, according to what my teachers say, do not waste my time when I am in class, but I keep working hard for my first certificate at school.

Assistant to Sacristan

"Our house is fairly large, on account of mama's business; it stands high on gravel soil and is close to the church, which is very convenient, as I go there to act as assistant to the sacristan. The wind blows a lot around our house and when I go to the church at 6 o'clock in the morning, to perform my duties there, I tuck my hands away in my pockets (which I am told at school is a bad habit), or else in mama's 'sacred'—I mean mama comes with me each morning and while I tuck my hands from the palms she rings the bells—sometimes a full peal, to announce mass, sometimes a plaintive tolling like after the benison. I will tell you another time about our church, which is quite new and a very nice one.

"Today I am going to tell you chiefly about myself. For several months I have only been occupied in singing, because grandfather was there and he lighted the candles, rang bells, made the collection, received the pence for the chairs, etc. But one day last summer granddaddy felt extremely unwell and had to take to his bed, and the doctor who was called in found he had paralysis. He suffered for many months and was not able to speak at all. My sisters often went to see him, but I did not dare to, as I was rather afraid of him—I must tell you that he had let his beard grow very long, he had become very thin and had many whisms of an invalid.

"Although I loved him very much, it made me feel very bad to see him like that, and so I did not go to see him very often. One night, on waking up, I saw mama crying. She said to me very softly that granddaddy was dead, but that we must not be too tired to weep for him, and to see our papa, and he would never suffer any more.

A Well-Disciplined Choir

"On becoming sacristan, I was made head choir boy; the other choir boys are not much younger than I am, but they are quite disciplined and easy to lead. Monsieur the priest says that I am the little chief of a division; at other times he calls me 'Navy Officer,' because I have gilt buttons on my overcoat placed like those of naval men, but since granddaddy's death these buttons have been replaced by black buttons, so you must say that on Sundays I feel very proud to find myself a person of such importance. There is only one thing I regret, and that is that I am not able to ring the bells, and to assist mama—but that will come in time—little fish become big ones, supposing that the good God gives them a long enough life."

"I will write you more frequently in future. I am sure you will not be vexed with me if I write a lot that may seem to be of no account. But, as you know, I cannot write to you of things that I know nothing about. For example, I know nothing about the Society of Nations and the League of Nations, but I will write you about my own little life and shall be very happy if my correspondence pleases you. I am going to work very hard, in order to give you pleasure. In my first letter I shall describe to you my life at school.

"Yours affectionately, 'YVES LAMOE'

WELFARE OFFICER TO EACH DIVISION NEW G.H.Q. PLAN

Officers and men to assist in the auxiliary society work where this is considered necessary.

One of the most important functions of the welfare officer will be in his jurisdiction over free distributions of food and various supplies by the different societies. Discouraging the indiscriminate giving away of articles, the new general order formulates the policy to be followed in free distribution, as follows:

"It is directed that free distribution by the welfare societies of food, tobacco and other articles for individual consumption be limited to those situations in which such free distribution will be of real benefit to the troops. In general, it may be permitted when ordinary comforts and facilities are not available, as to the sick and wounded and to troops in transit or otherwise separated from the usual sources of supply. Special cases will be dealt with in accordance with the principles herein announced. Welfare officers will scrutinize with care any free distribution within their units and will insist upon adherence to these principles."

Result of Interesting Controversy

The adoption of this policy in the A.E.F. follows an interesting controversy as the result of a recommendation of the Committee of Eleven in the United States that auxiliary organizations be restricted to giving away not more than ten per cent of the money received by each as the result of the United War Work Campaign for funds in the States last fall.

One of the organizations objected to the restriction and disapproved of it in a resolution. In the United War Work drive for funds the following amounts were Table listing amounts for various organizations like Y.M.C.A., National Catholic War Council, etc.

The amount actually pledged in the drive was $203,000,000, but the fact that the restrictive law had resulted in some of the pledges being reduced or unpaid, and the amount collected and yet to be collected will probably total approximately $170,500,000. The $15,000,000 of the War Camp Community Service is for use wholly in the United States. Only a small fraction of the Y.W.C.A.'s fund is intended for overseas use. Big fraction of the amounts of all the other organizations is for use in France, however.

As the money raised in last fall's drive was based on the estimated expenses of the auxiliary organizations for one year, it is considered that all are under a moral obligation to spend the entire amount of their budget before next October. The Y.M.C.A., which is operating 1,600 huts in France, is said to have expended half of the amount which will be available to it for use in France. It has operated the canteen service at a loss. With the Army taking over the canteen service, however, the expenses of the Y.M.C.A. will be reduced. The K. of C., which has approximately 150 huts in France, has spent only a small portion of the fund it has available. The Salvation Army will continue to operate its 45 huts.

The personnel of the Y.M.C.A. with the A.E.F. is 6,000, which includes 2,500 Y.W.C.A. girls. The K. of C. has a personnel of 700. The Salvation Army has 45 huts and 186 workers.

To Continue Wet Canteens

All the organizations may still operate "wet canteens" and may serve free, if desired, tea, chocolate, coffee, sandwiches, biscuits and other refreshments, particularly at special gatherings.

The adoption of the new plan of supervising the auxiliary societies will also effect materially the program for amusements and athletics in the A.E.F.

The Government appropriated $1,500,000 for the purchase of athletic supplies. Most of this has been expended. The fund will be replenished, however, by the auxiliary organizations. In the future, divisional and other athletic officers will have charge of the distribution of sporting goods in their areas and will obtain their supply through the Chief Athletic Officer, A.E.F., by requisition. Thus, it is expected, will insure an even supply.

Amusements are making increasing demands upon the treasuries of the societies. The monthly budget of the Y.M.C.A. for entertainment, including the expenses of professional and soldier shows, is 1,735,000 francs. By special arrangement this amount is supplemented by appropriating from each of the other welfare organizations in proportion to their share of the total budget. Under the new arrangement the entertainment expenditures will be so supervised that the expenses connected with this work will be shared by all the societies on a fair basis to be agreed upon by their representatives.

Another factor for economy in the new order is the provision that auxiliary organizations shall be assisted, so far as possible, by the Army transportation system. The amount of canteens and other features of the distribution system have made necessary huge fleets of heavy trucks and light cars. The new order directs that Army transportation be made available to the societies, on the same basis for military activities, save that when the two uses conflict the demand for military use shall prevail.

AMERICAN LEGION, TO UNITE WAR'S VETERANS, ON WAY TO FORMATION

tion of the citizen to the State, to preserve to history and incidents of our participation in the war, and to cement the ties of comradeship formed in service, do hereby found and establish an association for the furtherance of the foregoing purposes.

Those eligible to membership shall be: All officers and enlisted personnel in the military and naval service of the United States of America at any time during the period from April 6, 1917, until November 11, 1918, inclusive; excepting however persons leaving the service without an honorable discharge, or persons who, after having been called into the service, refused, failed or attempted to evade the full performance of such service.

The society shall consist of a national organization with subsidiary branches, one for each state, territory and foreign possession of the United States, and the District of Columbia, as well as one in each foreign country where members of the national society may be resident and who desire to associate themselves together.

The officers of the society shall be a president, one or more vice presidents, a secretary and treasurer, and a board of directors, which shall consist of the president and vice presidents of the national organization, together with a delegate from each subsidiary branch.

The subsidiary branches shall organize and govern themselves in such manner as the membership of such subsidiary organizations shall determine, except that all branches shall comply with the requirements and purposes of the permanent national constitution.

The representation shall be on the basis of the actual enrollment in the subsidiary branches at all conventions after the adoption of a permanent constitution.

The Opening Session

A lengthy and lively debate as to whether voting should be by delegations or individuals developed as soon as temporary organization had been effected at the opening session of the caucus Saturday. The vote on the delegation proposal was finally carried, 279 to 72.

The meeting was opened by Maj. Eric Fisher Wood, 88th Division, as temporary secretary. Maj. Harry J. Grant, 28th Division, was elected president. Maj. John H. Strohm, 1st Division, who is now in America, temporary organization was effected with the unanimous election of Lieut.-Col. Bennett C. Clark as chairman and of Major Wood as secretary.

The following organizations were represented and following the adoption of the delegation resolution, were each entitled to a single vote in succeeding roll-calls: 1st, 2nd, 3rd, 4th, 6th, 26th, 28th, 29th, 30th, 31st, 32nd, 33rd, 34th, 42nd, 77th, 78th, 79th, 80th, 81st, 82nd, 83rd, 84th, 89th and 91st Divisions;
