

NASSAU-BAHAMAS

A MID-WINTER NIGHT'S DREAM

The moon is a fairy love-lantern tonight, and the kind sky brims with stars that fall and float like silver lilies on the sea.

Royal palms fling dancing shadows on the old sea wall, and the air that stirs their branches is soft and cool, and sweet with the knowledge of nearby jasmine.

Somewhere to-night in these Bahaman gardens waits Romance, and oh, the happy ache in the heart of you—that's after knowing where!

Tucked away in the Tropics out of the beaten track, yet within fifteen hours' sail of the United States, Nassau-Bahamas enjoys a position unique among the leading wintering places of the world.
