GOOD stores suffer because their patrons forget to tell about pleasant experiences. Bad stores profit because their customers forget to tell about unpleasant experiences.

The Restaurant Service at the HOTEL BELLECLAIRE is attracting the attention of New Yorkers, whose patronage of the Restaurant is constantly increasing. It is also attracting the attention of people from out of town points. A lady in Utica who is very fond of APPLE PIE wanted a friend of hers in New York to have some good Apple Pie to serve at the Holiday family dinner. So she forwarded $2.00 to us and asked that we forward two BELLECLAIRE APPLE PIES to her friend. The lady who received them said the Apple Pies were a great deal better than our Apple Pie advertisement indicated. Thus one more friend was made for the BELLECLAIRE. Our Apple Pie never fails to make everybody enthusiastic. But Apple Pie is not the only article of food that makes friends for the BELLECLAIRE. All of its dishes make an equally strong appeal. Robert D. Blackman.
