

Side Looks at the Frowning Front of Mars.

Relieving a drouth somewhere in France. The demijohn follows the "75." Medem Photo Service.

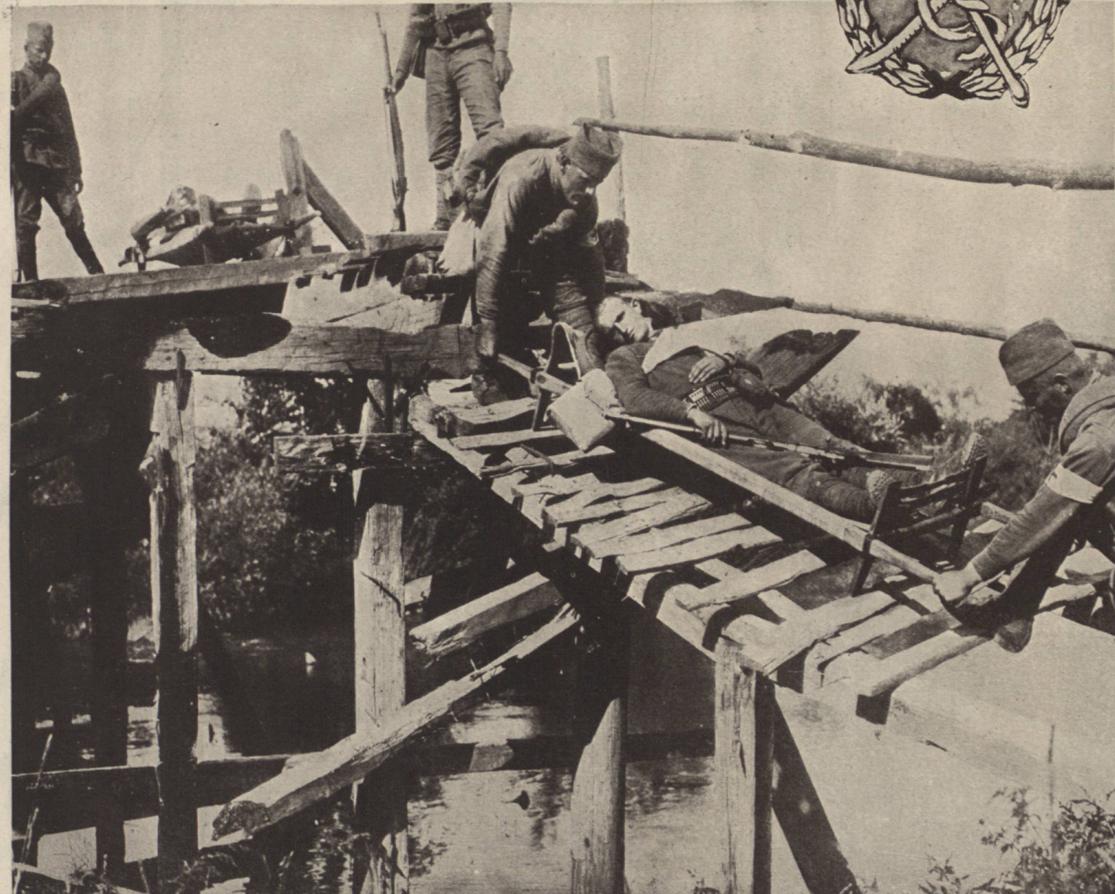

Turkish troops being reviewed in Jaffa before their departure for the front. Press Illustration Co.

School children of Marseilles welcoming Serbian refugee children who are to be cared for by France. Press Illustration Co.

Wounded German and Austrian prisoners at a railroad station in Petrograd. © Underwood & Underwood.

During the retreat of the Serbian army the wounded were frequently transported over this kind of bridge.

With the Foreign Legion of the French army. "Bob" Scanlon, an American negro pugilist, having a tooth pulled.