Preparing the German advances on Verdun. Behind a steel shield, and armed with rifle and nippers, the lone infantryman cuts the barbed wire barriers in front of the French trenches.
Medem Photo Service.

"Somewhere" with the British North Sea Fleet, which is awaiting a German naval dash. Early morning tea in silhouette.
© American Press Assn.