

THOMAS A. EDISON
IN GLENMONT, HIS
LLEWELLYN PARK
(N. J.) HOME.
Photos © by Janet M. Cummings.

A characteristic pose of Mr. Edison seated in his favorite corner in the living room.

A corner in the music room which contains a harp, an xylophone, a drum and a moving picture machine. The last throws pictures on a screen in another part of the room.

Mr. Edison is here seen in the music room listening to a phonograph.

These photographs, showing Mr. Edison at varying ages, were saved from the fire at the Edison works.
