HAM & EGGS.
Yes, this democratic dish has invaded the aristocratic district where the HOTEL BELLECLAIRE stands as a monument to the good home cooking we all like, but which we break away from too often.
Who does not like a piece of broiled ham with fine fresh eggs—boiled or fried?
The BELLECLAIRE serves this and other democratic dishes in a manner that holds and increases the restaurant trade.
The Chef and his assistants know how to cook well, every dish—democratic, aristocratic or fashionable—but our patrons seem to favor the plain, wholesome, easily digested food.
Come in any time—for breakfast, luncheon, dinner, midnight supper—and you will get always good food tastily cooked.
