

Here's One Unit of Marjorie Sterrett's Army of Battleship

Builders—Join It, Send Your Dime. Wear a Button.

"Maybe I'll be a doctor-soldier cause my papa is a doctor," says Thurston T. Lusk, son of Thurston G. Lusk, M. D.

Meriden's Marjorie Sterrett, who is helping her New York namesake.

John Henderson Longley, of Pelham Manor. Courtesy of "The Tattler."

Mary Foster, of New Rochelle. Courtesy of "The Tattler."

"Billy" Ogden, of New Rochelle. Courtesy of "The Tattler."

Richard D. Stevenson, of New Rochelle. Courtesy of "The Tattler." Photo by Sutton.

chelle. Courtesy of "The Tattler." Photo by Sutton.

F. J. Tango, of 244 E. 117th St., a newsstand booster for Marjorie's fund

Angers Grant, aged 4, son of Charles Grant, of University Heights, kin to the U. S. Grant family

Marjorie Klaw, of New Rochelle. Courtesy of "The Tattler."

Jack Constantine, of New Rochelle. Courtesy of "The Tattler"

Jean Pierre Mayo, of New Rochelle. Courtesy of "The Tattler."