

THE EIGHTH SESSON of the ANNUAL CONFERENCE of the
METHODIST EPISCOPAL CHURCH

Six hundred ministers of the Methodist Episcopal Church in New Jersey attended the conference which began on March 15 and ended on March 21.

Photo by Cole & Co.

Patients in a British Field Hospital in Salonika. Official photograph issued by the Press Bureau from Janet M. Cummings.

Dr. Langlet, the Mayor of Rheims, in centre, with his wife, surrounded by members of the City Council and the Town Hall personnel, wearing masks for protection against German asphyxiating shells.

Underwood & Underwood

General Roques the new French Minister of War. He has been decorated with the Grand Cross of the Legion of Honor for services while commanding the Army of the East.

Medem Photo Service.

The British campaign in the Persian Gulf region. Indian troops, under General Lake, riding through flooded country.

Underwood & Underwood.

General Townshend in command of the besieged British troops at Kut-el-Amara. The advance of the Russians on Bagdad seems to promise relief before the British force under General Aylmer reaches their comrades.

The Columbia Glee and Mandolin Club joining with Amherst in a concert and dance at the Plaza on March 31—Left to right, top row, Fitzgerald, Pott, Hughes, Laub, Renard, Brown, Reese, Cree, Broughton; 2nd row, Adams, Greene, Bacon, Adams, Newton, Crane, Graham, Rogers, Lamont, Richardson, Caygill; 3rd row, Rehlaender, Clark, Wheless, Brainerd, Starbuck, Hyde, Everson, Countiss, Weinberg, Watt, Catzen; sitting, Murphy, Fox, Maas, Ferebee, Curry, Crane, Bagnell, Eckels, Perkins, Scofield, McDill.