The employes of the American News Company at the Hip podrome where they held their annual theatre party on March 9. Nearly 2.000 in number, they occupied the entire orchestra, all the boxes and part of the balcony. The photograph shows part of the ice pond on which is presented "Flirting at St. Moritz." The American News Co. distributes daily newspapers and periodicals to 3,800 newsdealers in the Metropolitan District. Photo by Drucker & Co.