A family from Paris who have been living at the HOTEL BELLECLAIRE since last Christmas had to return home recently—very much to the regret of the ladies of the party. They had made many congenial friends while here. They were greatly pleased with their quarters in the Hotel and with the food and service. They said they had never spent three happier months in their lives.
 The BELLECLAIRE Management tries in every way possible to make guests comfortable—to make them feel that the Hotel is THEIR home while they are in it.
