

The Princeton Dramatic Association, which played Moliere's "Les Femmes Savantes" in the Ritz-Carlton Hotel. Standing (lower row), F. B. Whitlock, R. C. Preston, O. V. Gould, R. A. Brotemarkle, P. C. Kauffmann, R. N. Schullinger. Sitting (lower row), P. C. Cook, J. C. Milne, T. Martin, W. Bowman, B. T. Feustman, W. B. Knox and J. O. Denby.

Underwood & Underwood.

Social Functions Which Season the Plain Fare of Lent

C. M. Bellak and Mrs. C. A. Brown in costume at the Fakirs' Ball. Photos by Bradley Studios from Lewis Fashion Service.

H. L. Waterous, president of the Fakirs; E. E. Tafinger, Miss Dorothy Bane, Miss D. L. Smith and J. C. Menzies.

Photo by Bradley Studios from Lewis Fashion Service.

Spalding Hall and Miss Shirley Barker. The latter won the first costume prize at the Fakirs' Ball. Photo by Bradley Studios from Lewis Fashion Service.

Miss Dorothea Seaman, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Egbert B. Seaman, of Orange, N. J., who will be married on April 26 to Franz Euler, Jr., of East Orange. Channell Studio Photo.

L. A. Hoffman and Miss Bertha Wright at the Fakirs Ball.

Photo by Bradley Studios from Lewis Fashion Service.

The Royal Court of Harlem's Carnival: Queen, Mrs. I. R. Halliday; Maids of Honor, Misses Cecelia Munderf, Margaret Lankenau, Isabel Henderson and Henrietta Carson.