

Dorothy Jane Londoner, one of the Cohan Revuers. Photo by Ira L. Hill

Ruth Shepley, of "The Boomerang," revued at the Astor. Photo by Mishkin

Lolo Lorraine, of the Ziegfeld "Midnight Frolic," likewise revued at the Astor. Photo by White

Valli Valli, as Jane Clay, is the star Cohan revuer. Photo by White

Martha Hedman, who expects to spend the summer with "The Boomerang." Photo by Ira L. Hill

THE NEW YORK STAGE AS SEEN BY THE COHAN REVIEW OF 1916

The finale, Act II, of the Cohan Revue. Mimics of the season's most popular players in a performance of surpassing excellence. Photo by White

Madge Kennedy, who finds the weather "Fair" and Warner," at the Eltinge. Photo by White

Grace George and Ernest Lawford, in the Shaw comedy, "Captain Brass-bound's Conversion," at the Playhouse. Photo by White

Ada Meade, who has moved with "Katinka" to the Lyric. Photo by White