Here is an incident that happened in the dining room at the HOTEL BELLECLAIRE the other night.
A lady who had eaten roast beef for her dinner refused dessert because, as she expressed it, she wanted "to hold on to the taste of that roast beef as long as possible—that she had never eaten a finer piece of roast beef in her life."
It is pretty good cooking that makes the simplest dishes the finest; in fact, it is real art.
The BELLECLAIRE is adding to its fame and receipts daily because of its good cooking.
