

French automobile trucks ready to rush troops or ammunition to weak spots on the front.

Medem Photo Service.

Around Verdun the Battle Tide Ebbs and Flows in Waves of Red.

Ruins of a village near Verdun after the German bombardment and the French counter fire.

Medem Photo Service

Part of the defences around Verdun are huge steel covers for the protection of the French soldiers from grenades and liquid fire.

Medem Photo Service

One of the heroes of Verdun. He was the sole survivor of a French regiment which defended the Corbeau woods against a German attack.

Medem Photo Service.

Passengers of the British Maloja, sunk by a mine or German torpedo, struggling in the water off Dover while rescue work is going on.

Underwood & Underwood.

A hand railway used by the French in the Verdun sector for the transportation of the wounded to the field hospital.

Medem Photo Service.

