

You Will Receive Characteristic New York Courtesy at These Establishments

THE HOTEL BELLECLAIRE is like a Solitaire Ring. It stands by itself and attracts attention to itself because its location is at an aristocratic corner.

It stands at the corner of Broadway at 77th Street—in the center of the admittedly fine residential section of New York.

Two blocks west is Riverside Drive, which winds its attractive way along the Hudson River.

Two blocks east is New York's pride—the great Central Park.

In the center of a home section, it is a Home Hotel—but it receives transient visitors and shows them the same courtesy that it extends to permanent guests.

It is not a big hotel. It would not be so home-like if it were. When filled to its capacity—as it generally is—it can only accommodate 300 people comfortably.

It never allows its guests to be uncomfortable.

It is a safe hotel because it is fireproof.

It is a satisfactory hotel in which to stay because guests receive consistently courteous attention.

It is an economical hotel to stop at because you can get a good room and bath for $3.00 a day.

It is a good hotel in which to dine because its food is the best that can be obtained and it is cooked so that you can enjoy it. Prices for meals are moderate and portions large.

There are many fine hotels in New York, but remember, please, that the Belleclaire is the Solitaire.

Let us know in advance if you wish to stop with us and we will arrange to accommodate you.

The Hotel Belleclaire lives up to its principle of entertaining only the right kind of people in the right way and making them feel like coming back again, which they do.
