

Mrs. Eugene J. Grant, of Brooklyn, president of the New York City Federation of Women's Clubs

© Underwood & Underwood

Some of the 27,000 women now in New York for the Thirteenth Biennial Convention of the General Federation of Women's Clubs of the United States.

Photos by Paul Thompson

Mrs. William Grant Brown, chairman of the executive committee of the New York Biennial Board

Photo by White.

Mrs. William P. Harper, Seattle (left) and Mrs. Frank White, Valley City, North Dakota, directors of the General Federation of Women's Clubs

Mrs. Grace Julian Clarke, of Indianapolis (left), and Mrs. William E. Andrews, of Washington, D. C., directors of the General Federation of Women's Clubs.

Miss George A. Bacon of Worcester, Mass., Second Vice-President of the General Federation of Women's Clubs.

Mrs. William B. Williams (left), of Lapeer, Mich., treasurer; Miss Mary Garrett (centre), of New York, director, and Mrs. Samuel B. Sneath, of Tiffin, Ohio, first vice-president of the General Federation of Women's Clubs

Mrs. Samuel B. Sneath, of Tiffin, Ohio, candidate for president of the General Federation of Women's Clubs.

Mrs. Harry L. Keefe (left), of Walthill, Neb., recording secretary of the Federation, and Mrs. Benjamin Prince, of Brooklyn, president of Sorosis.