

Getting Ready for the Citizen Rookies at Plattsburg

Photos by Rigelov, Plattsburg, N. Y.

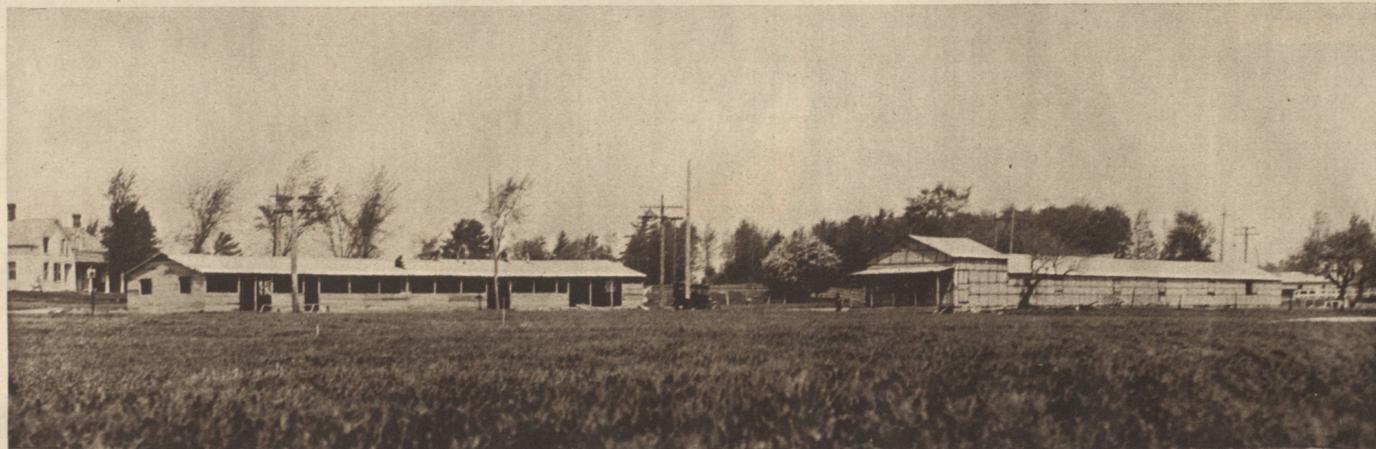

United States regular officers assigned to the Plattsburg training camp this year. Left to right: Capt. C. D. Roberts, 10th Inf., Capt. B. H. Wells, 29th Inf., Major Harrison Hall, Coast Artillery Corps, Capt. Merch B. Stewart, 5th Inf., Major Frank H. Lawton, Q. M. Corps, and Major Peter Murray, 29th Inf.

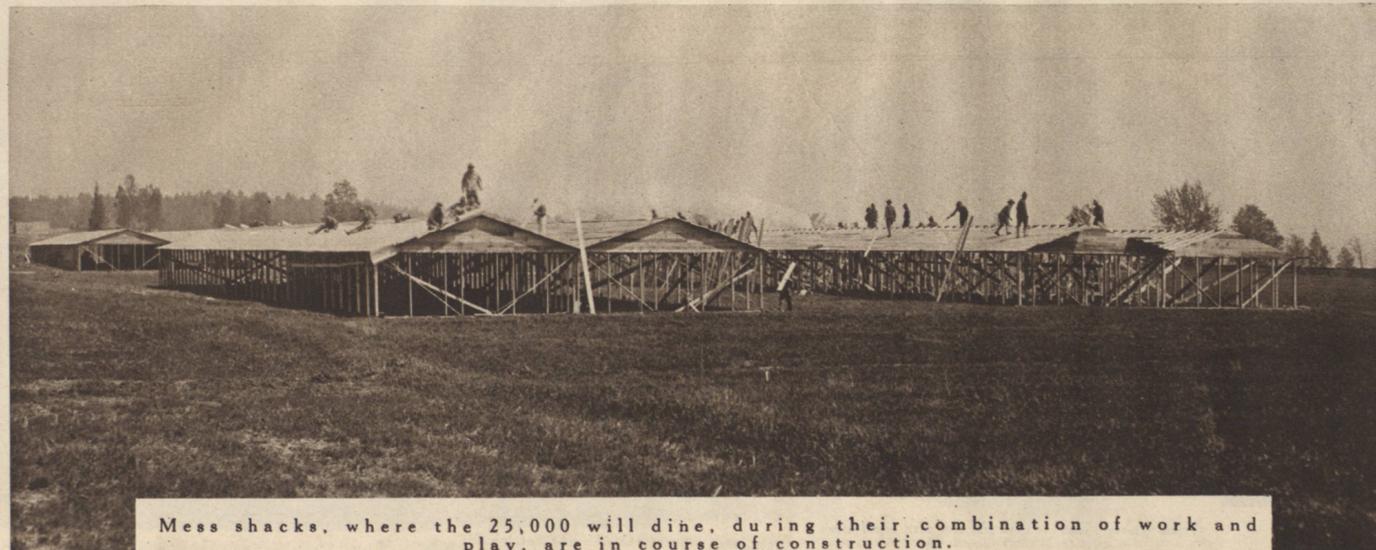

More than 25,000 business men will get their mail through this Post Office. Postmaster Andrew G. Senecal (right), and Chief Clerk Frank Buskey look forward to an interesting summer.

Unloading the tents, which will house the business men of many States while they get military training.

The camp exchange or general store, where the Plattsburgers, without distinction, will make their purchases during their stay at camp.

Mess shacks, where the 25,000 will dine, during their combination of work and play, are in course of construction.

The Nestle Permanent Hair Wave

Before Waving

There is absolutely no risk of injuring any hair. The process is comfortable and quick (about two hours including the two shampoos is required) and no fee is taken unless the test shampoo after the treatment reveals perfect success.
