PART VI.
NEW YORK TRIBUNE

The Tribune Graphic

SECTION ONE

SUNDAY
JUNE 25, 1916

June Brides and Newark Pageant Number

Miss Helen Marie Stuart, daughter of Mrs. William Couch Stuart, was married on June 1 at St. Bartholomew's Church to Ernest Stephen of London. Miss Edith Stuart was her sister's Maid of Honor and only attendant. The groomsman was Joseph Sampson Stevens.

Photo by Aime Dupont.

Miss Elise Huntington Francke, daughter of Mrs. Lindsley Tappin, and her Bridesmaids—Miss Francke was married at St. Thomas's Church on June 6 to Reginald Banks. Her attendants were her sisters, Miss Mary Irving Francke and Miss Eleanor Francke. The ceremony was followed by a reception at the Colony Club.

Photo by Davis & Sanford Company.

Miss Helen MacQuoid, who is now Mrs. Edwin Burd Grubb—Miss MacQuoid is the daughter of ex-Mayor Charles W. MacQuoid of Roselle, N. J. The father of the bridegroom was the late Senator E. Burd Grubb of Edgewater, N. J., U. S. Minister to Spain in the Harrison administration. The marriage ceremony was performed on June 3.

© by Marceau, N. Y.

Miss Theodora Brown, who is now Mrs. Joseph A. O'Conor. She was married to Dr. O'Conor on Wednesday, June 7, in the Church of All Saints, New York. She is a daughter of Mrs. Henry H. Brown, of 2087 Fifth Avenue. After the ceremony there was a large reception at Sherry's.

Photo by Campbell Studios.

Miss Louise Dudley White, who is now Mrs. J. Duncan Quakenbos—Miss White, who is the daughter of the late Rear Admiral White, U. S. N., was married on June 6 in Trinity Church, Princeton, N. J.

Photo © Marceau, N. Y.

Miss Ruth Danenhower, who is now Mrs. Albert F. Wilson—her marriage to Professor Wilson, of New York University, took place on Saturday, June 10, in the Church of the Ascension, New York. She is a daughter of the late Lieutenant John W. Danenhower.

Photo by Davis & Sanford Company.