

The Tribune Graphic

SECTION ONE

The Deadly Hand Grenade.—German soldiers in the Verdun sector are making a hand grenade attack on a French trench. A hand grenade is seen exploding among dead and wounded Frenchmen.

Exclusive for the New York Tribune,
© Modern Photo Service.

A French Charge at Verdun.
The poilus are charging through the debris of earth and wood caused by the artillery fire of the combatants. This ground has been taken and retaken many times at a terrible sacrifice of lives.

Exclusive for the New York Tribune,
© Modern Photo Service.