

The First Meeting of the New Republican National Committee, Held in New York on July 20. First row, from left to right: Charles B. Warren, Michigan; Alvah H. Martin, Virginia; Senator Weeks, Massachusetts; William R. Willcox, New York, chairman; Cornelius Bliss, jr., treasurer; Oscar Straus, New York; George W. Perkins, New York. Second row: Senator Reed Smoot, Utah; R. B. Howell, Nebraska; James B. Reynolds, A. T. Hert, Philip P. Campbell, Fred W. Upham, George W. Estabrook, James R. Garfield, New Hampshire; Beverly R. Robinson, Senator Charles Curtis, James A. Hemenway, Indiana; Senator Thomas Sterling, Birch Helms. Third row: John Menk, Herbert Parsons, New York, Senator James Wadsworth, New York; John T. Adams, Iowa; Harold L. Ickes, Illinois, Bascom Slemp, R. W. Austin, Senator Everett Colby, New Jersey. © Underwood & Underwood.

The 23d Regiment N. G. N. Y., of Brooklyn, hauling their transport wagons into camp at Pharr, Tex. © International Film Service.

The Yukon miner uses the equivalent of the European gas mask to protect himself against mosquitoes while he is placer mining for gold. The masks are made of wire frames and netting. © Press Illustrating Co.

The sappers of the New York and New Jersey militia at work in Texas at the Mexican border. Their jobs include trench digging and railroad building. © Central News Photo Service.

In the rooms of the American Supply League, formed in New York to aid militiamen in Texas. Back row, left to right, Mrs. Elizabeth Hammond, Mrs. Henry B. Fall, Mrs. Rogers H. Bacon, Mrs. Eugene J. Grant, Miss Florence Guernsey, Mrs. John Hays Hammond, president; Mrs. Nelson O'Shaughnessy, Mrs. Alice F. Harcourt, secretary. Front row, left to right, Mrs. Fitch Swinburne, Miss Elizabeth Peabody Stewart, Mrs. Penrhyn Stanlaws, Mrs. E. Reatta Grant-Parker, Mrs. Claude Pinney and Miss Helen Varick Boswell. © International Film Service.

An aeroplane view of Atlantic City.

International Film Service.