

Sea
Horses and the Sport of Vikings.
Tread the Decks of the Spume Cutters with the Amateur Tars.

Photos by Edwin Levick.

"Arrow No. 2," owned by Leonard H. Dyer, a winner in the Larchmont Yacht Club's Race Week and the Indian Harbor Yacht Club regatta.

Two of the New York Yacht Club's forty-footers, "Rowdy" (No. 9), H.S. Duell, and "Jessica" (No. 3), Wilson Marshall, fighting for the weather berth in a Larchmont start.

"Aria," a winner in the star class, owned by William Abbott, racing at Bayside, Long Island.

A. K. Bourne's forty-footer, "Black Duck," finishing off Glen Cove in a New York Yacht Club regatta.

H. S. Duell's forty-footer "Rowdy" winning at the July regatta of the New Rochelle Yacht Club.

The Bird class in a Bayside flight. No. 1, "Skylark," owned by John Dayton; No. 4, "Curlew," owned by C. L. Willard.

Forty-footers reaching for the first mark at Larchmont. "Kathleen," owned by Arthur Luke; "Masie," owned by Morton F. Plant; and "Pomparo," owned by Dr. Bishop.