

"WHEN THE BLAST OF WAR BLOWS IN OUR EARS"

AT OVILLERS AFTER THE BRITISH VICTORY—The captured German trenches, taken after a hand-to-hand struggle, have been reconstructed. One look-out is on guard; his comrades are sleeping. A more vivid photograph of Haig's advance in the Somme sector has never been published.

THIS DUMB-BELL TAKES A DEATH TOLL NOISILY—It might have come from a giant's gymnasium. It came from Krupp's. It's a German trench mortar bomb, unexploded, which fell into a Canadian camp on the Western front.

THE WOMAN SHARPSHOOTER—Trees are no obstacle to the members of the American Women's League for Self Defence receiving training at Huguenot, Staten Island. The sharpshooter here shown is Miss Katherine Blanc.

ONE OF THE NEW YORK MILITIA'S FOES IN TEXAS IS SUNSTROKE—During practice marches and drills the New York and New Jersey National Guardsmen on duty in Texas are frequently overcome by heat.

Sympathizers with New York's striking street railway men jeering an Eighty-sixth Street cross-town car motorman who is trying to force his car through a crowd.
