

Sound the capstan.
Beat to windward;
Furl all sail
And bale to leeward.
From the waterlog of the last cruise of the N. Y. Y. C.
Photos by Edwin Levick

The quarter or half dollar deck of the Mariette, with J. Frederick Brown at the wheel.

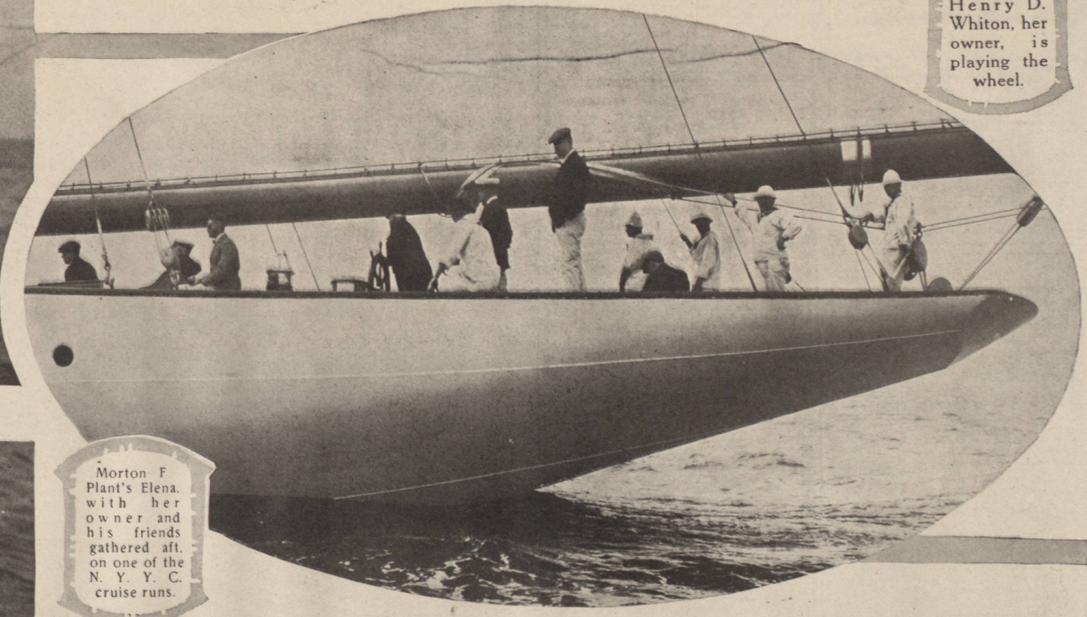

Mr. Clarke's Irolita and Harold Vanderbilt's Vagrant crossing the Sound.

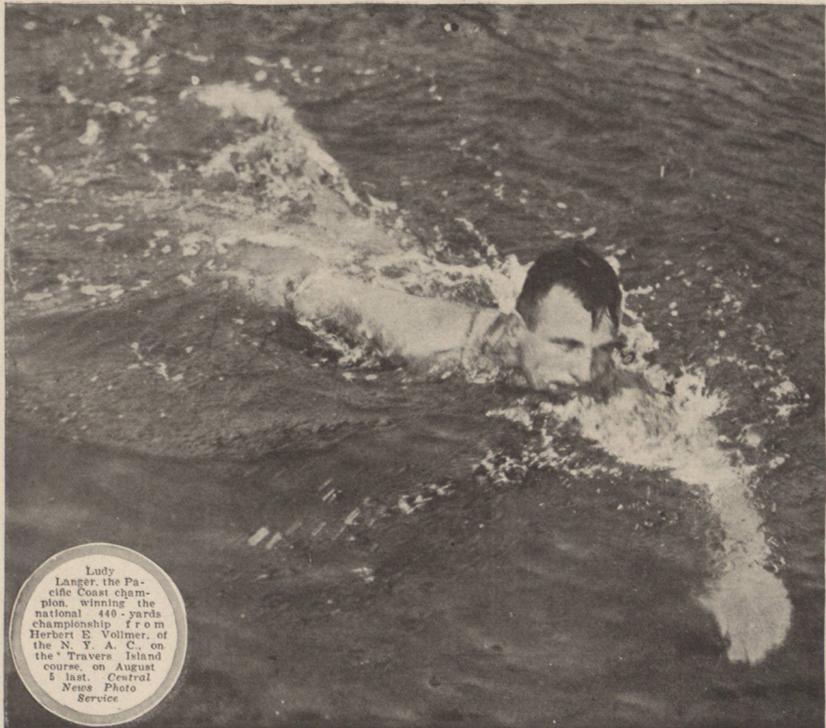

Commodore Baker of the New York Yacht Club watching the annual club cruise races from the hanging stairway of the Viking.

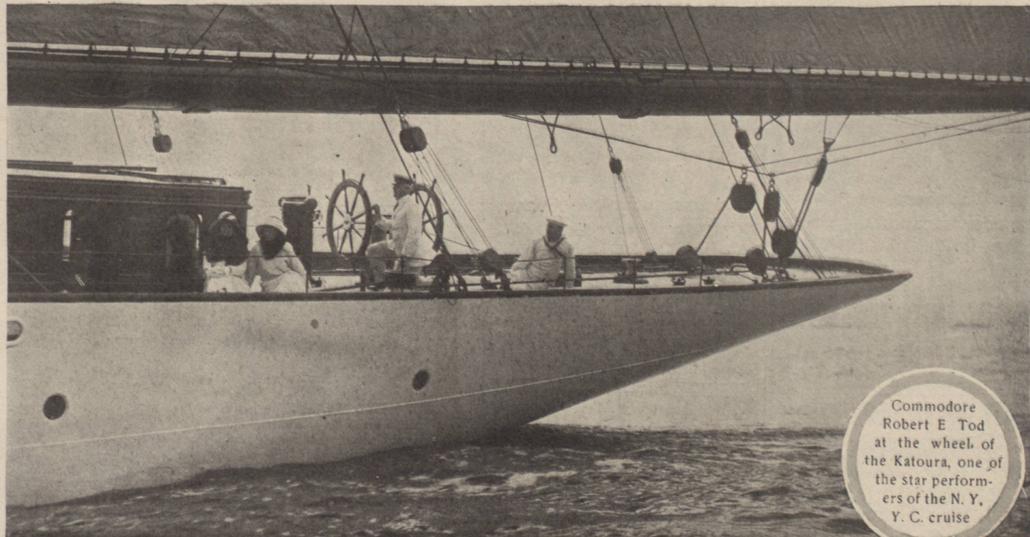

Aft on the Invader. Henry D. Whiton, her owner, is playing the wheel.

Morton F. Plant's Elena, with her owner and his friends gathered aft, on one of the N. Y. Y. C. cruise runs.

Lady Langer, the Pacific Coast champion, winning the national 440-yard championship from Herbert E. Valmer, of the N. Y. A. C., on the Travers Island course, on August 6 last. Central News Photo Service

Commodore Robert E. Tod at the wheel of the Katoura, one of the star performers of the N. Y. Y. C. cruise