

Helen MacKeller had rather fox trot on $50 a week and love than marry $12,000,000.

Lillian Spencer as Marie, the much engaged but never wedded. Her Mrs. are just Misses.

Alice Carroll would consider a practical, sensible man with $12,000,000. No romance wanted — just cash.

In Producing This David Belasco Took Only "Seven Chances"

Drawn by Muchette

MUCHETTE

Beverly West jumps from the cradle to a coiffure at the sight of $12,000,000.

Florence Deshon wants romance — a cave man — but would become matrimonially attached to $12,000,000

Frank Craven and Carroll McComas dancing in the wedding cake of $12,000,000 candles.

Emily Callaway could use the $12,000,000, provided the husband didn't intrude and there was absolute birth control.

Anne Meredith wanted a Knight of Old, but would compromise on a Day of Wealth.