

The Tribune Graphic

PART SIX

NEW YORK TRIBUNE

Section Two

SUNDAY

SEPTEMBER 3, 1916

Thus Is "War or Battle's Sound
Heard the World Around."

THE RUSSIANS ARRIVE IN SALONICA. The Czar's troops entered the city through streets banked with French, British, Serbian and Greek soldiers
© Underwood & Underwood

THE BOY SOLDIERS OF GERMANY. These troops of the 1916 class were captured by hundreds in the region of the Somme. They are on their way to work in the quarries.
International Film Service

'ABANDON SHIP' PRACTICE IN THE BRITISH NAVY. One life preserver does for two score men.
© Brown Bros

SHELL FIRE AT NIGHT. A striking photograph taken in the French advance in the Somme.
Photo from Janet M. Cummings

SIX HUNDRED BULLETS A MINUTE. The new type of German machine gun, in use on the Western Front.
Central News Photo Service

WOUNDED AND FAR FROM HOME. Indian orderlies taking British soldier aboard steamer on the Tigris.
Central News Photo Service

AMERICAN SOLDIERS OF FORTUNE. Officers of American battalions receiving instruction in bomb throwing at the Canadian training camp at Valcartier. Many of these men are now on the way to the front.
© American Press-Medley