REHEARSAL SCENES IN THE YALE-NEW HAVEN PAGEANT

Photos from M. L. Frank.

Fantastic costumes and dances of the period two centuries gone will be among the features of the pageant. Yale students are here seen practising a stately minuet.

Francis Hartman Markoe, master of the pageant, dressed as a herald, precedes the horse on which is seated Mrs. Dennis Cleugh, mistress of robes. The others are students.

Miss Jean Strange, in a Yale blue hoopskirt of the early prom period.

Public school children will figure in the dances which are to be a part of the pageant. A rehearsal in full swing in the Bowl.
