HOTEL BELLECLAIRE

NEW YORK

Broadway at 77th St.
Surface Cars at Door
Subway at 79th St.

Only a few minutes from the Shopping and Theatrical District.

We have a few suites left which we will lease by the season or by the year. They make good homes for nice people—the only kind of people THE BELLECLAIRE accepts as guests. The rooms, the service, the food—will satisfy the most exacting taste.

A family man said the other day:

"Why not advertise the fact that you make a specialty of serving home dinners to families who want to entertain friends and are often prevented from doing so because of the uncertainty of the service in their own homes?"

"You know when we entertain we come to you and ask you to get up a nice dinner for so many people, and then we dismiss the matter from our minds. Your private dining room is just like a home dining room—a little larger than the average, that's all. We are alone with our guests just as though we were in our own home, but with the additional comforting thought that we know the service will be prompt and good and that the food will be cooked just right."

"Then, with coffee and cigars, we open the door and listen to a good orchestra. If we wish to dance, and we sometimes do, there is your Palm Room just across the hall, which you tell us to use whenever we want to."

"We entertain just as if we were in our own home. We are not annoyed by anybody. You have a wonderful hotel for family parties. I think if you let the people know about this many families would take advantage of this feature of THE BELLECLAIRE."

Well, it is unnecessary to add anything to what our friend has said except this: that if you come to us to be entertained, we will do our best to make of you as good a friend as he is.
