

THE WILSON NOTIFICATION—Twenty Thousand Persons Gathered at Shadow Lawn, Long Branch, N. J., to Hear the President Accept the Democratic Nomination.

© Social Press Association.

A NEW TYPE OF HARVARD CREW. The Virginia's raceboat crew, made up of picked Harvard oarsmen, taking the course for the naval rookie championship. Photo by Underwood & Underwood.

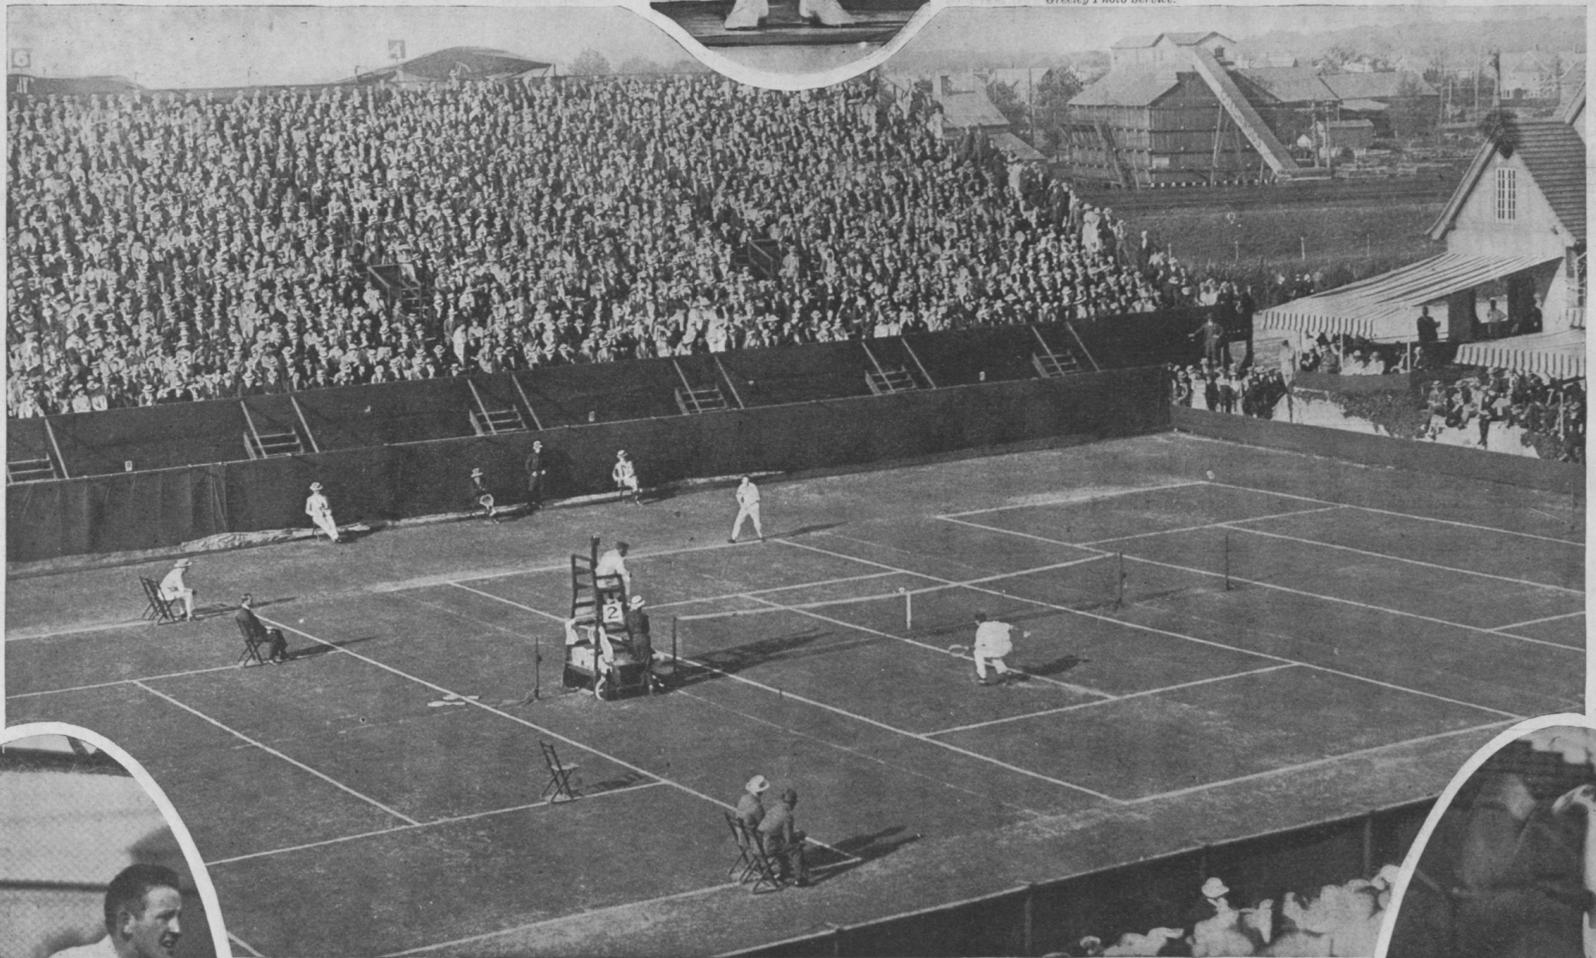

THE WILSON NOTIFICATION—The President delivering his speech of acceptance from the veranda of Shadow Lawn, the summer capitol. Greeley Photo Service.

GREECE'S PRO-GERMAN KING. King Constantine (at the left) in uniform of a German general, watching manoeuvres before the war. In the group are the Kaiser and von Moltke. Film Ser.

William M. Johnston, the playing through champion, on the courts at Forest Hills. Photo by Edwin Levick.

Richard Norris Williams, 2d, Johnston's conqueror in the tennis finals at Forest Hills. Photo by Edwin Levick.

THE NATIONAL TENNIS CHAMPIONSHIPS—William M. Johnston defeating Lindley Murray in the semi-finals at Forest Hills. Murray, crouching, is returning one of Johnston's slashing overhands. © Underwood & Underwood

FINISH OF THE FUTURITY—Richard T. Wilson's great two-year-old, Campfire, leading Rickety and Skeptic to the wire in the Belmont Park classic. Photo by C. C. Cook.

