HOTEL BELLECLAIRE

NEW YORK

Broadway at 77th St. Surface Cars at Door Subway at 79th St.

Only a few minutes from the Shopping and Theatrical District.

Guests who live at the HOTEL BELLECLAIRE most of the year are now returning from their vacations.

They express pleasure over the work done during the Summer months to make the Hotel look inviting and homelike.

The workmen in the different lines certainly did their work well. The Hotel was never in better condition than it is now. It is not a Hotel of fancy frills—it is solid, substantial, comfortable.

One guest said: "The Belleclaire this season seems more homelike to me than ever. You certainly have fixed it up fine."

The Housekeeper is very proud of the new decorations in the bedrooms. She and her assistants have worked mighty hard to get everything in order.

The service is being improved. The assistant manager is training waiters, bell-boys, etc., to a high degree of efficiency. The desire is to give a perfect service, and it requires hard work to keep it right. Mistakes are sometimes made, of course, but they are immediately corrected. That's something, anyway—to know when a thing is wrong and then to right it at once.

The food supply end of the Hotel is in good hands. There is no careless marketing. Nothing but the best suffices. The cooks know that they have the best materials to use, and they take pride in preparing the good dishes which are helping a lot to win permanent diners at the Hotel.

We are ready to serve you, and at all times will do the best we know how to make you feel at home.

ROBERT D. BLACKMAN.
