

FOR AN EMERGENCY. There are ways to sit down and be dry even when the ground is damp.

Skyscraper Preparedness. Encamped on a Hotel Roof, Girl Scouts Make War Look Easy.

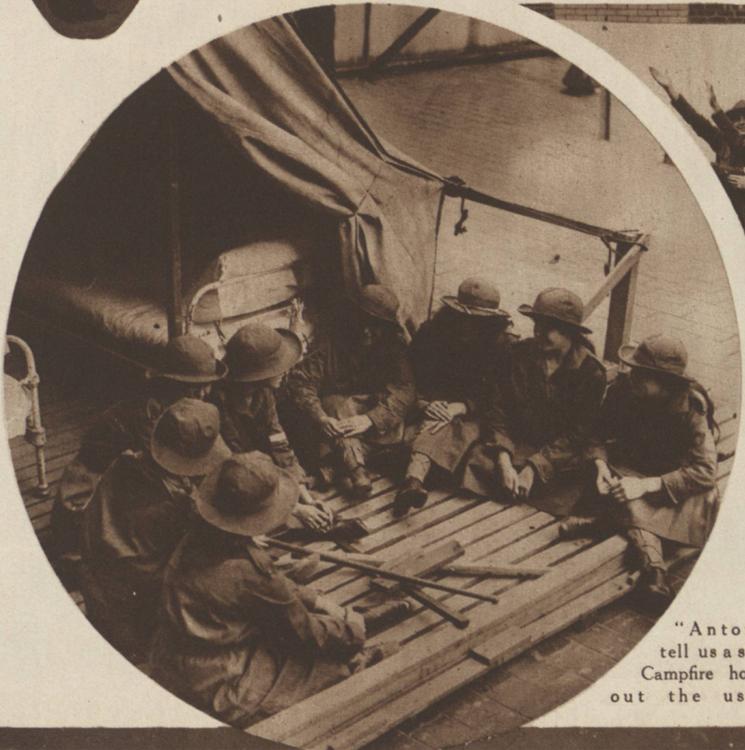

Pack Photo News, Inc.

SAVING THE OLD FLAG. Let the Stars and Stripes be in danger, and Gertrude Freyman comes to the rescue.

A LESSON IN WIGWAG. Miss Freyman, who dotes on climbing around places, is wagging in the Scout code.

RIGORS OF CAMP LIFE. Scenes such as this were frequent when the Girl Scouts trained on the roof of the Martha Washington Hotel.

"Antonio, tell us a story." Campfire hour without the usual fire.

NOT WASH DAY, BUT SIGNAL DRILL. Camp towels, handkerchiefs and hands serve as flags.

AT THE SOUND OF THE "CHOW" BELL. Second table for those left at the post.

