

Hughes Speaks in the Rain—A steady downpour did not deter the crowd which gathered in the open to hear the Republican Presidential nominee at Waverly, N. Y. Umbrellas were a secondary consideration.

© Underwood & Underwood.

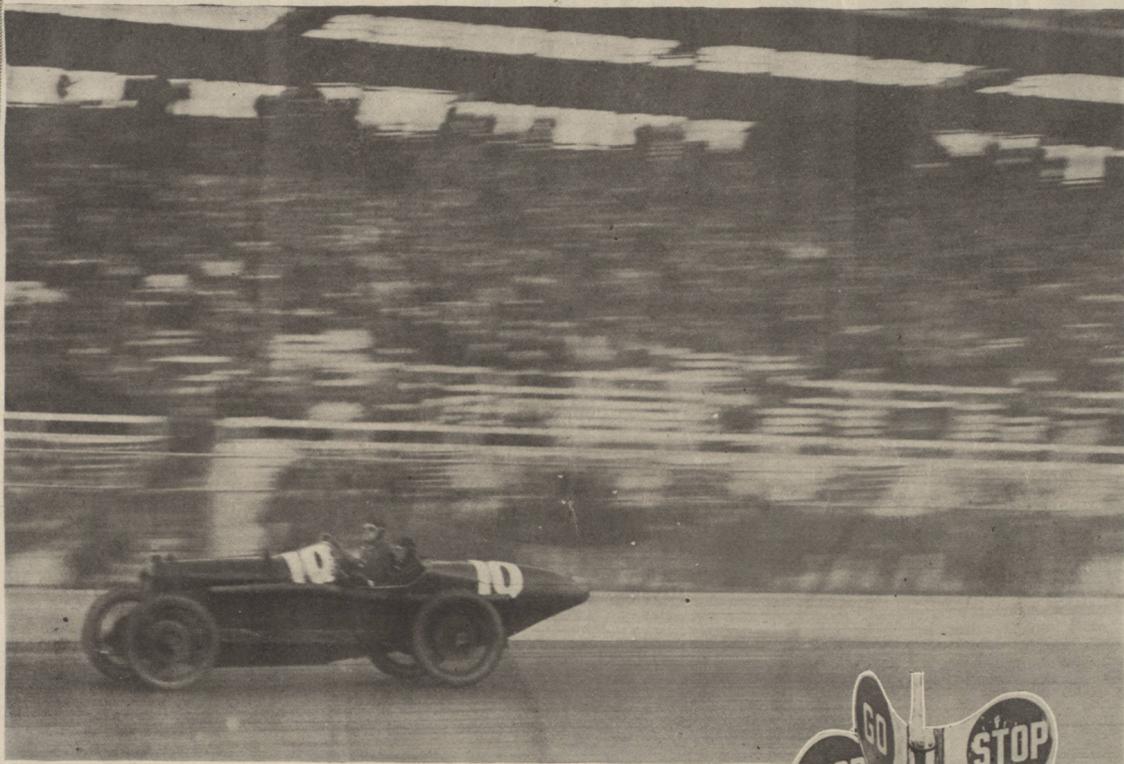

Off to Conquer New Worlds—Fred Murray, Bob Simpson, Jo Loomis, Andy Ward and Ted Meredith depart on the Oscar II to represent the United States in forthcoming Scandinavian athletic meets.

Paul Thompson.

That September Morn Ball

Miss Vivian Maybaum at Webster Hall's first out-re event of the season. The Pagan Rout and other zippy Greenwich Village goings on are still in the winter distance. The natives set great store by them all.

Paul Thompson

Aitken Winning the Astor Cup Race—In order to "stop" the leading Peugeot, speeding at 105 miles an hour, the photographer had to move his camera with the car. The picture gives a faint idea of how the grandstand looked to the daring driver.

Kellar & White.

Votes for Soldiers

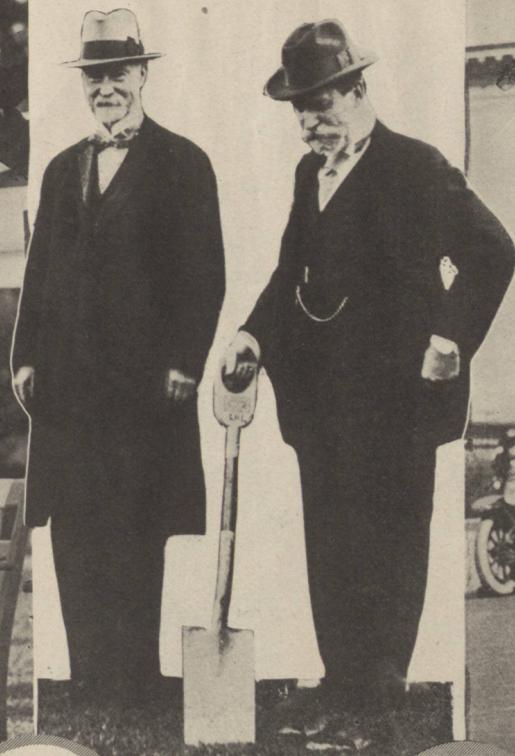

New York troops on the border will use a ballot eight feet, four inches long on Election Day. It is the first war ballot since Spanish-American days and contains names of neither candidates nor parties. Secretary of State Hugo is holding it.

© Underwood & Underwood.

At Belmont Park—Mrs. Charles B. Dillingham and Miss Madeleine Cochran watching the races.

Edwin Levick.

The Republican Ticket—Mr. Hughes plants a tree on Mr Fairbanks's lawn at Indianapolis.

Paul Thompson.

Rookie Cops on Duty—One of the 300 citizen policemen sworn in to do strike emergency duty.

© Underwood & Underwood.

