

Weary of body and mind are these German prisoners captured in battles in the Somme. They are of a type which Allied officers say is fast disappearing— young, strong, courageous and self-reliant. They are being replaced in the trenches, their captors declare, by men of the Landsturm and "kindergarten" classes.

American Press—Medem.

England's King and Queen at a military charity fete at Aldershot. Princess Mary is at the extreme left. Lady Archibald Hunter is seated next to King George. On his other side is Lord Derby, beside him is Queen Alexandra. Major General Ellison, General Sir Archibald Hunter, Colonel Clive Wigram and Sir Charles Cust are on the right.

Central News Photo Service.

Not An American Movie in the making, but a field post behind the Austrian lines in Galicia. The old stagecoach is used to haul supplies over rocky roads, where even an auto truck might be at a disadvantage.

Underwood & Underwood.

Montreal Bids Farewell to the Duke of Connaught. The retiring Governor-General is inspecting the company raised by the 5th Highlanders to reinforce the famous 13th Battalion, which made history at Ypres.

Underwood & Underwood.