HOTEL BELLECLAIRE

NEW YORK

Broadway at 77th St
Surface Cars at Door
Subway at 79th St.

Only a few minutes from the Shopping and Theatrical District.

The stranger in New York on Thanksgiving Day is very lonesome. He would give anything in the world to be back home.

The thousands of people living in New York—roomers—would like, better than anything in the world, to have an old fashioned Thanksgiving Dinner in some home, among friends.

The Hotel Belleclaire tries to make itself a real home on Thanksgiving Day. It cannot supply you with personal friends but it can and does supply a friendly atmosphere.

You can enjoy your Thanksgiving Dinner amid surroundings calculated to make you feel at home although you may be alone.

You will not receive any cold glances from anybody. The home spirit prevails.

You will get a good dinner. You can stuff yourself full of good things. They will be served as if you were in a home of your own. They will be cooked as nearly like mother used to cook as possible.

There will be music to cheer you up. You will dine among nice, home loving people.

Come around from 1 to 3 for your midday meal, or from 6:30 to 8:30 for your night meal.

Maybe you would like to start the day off with a breakfast of Country Sausages and Griddle Cakes and a fine cup of Coffee—served from 7 to 11.

We will do our very best to give you a happy Thanksgiving Day.

ROBERT D. BLACKMAN.
