

DRAG HUNTING is a popular early winter pastime at Aiken, South Carolina, where fragrant pines make sweet the air. Courtesy of Southern Ry

DO YOU YEARN FOR A HOLIDAY OUT OF TOWN?

CALL FOR A CADDY at Pinehurst, North Carolina, and this dusky crew is forthwith produced for your approval.

GROVE PARK INN, at Asheville, North Carolina, where one may golf or gallop, dawdle or dance to one's heart's content. Courtesy of Southern Ry

YOU MAY TAKE YOUR CHOICE OF SNOWS OR PALMS.

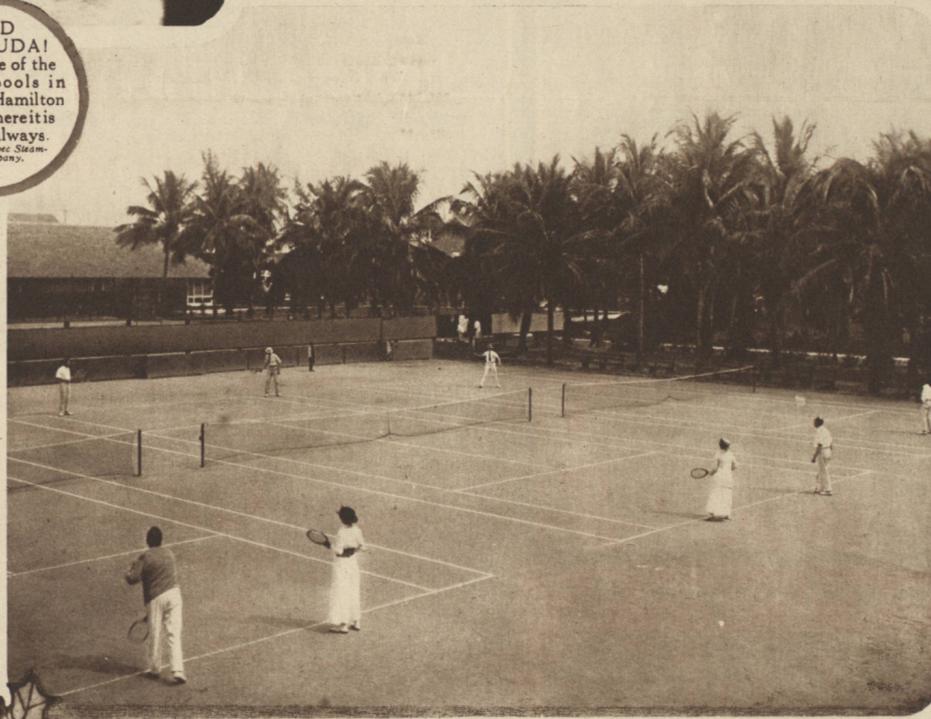

IF YOUR TASTE runs to brisk cold, try a toboggan slide on Dufferin Terrace, Chateau Frontenac, Quebec. Courtesy Canadian Pacific Railway

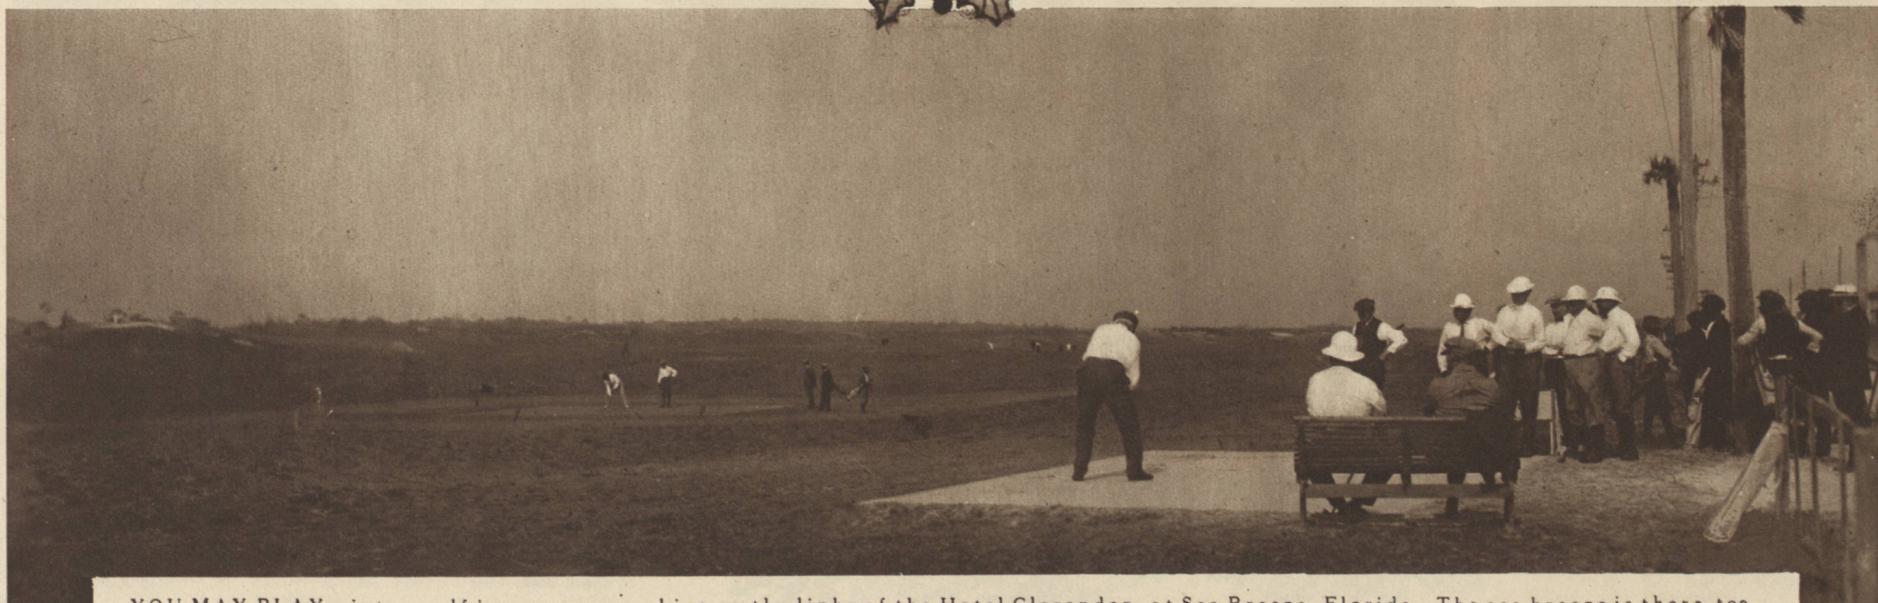

AND BERMUDA! Here is one of the bathing pools in beautiful Hamilton Harbor, where it is summer always. Courtesy Quebec Steamship Company

CUBA CALLS the traveler who is fond of motoring—and who is not? A scene in the Yumuri Valley. Courtesy of United Railways of Havana

PALM BEACH, noted for many things, has long been famous for the excellence of tennis courts such as these. Courtesy of Florida East Coast Railway

YOU MAY PLAY winter golf in summer sunshine on the links of the Hotel Clarendon, at Sea Breeze, Florida. The sea breeze is there, too