To-day—Dec. 3—is The Tribune's Christmas number—three weeks in advance of that great day.
We do not mind sending to our friends among Tribune readers, a message of good cheer, even so far in advance of Christmas.
We never weary in sending them messages of good cheer or in asking them to participate in the good cheer which prevails at the Belleclaire every day from one Christmas Day to another Christmas Day.

So here's to you, good people! Move along in happy anticipation of what Christmas Day will bring to you in the way of joy—joy in giving and joy in receiving. May all that you want come to you!
Note: If your cook fails you on Christmas Day come to the Belleclaire for your meals. Fine breakfast—fine lunch—fine dinner and the Christmas Spirit will prevail. But if you have everything but a good pie, then let us know in advance and we will make for you a fine Apple Pie, a fine Pumpkin Pie or a fine Mince Pie, or all three.
ROBERT D. BLACKMAN.
